1993 OUTLOOK

1993 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Stop if you've heard this before:

John Robinson is USC's coach...The Trojans' tailback-oriented offense will aim to physically dominate opponents...Troy's defense will be hard hitting and punishing...USC expects to spend New Year's Day in Pasadena and to rank in the Top 5 nationally.

Yes, it's "Back To The Future" at USC. Deja vu. Robinson redux. Play it again, John.

After a 10-year absence, Robinson has returned as head coach to USC, where he won 81.9% of his games in 7 seasons (1976-82). He captured the national championship in 1978 (USC was ranked No. 2 in 1976 and 1979), led USC to 3 Pac-10 titles, and guided Troy to 5 post-season bowls (with wins in his 3 Rose Bowl trips). He was 6-1 against Notre Dame and 5-2 against UCLA. He coached 2 Heisman Trophy winners (Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981), a Lombardi Award winner (Brad Budde in 1979) and 21 first team All-Americans.

Robinson then coached the Los Angeles Rams to a 79-74 mark--the most wins of any Rams head coach--in his 9 years there (1983-91). He reached the playoffs in 6 of those seasons, twice advancing to the NFC championship game.

"It's an honor for me to return to USC," said Robinson, who kicked off his first go-around at Troy by posting an 11-1 mark in his 1976 rookie campaign. "This is a great university and I'm excited about being a part of its future. My energy level is the same now as it was when I was named USC's head coach the first time. I can't wait to get the season started."

Robinson, the winningest active Division I-A head coach, takes over a Trojan team that returns 17 starters (8 on offense and 9 on defense), plus the placekicker and punter. Eight other players return who started at least 1 contest in 1992. In all, 92 players (including 43 lettermen) are back from the 1992 squad which went 6-5-1 overall, tied for third in the Pacific-10 at 5-3, and played in the Freedom Bowl. Fifteen highly-regard junior college and high school recruits--including 8 All-American first team selections--have been added to the roster this fall.

"We're fighting our way back," said Robinson. "We can be very competitive in 1993 at the highest level. I find myself shooting my mouth off saying we'll win them all. But you can't function at USC without those expectations. We feel we should be in the Top 5 every year. We can never be an underdog. I know the expectation level here. If we're going to get it back, you have to say that's the standard."

Robinson said he'll rely on a philosophy that proved successful during his previous stay at USC.

"We'll approach the game from the physical point of view," he said. "We feel we must win the physical battle on offense and defense. We want to establish the run on offense and stop the run on defense.

"Football does not change, although it certainly does evolve. It's a physical game first. That has not changed and it will never change."

Among USC's key returnees are offensive tackle Tony Boselli, a 1992 All-American first teamer who is now a leading Outland Trophy candidate, defensive end Willie McGinest, a 1992 All-Pac-10 first team choice who is now a top contender for All-American and Lombardi Award honors, and wide receiver Johnnie Morton, who made the All-Pac-10 second team last year and is now an All-American nominee. Boselli was only the fifth Trojan sophomore to earn All-American acclaim, McGinest tied for the 1992 Pac-10 lead in sacks (16), and 3-year starter Morton is tied for third on USC's career receiving chart (he had 49 receptions last year).

Five 1992 All-Pac-10 honorable mention picks are also on this year's roster: tight end Bradford Banta, offensive guard Joel Crisman, center Craig Gibson (a 3-year starter), quarterback Rob Johnson (USC's No. 9 career passer) and safety-cornerback Jason Sehorn.

The Trojans lost 3 top skill position starters on offense in All-American first team flanker/return specialist Curtis Conway (Troy's career kickoff return leader who had 49 catches and scored a TD 4 different ways last fall before leaving after his junior year to enter the NFL draft, where he was the Chicago Bears' first round pick), tailback Estrus Crayton (USC's rushing leader in 1992 with 700 yards), and fullback Wes Bender. But the 1993 offensive lineup will be experienced. Besides Boselli, Morton, Banta, Crisman, Gibson and Johnson, tackle Len Gorecki and guard Kris Pollack were starters last year who return, as do 4 1992 part-time starters in tailback Dwight McFadden, fullback Deon Strother (USC's 1991 rushing leader as a tailback), guard Robert Loya, and center Clay Hattabaugh.

In addition to McGinest and Sehorn, USC's starting defensive returnees are outside linebackers Brian Williams (last year's tackle leader) and Jeff Kopp, safety Mike Salmon, inside linebacker Shannon Jones, nose tackle Mike Hinz, and cornerbacks Jason Oliver (a 3-year starter who has 9 career interceptions) and Jerald Henry. Also back are 4 others who were 1992 part-time starters: defensive tackle Thomas Holland, inside linebacker Gidion Murrell, cornerback John Herpin, and defensive end Darren Gallaway. Gone from the starting defensive unit are a pair of 1992 All-Pac-10 second teamers: safety Stephon Pace and defensive tackle-outside linebacker David Webb.

Cole Ford will handle placekicking chores for the third year, while John Stonehouse returns as the punter.

USC, which played the nation's most difficult schedule in 1992 (according to the NCAA and USA Today), has another challenging slate in 1993. There are 8 1992 bowl teams--Notre Dame, Penn State, Washington, Stanford, North Carolina, Arizona, Washington State, and Oregon--on tap. Robinson and his Trojans debut Aug. 29 against North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic and then open at home in the renovated Coliseum on Sept. 4 versus Houston. USC plays only 5 home games.

"I think we'll be a good team," said Robinson. "We expect to compete with anybody in the country this year. We want to be the best team in the nation. Can we do that? I don't know. To have a great season, we'll have to win the close games. So, besides winning games physically, we'll have to be efficient.

"I hope our expectation level and that of our fans is very high. We have to get back to behaving like we always have. How quickly we live up to these expectations, we'll have to wait and see. But I want that. I don't think we have any other alternative than to aspire to be national champions."

OFFENSE

Eight starters--quarterback Johnson, wide receiver Morton, tight end Banta, tackles Boselli and Gorecki, guards Pollack and Crisman, and center Gibson--return on an offensive unit that needs to improve upon its 1992 averages of 319.0 total yards and 22.0 points per game.

Robinson will switch back to a Power I system (USC used multiple offensive formations in the recent past). His previous Trojan teams were noted as offensive powerhouses. Under Robinson, USC finished third (in 1976) and fourth twice (1977 and 1979) nationally in total offense. His 1979 squad gained more yards (5,655) than any team in Trojan history.

"I can promise you that Student Body Right will be run the same number of times as Student Body Left," he said. "We'll go back to that kind of approach to the game, to a tailback offense. But we want to be balanced. I want to establish a power running game and an efficient passing game. I realize there are many skilled athletes here now who throw and catch the ball well. Remember, though, that besides a strong running game, we threw and caught the ball well when I was here before. But the teams that have been winning in football are the power running teams. I want to be able to run the ball. I want to establish a dominant tailback and offensive line."

QUARTERBACK--Experienced junior Johnson (163-of-285, 57.2%, 2,118 yards, 12 TDs, 14 interceptions in 1992), already ninth on USC's career passing ladder with 182 completions, is the incumbent at quarterback after starting all of last fall. His steady play earned him 1992 All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice. He even caught 2 TD passes on trick plays in 1992.

Waiting in the wings is rifle-armed sophomore Kyle Wachholtz (6-of-10, 60.0%, 54 yards, 0 TDs, 1 interception in 1992). Although he played in only 3 games last year, he was impressive in showing off his abilities (nearly pulling out a win at Washington and guiding Troy on a pair of decisive scoring drives against California).

QUARTERBACKS
ROB JOHNSON, Jr.	USC's No. 9 career passer
Matt Koffler, Rs. Fr.
Kyle Wachholtz, So.	60% passer, 3 games in '92

Untested redshirt freshman Matt Koffler adds depth to the quarterback corps.

"Johnson and Wachholtz are young players with high potential levels," said Robinson. "Rob did a lot of outstanding things in 1992. He's a very accurate passer and will fit into our style. Kyle is a real prospect with his great size and arm."

TAILBACK--Look for the USC tailback spot to re-emerge as the glamour position in college football. After all, Robinson is considered an expert on the running game. He has produced 4 NFL rushing champions and 2 NCAA rushing leaders. He also has the unique distinction of turning out the single season rushing record setters in college (Allen in 1981 with 2,427 yards, a record that has since been broken) and pro football (Eric Dickerson in 1984 with 2,105 yards).

"We want to re-establish the tradition of running the ball here," said Robinson. "We want a tailback who can carry the ball 25 to 30 times a game and lead the league in rushing."

Experienced sophomore McFadden (126 carries, 465 yards, 3.7 avg., 2 TDs) won the job of replacing Crayton with an impressive showing in 1993 spring practice. An exciting, speedy runner who entered 1992 as an unknown but quickly attracted attention, McFadden was second on the Trojans in rushing last fall while starting twice. He led the Trojans in rushing 6 times, including a 95-yard output at Arizona State. He was named to the Football News Freshman All-American third team.

"Dwight is very quick and fast," said Robinson. "He has outstanding speed in the small area where a runner lives. He can make you miss him. He's quiet and doesn't look tough, but he is. And he's ambitious. This kid is good."

David Dotson, Rs. Fr.

Saladin McCullough, In. Fr.	'92 prep All-American
Dwight McFadden, So.	'92 Frosh All-American 3rd team
Shawn Walters, Rs. Fr.
LaVale Woods, In. Fr.

In the hunt for backup duty are soph Scott Fields, who was a reserve safety and top special teams player in 1992 as a first-year freshman (he had more than 2,000 career rushing yards as a prepster), plus a pair of redshirt freshmen--David Dotson and Shawn Walters. Redshirt freshman Conrad Coleman figures as a reserve.

Prep All-American Saladin McCullough (Muir HS in Pasadena, Calif.) joins the tailback corps in this year, along with LaVale Woods (Dobson HS in Mesa, Ariz.).

"We need some of these younger players to step forward," said Robinson. "The position switch worked out well for Scott. He's still young and learning how to play tailback, but physically he's a lot like Marcus Allen. David isn't a real big guy, but people don't knock him down easily. When they hit him, he spins around and keeps running. Shawn has some speed and some size. He's trying to change from being a breakaway back to being a physical back."

FULLBACK--The likely replacement for Bender at fullback will be senior Strother (20 carries, 42 yards, 2.1 avg., 2 TDs rushing in 1992, plus 10 catches, 8.6 avg. receiving), a converted tailback. The hard-running Strother, USC's leading rusher in 1991 with 614 yards, played in only 5 games last year (with 1 start) because of ankle injuries. In his career (which includes 6 starts), he has run for 767 yards and 10 TDs, caught 18 passes, and even thrown 2 TD passes.

"Deon is versatile," said Robinson. "He reminds me size-wise of Marcus Allen and Manfred Moore, tailbacks who played some fullback during their USC days. A fullback doesn't necessarily have to be big to be a good blocker. The quicker player who gets to the target and strikes can be a better blocker than a big guy. Deon does that. And he runs and catches the ball well."

Senior Rory Brown and redshirt freshman Kevin Clark are the backups. Brown has battled injuries throughout his Trojan career.

"Rory is a smart, veteran player who is an efficient blocker and good pass receiver," said Robinson. "Kevin is inexperienced, but is a real prospect. He has almost the perfect build for the fullback position."

Taso Papadakis (Peninsula HS in Rolling Hills, Calif.), the son of ex-Trojan linebacker John Papadakis (1970-71), enrolls this fall.

WIDE RECEIVER--This is a thin position for USC despite the presence of All-American candidate Morton (49 catches, 15.4 avg., team-high 6 TDs). Eight of the 13 Trojans who caught a pass last year are gone, including blazing All-American Conway (who was part of a receiving corps hailed by some publications as the nation's best in 1992).

The acrobatic Morton, a senior known for his outstanding hands, will be starting for his fourth year on one side. He is tied for third on USC's career receiving chart with 113 clutches and needs 51 catches to break the record. In 1992, he tied with Conway for the team lead in receptions (that was the sixth best season ever at USC), went over the 100-yard receiving mark 3 times (he has done so 5 times in his career), grabbed 3 TDs in a game twice (San Diego State and Oregon), had 9 catches versus Notre Dame and 8 versus Oregon, and made the All-Pac-10 second team.

"Johnnie will be among the best receivers in the country and he could earn All-American honors," said Robinson. "I really like his ability. We must find help for Morton on the other side. No doubt, wide receiver is our biggest concern. Losing 4 of our first 5 receivers leaves us with a huge hole."

JOHNNIE MORTON, Sr.	113 career catches, 49 in '92

Anthony Volsan, In. Fr.

The only other returning wideouts on the roster are both untried: junior Ryan Lenderman, who has yet to catch a pass at USC, and redshirt freshman Quincy Harrison.

"Ryan is a very competitive and efficient possession-type receiver who knows how to get open and catch the ball," said Robinson. "Quincy is young and inexperienced, but has talent."

WR JOHNNIE MORTON

TE BRADFORD BANTA

TIGHT END--"There has been a tradition in USC's power football game of having a powerful blocking tight end," said Robinson. "Banta can and must be that dominant tight end. Because we'll also use the tight-end-in-motion extensively, we expect the tight ends to collectively catch 50 balls this fall."

Banta (8 catches, 14.3 avg., 1 TD in 1992), a big senior who is equally adept at blocking and catching, returns as the starting tight end...and he's a good one. An All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick last fall, he also performed flawlessly as USC's long snapper.

"Bradford is fabulous," said Robinson. "He's a great big guy, a good blocker and good catcher. He's a big leader on this team and a key player."

TIGHT ENDS
John Allred, Rs. Fr.
BRADFORD BANTA, Sr.	'92 All-Pac-10 hon. ment.
Tyler Cashman, So.
Johnny McWilliams, So.

Jostling for playing time behind him are 3 inexperienced players: sophs Tyler Cashman and Johnny McWilliams and redshirt freshman John Allred. Robinson plans to use Cashman and McWilliams as tight-ends-in-motion.

"Tyler fits very well into our passing game plans," said Robinson. "He can be very effective on the inside. Johnny is an outstanding receiver and an improving blocker. John will be a major player in the years to come. He's in the tradition of great USC tight ends."

OFFENSIVE LINE--Just about everyone--including all the starters--returns on the Trojan offensive line. That's good news as Robinson attempts to mold a dominating offensive front for his power running attack.

"We can and must become a dominant force on the offensive line," said Robinson. "I like our chances of doing that because we return so many players on the line. We have some potentially outstanding players who are physical. We must establish the fact that we can control the game with our offensive line. This is perhaps our most important offensive goal."

Anchoring the line will be All-American junior left tackle Boselli. A leading Outland Trophy candidate, the big (6-8, 295), powerful and quick Boselli was only the fifth Trojan sophomore to earn All-American first team acclaim. A 2-time All-Pac-10 first teamer, he'll be starting for his third season. He's also a star in the classroom, where he has been a Pac-10 All-Academic first team selection the past 2 years.

"Tony appears to be ready to take his place alongside the great offensive tackles who have played at USC," said Robinson. "He's definitely an elite player, worthy of all the recognition he's had already. He's a legitimate All-American. The key will be how much he improves, especially in how quick and physical he plays, and if he can take it to that next level like all the great ones have done. That's his challenge."

Steady, heady senior center Gibson will be in the lineup for his fourth year, becoming USC's first 4-year starting offensive lineman since All-American guard Mark Tucker did so from 1987-90. Gibson earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention in 1992.

"Craig is a really good player," said Robinson. "He lacks size, but he makes up for it because he's such an excellent technician."

OT TONY BOSELLI

C CRAIG GIBSON

Two seasoned players will be the guards: senior Crisman (9 starts in 1992, including 7 at guard and 2 at tackle) on the left side and junior Pollack (5 starts in 1992) on the right side. The solid Crisman was an All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick last fall. He also had 5 starts in 1991. Injuries limited Pollack to just 7 games in 1992 after being a 9-game starter in 1991.

"Joel is a real solid player with good size," said Robinson. "Kris is a proven player. He is a key to our line."

Huge (6-7, 295) but untried soph Norberto Garrido won the starting right tackle job with an impressive spring performance.

"It'll be fun to watch Norberto in 1993," said Robinson. "He looks like he's 7 feet tall and 400 pounds. He has developed the mentality that if he can get to you, he'll not only block you, he'll strangle you."

Gorecki, who emerged as a year-long starter at tackle in 1992 when injuries struck the line in the pre-season, is listed behind Garrido, along with untested soph Stuart Gage. High-potential sophomores Loya (7 starts in 1992) and Kyle Ramsay back up Pollack. Gibson's backups at center are senior David Apolskis, who saw lots of action in 1992 after being sidelined in 1991 while battling--and beating--testicular cancer, and Hattabaugh (1 start in 1992), who was slated to start last year but a kneecap injury sidelined him for all but 1 contest. Junior Andre Abrams and soph Jeremy Hogue, who both have limited experience, back up Boselli and Crisman, respectively.

"Len is a veteran, competent player who has the experience needed to compete for playing time," said Robinson. "Stuart has a huge frame and is a very tough guy who could be a solid player. Robert got some great playing experience last year and could be a factor. Kyle is a young prospect with excellent size and potential. David is solid, smart, efficient and every bit the competitor. We're counting on Clay this fall; if he's healthy, he has a chance to see action. Andre is very athletic, with good quickness and balance. Jeremy has great savvy about the game and could develop into a good player for us."

Other offensive linemen who will be attempting to make an impact are senior Keith Siscel, junior Jason Keiderling and sophomore Donovan Roy at tackle, and redshirt freshman Dong Koo at guard.

Arriving this fall are prep All-American Chris Brymer (Apple Valley HS in Apple Valley, Calif.) at guard, plus tackle Phalen Pounds (Pasadena HS in Pasadena, Calif.).

DEFENSE

Nine defensive starters return: defensive end McGinest, outside linebackers Williams and Kopp, safeties Sehorn (who might also play cornerback) and Salmon, inside linebacker Jones, cornerbacks Oliver and Henry, and nose tackle Hinz. Although 6 of Troy's top 7 tacklers are back from a unit that was tied for 14th nationally in rushing defense (130.3) last year, the Trojans need to tighten up a defense which in 1992 allowed 347.7 total yards and 20.8 points per game.

Robinson's past USC squads always featured dominant defenses. For example, his Trojans finished first in the conference in total defense 4 times (1976-77-80-81) and the 1980 team led the Pac-10 in every team defensive category.

"That we establish a physical and aggressive defense is critical to our season," said Robinson. "We must play well against the run. That goes back to our whole physical approach to the game.

"The first step I've taken towards accomplishing this is hiring Don Lindsey as our defensive coordinator. He's one of the premier defensive coaches in college football. I know that under Don and the other assistants, we'll be an aggressive, tough defense. Don likes to use the word 'swarm' when describing our defense, because it has the connotation of great movement and speed. That's the image we want to create here."

Lindsey, who also is the Trojans' assistant head coach and linebackers coach, spent 10 years as an assistant at USC (1971-80) under John McKay and then Robinson, the last 4 as the defensive coordinator. During that time, USC won 3 national championships (1972-74-78) and led the league in total defense in 7 seasons (1972-73-74-75-76-77-80). After leaving USC, Lindsey was defensive coordinator at Arkansas (1981-83), Georgia Tech (1984-87), Alabama (1988-90), and Missouri (1992).

Lindsey has changed USC's defensive scheme from last year's attacking style that featured an 8-man front to a 4-3 formation.

"The 4-3 is best for us at this time," Lindsey said. "It best fits our physical approach to playing defense. And it will make it easier for us to adjust to the various types of offenses we'll face this year.

"We want to attack the offense, but that doesn't mean we'll always blitz. We don't want to wait for the offense to make mistakes, we want to create mistakes. If we can create confusion somewhere, that's what we want to do. We also don't want to be predictable. We want to change the pace we play."

DEFENSIVE LINE--With the new 4-man front this year, the terminology will change somewhat as there will be a pair of defensive ends (called outside linebackers last season) plus a nose tackle and defensive tackle.

McGinest (63 tackles, 23 for losses, with 16 sacks, plus 9 deflections, 3 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in 1992), a senior defensive end who is a quarterback's worst nightmare, not only will be USC's premier defensive player, but he figures to be a sure-fire candidate for All-American and Lombardi Award honors. He's big, strong, fast, athletic and dominant. A 1992 All-Pac-10 first team pick, he was last year's Pac-10 co-sack leader while playing outside linebacker.

"I expect McGinest to be a top player," said Lindsey. "He has the God-given talent, especially in applying pass pressure. I've always believed that you have to have a player who is a threat on defense so the opponent says, 'We've got to get that guy blocked!' Willie has to be that guy for us."

Added Robinson: "Willie can be one of the dominant defensive players in the United States. I expect him to be one of our leaders in 1993. We'll feature him on our defense."

Senior Gallaway (6 tackles, 1 for a loss in 1992), who started once in 1992, will start at the other defensive end position, a spot held last year by Webb.

"Darren really impressed me this spring," said Lindsey.

DT THOMAS HOLLAND

NT MIKE HINZ

"He's a tough, solid, aggressive player who comes to play on every down. His long suit is defending the run."

Seniors Elic Mahone (1 tackle in 1992), and Junior Moi (1 tackle in 1992), both with limited experience, will back up Gallaway, while sophomore John Michels and redshirt freshman Willie Lowery are behind McGinest.

"Elic showed outstanding pass rushing skills and made great improvement on his run defense," said Lindsey. "He'll be used a lot on pass rush downs. We need for Junior to keep improving and get on the field and contribute. John is smart, aggressive and learns quickly. He's a top young prospect."

A new defensive end this fall is prep All-American Germaine Gray (Eisenhower HS in Rialto, Calif.).

Starting in the interior of the defensive line are hard-nosed seniors Holland (15 tackles, 3 for losses for 1992), who started the first 7 games of 1992 at nose guard before breaking his arm, and Hinz (20 tackles, 5 for losses, 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble, 1 deflection in 1992), who started there the final 5 contests. Holland is now a defensive tackle and Hinz--who has 16 career starts--is a nose tackle.

But they'll be challenged for playing time. Senior Jason Uhl and redshirt freshman Matt Keneley back up Hinz at nose tackle, while senior Terry McDaniels (18 tackles, 4 for losses in 1992), who started 20 games in 1990 and 1991, is Holland's backup at defensive tackle. Other reserve defensive tackles are senior Matt Butkus and redshirt freshmen Pat Ah-Hing and Chris Miller.

"Jason is a solid, consistent player who gets everything he's got out of his talent and abilities," said Lindsey. "Matt is big and we need him to play big by plugging up gaps and holes. He has a lot of potential. With a greater commitment to excellent, Terry could become the best defensive lineman in the Pac-10. He possesses outstanding skills and has the size needed to shed blocks and plug holes."

Nose tackle Jonathan Himebauch (Damien HS in La Verne, Calif.), a prep All-American and the son of USC recruiting coordinator Jack Himebauch, joins the Trojans in the fall.

"We can't accomplish our defensive goals if we're not strong up front," said Lindsey. "We need big players who play big. That's important to our ability to be physical and defend the run."

INSIDE LINEBACKER--The 4-3 defense allows for just 1 inside linebacker, so he must be a physical presence.

"The inside linebacker needs to solidify our strength up the middle and be a physical force between the tackles," said Lindsey.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS
Joe Barry, Sr.	Son of USC OL coach Mike Barry

SHANNON JONES, Sr.	Converted starting DG
Gidion Murrell, Sr.	11 career starts

DE WILLIE McGINEST

ILB SHANNON JONES

Rugged senior Jones (23 tackles, 1 for a loss, 1 deflection in 1992) has been moved here after starting all of last fall up front at defensive guard. The position is familiar to him as he was a reserve inside linebacker earlier in his Trojan career.

"We moved Shannon to inside linebacker because we need a run stopper between the tackles and he brings some wood with him when he hits you," said Lindsey.

Two other seniors back him up: Murrell (17 tackles, 3 for losses, 3 deflections, 1 forced fumble in 1992), who has started 11 times in his career (once last fall) and has 119 career stops, and Joe Barry (4 tackles, 3 for losses in 1992), the son of new USC offensive line coach Mike Barry. Redshirt frosh Mark Farlin provides depth.

"I'm excited about Gidion's ability and potential," said Lindsey. "He's a big guy who can run. And he'll hit you. Joe is an excellent player. He's conscientious, a competitor. He wants to win. He may lack size, but he always comes to play."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER--Last year's 2 starting inside linebackers--juniors Williams (91 tackles, 13 for losses, 3 forced fumbles, 1 interception, 1 deflection in 1992) and Kopp (74 tackles, 7 for losses, 2 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles, 2 deflections in 1992)--have been moved to outside linebacker and will start there. The super-quick Williams led Troy in tackles last year while earning Football News Sophomore All-American third team notice, while Kopp proved effective with his aggressiveness and determination.

"Brian is a threat as a blitzer or as a coverage man," said Lindsey. "He defends the run well. He's just an outstanding player. Jeff is a smash-mouth football player. He plays the game with great aggression. He's a fundamentally sound player who can blitz, cover and play solid run defense."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
Gerald Caruthers, Sr.
Donn Cunnigan, Jr.
Brian Haas, So.
JEFF KOPP, Jr.	74tackles in '92 as starting ILB
Errol Small, Jr.
Greg Tellam, Rs. Fr.
Trey Towns, In. Fr.	'92 prep All-American
BRIAN WILLIAMS, Jr.	'92 Soph All-Am. 3rd, USC '92 top tackler

The backups all have limited experience. Behind Williams are senior Gerald Caruthers and junior Errol Small, while backing up Kopp are junior Donn Cunnigan (15 tackles, 1 for a loss, 2 fumble recoveries, 2 deflections in 1992) and sophomore Brian Haas. Redshirt freshman Greg Tellam is also available.

"Gerald is a strong run defender, while Errol should be a big contributor, especially on passing downs," said Lindsey. "Donn doesn't have the size of our other outside linebackers, but he has the ability to explode on tackles and is becoming an excellent pass defender. Brian loves to play. He's a tough, hard-nosed player."

Prep All-American Trey Towns (Pasadena HS in Pasadena, Calif.) is the only new outside linebacker this fall.

"We feel that with the speed and quickness of Williams, Kopp and the others, we can blitz as well as play man-to-man coverage on the opponents' backs," said Lindsey. "That's of supreme importance if we want to be successful against all offenses."

OLB JEFF KOPP

OLB BRIAN WILLIAMS

SECONDARY--It'll be a case of "something old, something new" in the secondary in 1993.

Versatile senior Sehorn (80 tackles, 2 for losses, 10 deflections, 3 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 forced fumble) returns as the free safety, although it's also possible he'll start at a cornerback spot. He came to USC in 1992 as a wide receiver, but was moved to safety in the pre-season and adapted well enough to earn All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He was second on the Trojans in tackles, led the team in deflections and shared the team lead in interceptions and fumble recoveries.

"Jason has great closing speed, outstanding quickness and he covers a lot of ground," said Lindsey. "He's a very aggressive player."

Talented, consistent senior Salmon (51 tackles, 10 for losses, 2 deflections, 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble in 1992), who started last year's opener at strong safety but then was moved to a starting outside linebacker spot the rest of the season, has been moved back to strong safety to replace Pace. He figures to be in the starting lineup for his third year, either there or, if Sehorn moves to cornerback, than at free safety.

"We're excited about Mike," said Lindsey. "He's smart, experienced, has a good sense for the ball, and is very consistent."

Perhaps the most noteworthy position switch on the Trojans sees senior Reggie Perry, who was USC's starting quarterback in 1991 (131-of-255, 51.4%, 1,574 yards, 3 TDs) and served as Johnson's backup last year (10-of-21, 47.6%, 198 yards, 1 TD), move to strong safety. He could start there if Salmon shifts to free safety. Perry is 15th on USC's career passing list with 141 completions.

"Reggie has taken well to the change," said Lindsey. "He's a real competitor and has a great attitude. He has a lot of skills and is a smart player. And he's a guy who can hit you. He'll make an impact on our defense."

Sophomore Tarriel Hopper and redshirt frosh Brett Hayhoe are the backup free safeties, while soph Micah Phillips (2 tackles in 1992) backs up at strong safety. Phillips played last year as a first-year freshman.

Also in the safety mix are J.C. All-American Jesse Davis (Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, Calif.), prep All-American Sammy Knight (Rubidoux HS in Rubidoux, Calif.), and Ryan Tyiska (Clovis West HS in Fresno, Calif.). Davis, who might also play cornerback, enrolls as a junior. Knight is the brother of ex-USC tailback Ryan Knight.

At cornerback, no job is guaranteed. The player with the most solid standing is junior Herpin (14 tackles, 3 deflections, 1 interception in 1992), who started 4 games in 1992. Listed as his backup is soph Irwin Lincoln (4 tackles in 1992).

At the other cornerback spot, if Sehorn doesn't get the nod, look for either veteran senior Oliver (39 tackles, 2 for losses, 5 deflections, 1 interception, 1 blocked field goal, 1 forced fumble in 1992), or soph Terry Barnum (3 tackles in 1992), 1 of just 4 first-year freshmen to play last fall. Oliver, aiming to be starting for the fourth year, has 9 career thefts. Also available is junior Henry (53 tackles, 6 deflections, 1 interception in 1992), who had 9 starts in 1992.

"We'll be a combination man-to-man and zone coverage defense," said Lindsey. "We have excellent players to work with at cornerback, but their ability to be outstanding one-on-one players is vital.

"We have great hopes for John in 1993. He's got real good speed, he's a good coverage defender, and he's a fine athlete. With Irwin's natural ability, he'll compete for playing time. Oliver brings experience and competitiveness to our defense. Terry is very competitive, and his desire and will to win are contagious. And we'll benefit from Jerald's experience as a starter."

SPECIAL TEAMS

The placekicker (Ford), punter (Stonehouse), and snapper (Banta) are back, but USC must find a new holder and return men for kickoffs and punts. In 1992, USC averaged an impressive 21.8 yards on kickoff returns and 11.2 yards on punt runbacks.

"We're experienced in the kicking game, although Ford and Stonehouse need to become more productive and consistent," said Robinson. "But the real need is to have a return game that approaches the success of last year. We'll work hard on finding the right people."

SPECIALISTS
Martin Boskovich, P, Sr.
JOHN STONEHOUSE, P, So.	'92 Freshman All-American 2nd

PLACEKICKER--Junior Ford (11-of-20 field goals, 25-of-28 PATs in 1992) is back for his third year as the placekicker. He has 18 career field goals. Known for his strong leg on kickoffs (46 of his 94 career kickoffs have not been returned out of the endzone), he battled inconsistency on his placement kicks last fall. Soph punter Stonehouse serves as Ford's emergency backup.

"Cole could become a great kicker," said Robinson. "He has tremendous leg strength and range. He just needs consistency and focus."

PUNTER--Soph Stonehouse (38.7 avg. in 1992) returns as the punter after setting USC season marks last fall for most punts (80) and punt yardage (3,099). He was named to USA Today's national "Fabulous True Freshmen" first team and Football News' Freshman All-American second team in 1992. Known for getting good hang time, only 31 of his punts were returned and for just a 3.8 average. Fourteen of his boots pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line. He had 5 punts that traveled 50-plus yards (including a 59-yarder). Junior Ford and walk-on senior Martin Boskovich serve as the emergency backup punters.

"John has a chance to develop into one of the best punters ever at USC," said Robinson. "If he improves on his consistency and hang time, he'll be remembered a long time."

SNAPPER--Senior tight end Banta was flawless as the long snapper in 1992. Senior center Gibson backed him up last fall and will do so again along with soph offensive guard Hogue and redshirt frosh fullback Clark.

HOLDER--Senior safety Salmon, who was the holder on all placekicks in 1991 and was the backup there last season, and junior wide receiver Lenderman will compete for the job held by Corby Smith in 1992.

RETURNERS--The return game figures to suffer a dramatic dropoff with the loss of the elusive Conway, USC's career kickoff returner and No. 3 all-time punt returner (he returned both a kick and punt for a TD in 1992). A search will be on for qualified kickoff and punt returners. Possibilities include senior wide receiver Morton, senior safety-cornerback Sehorn, soph tailback McFadden and redshirt freshman tailback Walters. Look for some of the fall enrollees to figure prominently in the return game, too.

"I can't wait to see the horse and hear 'Conquest' again!"

So said John Robinson on Jan. 3, 1993 when he was named--for the second time in his career--USC's head football coach.

And, in a "Back To The Future" scenario, Trojan fans can't wait for the return of Robinson, who guided USC to a national championship, 3 Rose Bowl victories and a 67-14-2 record in his 7 years at Troy and then was the winningest coach in Los Angeles Rams history.

After a 10-year hiatus, Robinson replaced Larry Smith, who resigned Jan. 1 after 6 seasons at USC.

"It's an honor for me to return to USC," said Robinson, 58, known not only for his success and coaching ability, but for the passion he exudes for the game and the way he is able to motivate his players. "This is a great university and I'm excited about being a part of its future. USC, with its great tradition and vision of the future, offers the student-athlete the best possible experience in the classroom and on the field."

Robinson--the winningest active Division I-A head coach (minimum 5 years)--won 81.9% of his games in his 7 seasons (1976-82) at USC, averaging nearly 10 wins a year. He won the national championship in 1978 with a 12-1 mark (USC was ranked No. 2 in 1976 and 1979), led USC to 3 Pac-10 titles (along with 2 second-place and 2 third-place finishes), and guided Troy to 5 post-season bowls (going 4-1, with wins in his 3 Rose Bowl trips). He was 6-1 against Notre Dame and 5-2 against UCLA. From 1978 through 1980, USC posted a school-record 28-game unbeaten streak. He coached 2 Heisman Trophy winners (Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981), a Lombardi Award winner (Brad Budde in 1979) and 21 first team All-Americans. He was National Coach of the Year in 1979 with his 11-0-1 team and Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1976 and 1978. His first team in 1976 went 11-1, winning its final 11 contests, and Robinson became the league's first rookie head coach in 25 years to take his team to the Rose Bowl.

His Trojan teams were noted as offensive powerhouses with dominant defenses. USC finished third (in 1976) and fourth twice (1977 and 1979) nationally in total offense. The 1979 squad gained more yards (5,655) than any team in Trojan history. Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the conference in total defense 4 times (1976-77-80-81) and the 1980 team led the Pac-10 in every team defensive category.

This is actually Robinson's third go-around at Troy. He was USC's offensive coordinator for 3 years (1972-74) under John McKay when the Trojans captured the national title twice (1972 and 1974) and went to 3 Rose Bowls (winning a pair of them).

Robinson coached the Rams to a 79-74 mark--the most wins of any Rams head coach--in his 9 years there (1983-91). He reached the playoffs in 6 of those seasons, twice advancing to the NFC championship game (1985 and 1989). He coached more games (153) for more years (9) than any other Rams coach.

Considered an expert on the running game, Robinson has produced 4 NFL rushing champions and 2 NCAA rushing leaders. He also has the unique distinction of turning out the single season rushing record setters in college (Allen in 1981 with 2,427 yards, a record that has since been broken) and pro football (Eric Dickerson in 1984 with 2,105 yards).

He spent 1992 as a television analyst with CBS-TV (handling NFL games), USA Network (doing World League games) and Prime Ticket (handling 3 USC football telecasts).

Now with more than 30 years of coaching experience, Robinson began his coaching career as an assistant at Oregon for 12 seasons (1960-71). He also was the backfield coach with the Oakland Raiders in 1975, working under childhood friend John Madden. He spent 4 months (November of 1982 to February of 1983) as USC's senior vice president for university relations before taking the Rams job.

Born on July 25, 1935, Robinson grew up in Daly City, Calif. He starred in football (earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end) and baseball at Serra High in San Mateo. He then lettered at end at Oregon when the Ducks won the 1957 Pacific Coast Conference title and played in the Rose Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Oregon in 1958.

Robinson has 4 grown children, daughters Teresa and Lynn and sons David (an assistant coach at USC) and Christopher, and 2 step-daughters, Karilyn and Elizabeth. His wife's name is Linda.

L.A. RAMS 1983-91

ASSISTANT COACHES

DON LINDSEY

Assistant Head Coach
Defensive Coordinator
Linebackers

One of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators, Don Lindsey returned to USC in January of 1993 after a 12-year hiatus. He's not only Troy's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, but he's also the assistant head coach.

Lindsey, 49, who has been coaching for 28 years, brings with him a wealth of varied experience with a number of successful programs (he's been associated with 4 national championship teams)

Lindsey spent 10 years as an assistant at USC (1971-80), the first 5 under John McKay and the final 5 under John Robinson. He was USC's defensive coordinator the last 4 years. He also handled inside linebackers every year except 1979, when he was in charge of the secondary. USC won 3 national championships (1972-74-78) and led the conference in total defense 7 times (1972 through 1977 and in 1980) during his time there.

Lindsey came to USC from Missouri, where he was the defensive coordinator in 1992 under Bob Stull.

Before that, he was the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach under Bill Curry at both Georgia Tech for 4 years (1984-87) and Alabama for 3 seasons (1988-90). The 1990 Alabama squad led the nation in pass defense. He was out of football during the 1991 season.

Lindsey held a similar position at Arkansas for 3 years (1981-83) under Lou Holtz. The Razorbacks led the country in scoring defense in 1982.

Lindsey began his coaching career at Alabama under Bear Bryant for 2 years (1965-66), the first season handling the offensive backs and the second year working with the secondary (the Crimson Tide won the 1965 national championship and in 1966 led the nation in scoring defense). He then was the defensive coordinator at Montana State in 1967 under Jim Sweeney and moved with Sweeney to Washington State for 2 seasons (1968-69), serving as the offensive coordinator. He coached the defensive backs at Arkansas in 1970 under Frank Broyles.

Lindsey played quarterback and safety at Arkansas-Monticello, lettering for 3 years (1962-64) and earning Little All-American honors in 1964. He earned a bachelor's degree from Arkansas-Monticello in 1965 and a master's degree in education from Alabama in 1967.

Born Sept. 17, 1943, he was a prep All-American quarterback at Camden (Ark.) High, where he starred in 4 sports.

Lindsey and his wife, Linda, have a daughter, Michelle, 12.

MIKE RILEY

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

Innovative, enthusiastic and successful, Mike Riley joined the USC staff in February of 1993 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

He has been part of national championship squads as a college player and as a coach in the collegiate and pro ranks.

Riley, 40, came to USC after serving as head coach of the World League's San Antonio Riders for 2 years (1991-92), posting an 11-9 record (including 7-3 in 1992).

Before that, he was head coach of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers for 4 seasons (1987-90), going 40-32 (plus 4-2 in the playoffs) and winning the Grey Cup in 1988 and 1990 (his quarterback in 1988 was ex-Trojan Sean Salisbury). He was named CFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1990. His 12-6 mark in 1987 was the best by a CFL rookie coach since Bud Grant went 13-3 with Winnipeg in 1957 (Grant later coached the NFL's Minnesota Vikings).

Riley was Winnipeg's secondary coach for 3 year (1983-85) and then spent 1986 as defensive coordinator at Northern Colorado.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at California in 1975 and at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., in 1976, then was the secondary coach at Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore., for 6 years (1977-82). Linfield was 12-0 and won the NAIA national championship in 1982.

He played defensive back at Alabama under Bear Bryant for 4 years (1971-74), as the Crimson Tide won the 1973 national crown and 4 SEC titles. He earned a bachelor's degree in social science from Alabama in 1974.

Born July 6, 1953, Riley quarterbacked Corvallis (Ore.) High to the state title in 1970.

His father, Bud, was a head coach in the CFL (at Winnipeg, Hamilton and Calgary) and an assistant at Oregon State. His uncle, Hayden Riley, was a baseball and basketball coach at Alabama.

Riley and his wife, Dee, have a son, Matthew, 9, and a daughter, Kate, 5.

MIKE BARRY

Offensive Line

Known as an outstanding offensive line coach, Mike Barry came to USC in January of 1993 presented with a unique opportunity.

Not only is he in charge of one of the traditionally preeminent units in college football (there have been 25 first team All-American offensive lineman at USC since 1964 and 17 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968), but Barry will be a coach on a team that includes his son (Joe, a senior inside linebacker).

Barry, 46, has 21 years of coaching experience. He came to USC after serving as the interior offensive line coach at Colorado for 6 seasons (1987-92). He tutored the entire line in 1991. Colorado won the national championship in 1990.

He began his coaching career as an assistant for 5 years (1972-76) at his prep alma mater, Fenwick High in Oak Park, Ill.

His first collegiate coaching experience was at his college alma mater, Southern Illinois, as the offensive line coach for 3 seasons (1977-79). He then was the offensive line coach at Arizona for 4 years (1980-83) under former USC coach Larry Smith.

Barry then worked in pro football for 2 years, first as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator for the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers (1984), then as the line coach with the New Orleans/Portland Breakers (1985).

He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the offensive line coach at Iowa State.

Barry was a 2-year starting center at Southern Illinois (he spent his first 2 years of college at Nebraska). He earned 2 degrees from SIU: a bachelor's in physical education in 1969 and a master's in recreation and special education in 1972.

Born Oct. 8, 1946, he starred in 3 sports at Fenwick High.

Besides son Joe, 23, Mike has a daughter, Courtney, 17.

KEITH BURNS

Safeties

Keith Burns, a bright and energetic young coach, joined the Trojan staff in February of 1993 and coaches the safeties.

Burns, 32, was an assistant at Rice for 4 years (1989-92), in charge of the defensive backs in 1992 and before that handling the special teams, strong safeties and outside linebackers.

He was an assistant at Pacific for 4 seasons (1985-88), working with the defensive backs, running backs and special teams during his tenure (he was also the offensive coordinator in 1988). He worked there under coach Bob Cope, a former USC assistant.

Burns began his coaching career at his collegiate alma mater, Arkansas, as a graduate assistant for 2 years (1983-84). Current USC defensive coordinator Don Lindsey held a similar position at Arkansas during Burn's first season as a coach.

He was a 4-year (1979-82) letterman defensive back at Arkansas, starting for 3 seasons. Lindsey was the defensive coordinator there for Burns' last 2 seasons. Burns earned a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1983.

Born Sept. 26, 1960, he was an all-state footballer at L.D. Bell High in Hurst, Tex.

He and his wife, Yvonne, have 2 sons, K.C., 6, and Tanner, 4.

DAVID ROBINSON

Tight Ends

John Robinson didn't have to look far to find a tight ends coach for USC. He hired his oldest son, David, a fine coach in his own right.

David, 30, who joined the Trojan staff in January of 1993, has coached with 6 teams in his career: as the offensive line coach at College of the Desert in Palm Desert, Calif., in 1992, a volunteer assistant at California in 1991 (working with the defensive line), a graduate assistant at Michigan in 1990, the outside linebackers coach at UC Davis for 2 seasons (1988-89), a general assistant with the Los Angeles Rams in 1987 (when his father was the coach there), and an assistant coach at St. Anthony's High in Long Beach, Calif., in 1986.

Robinson was a 2-year starting tight end for Fullerton (Calif.) Junior College, which won the 1983 national JC title, and then played at Long Beach State (1984-85). He earned a bachelor's degree from Long Beach State in 1986.

He prepped at Sonora High in La Habra, Calif.

Born July 19, 1963, he is single.

MIKE SANFORD

Wide Receivers

Mike Sanford, USC's wide receivers coach, is no stranger to John Robinson.

Sanford, a player and graduate assistant coach at USC during Robinson's earlier stint at USC, was the only fulltime assistant retained from Larry Smith's staff when Robinson was hired this past January.

Sanford, 38, has been in charge of USC's wide receivers the past 4 years (since 1989). He has coached 1 Trojan All-American first teamer (flanker Curtis Conway in 1992, who was a first round draft pick in the 1993 NFL draft) and 3 USC All-Pac-10 first team receivers (split end John Jackson in 1989, flanker Gary Wellman in 1990, and Conway in 1991 and 1992). Jackson is USC's career receiving leader, while Wellman was USC's first 1,000-yard season receiver (he is fifth on USC's all-time pass catching list). Current Trojan wide receiver Johnnie Morton is tied for third on USC's career receiving ladder.

Sanford made 5 coaching stops prior to returning to Troy in the summer of 1989 after a 12-year absence.

He was the quarterbacks and receivers coach and game coordinator at Purdue for 2 years (1987-88).

Before that, he spent 4 seasons (1983-86) handling the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Long Beach State. He was also Long Beach State's offensive coordinator his final 2 years there (Long Beach State was in the Top 10 nationally in pass offense both years). His 49er quarterback, Doug Gaynor, set 4 NCAA career records, while Mark Templeton set the NCAA career pass catching mark.

Sanford was also at Virginia Military Institute for 2 years (1981-82), working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, as well as serving as the pass offense coordinator.

And he spent 2 years (1979-80) at Army under Lou Saban, handling the wide receivers and tight ends.

In 1978, he was the defensive coordinator at San Diego City College.

Sanford began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for Robinson at USC in 1977.

He had spent the previous 4 years (1973-76) at USC as a reserve quarterback and safety. In 1975, John McKay's final year, Sanford began the season as the Trojans' No. 4 quarterback, but he was suddenly named the starter (for Vince Evans) for the Washington game late in the year. Sanford was such an unknown that when McKay announced this to the media prior to the game, the coach called him "Stafford." Sanford gave a valiant effort, but USC lost, 8-7, on a safety following a bad snap to the punter.

He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from USC in 1978.

Sanford was an All-Northern California quarterback at Los Altos (Calif.) High in the Bay Area. His brother, Bill, played football and baseball at Washington State, while another brother, Steve, played football at Washington.

Sanford was born on April 20, 1955. He and his wife, Melinda (a USC graduate), have 2 children: a daughter, Lindsay, 14, and a son, Michael, 11.

DOUG SMITH

Defensive Line

Doug Smith knows a thing or two about defensive linemen, as he spent his entire playing career blocking them as a talented offensive lineman.

He now switches to the other side of the ball and serves as USC's defensive line coach. In the process, he was reunited with his pro coach when John Robinson hired him in January of 1993.

Smith, 36, was a volunteer coach with the Los Angeles Rams in 1992, working with the offensive line.

He spent his entire 14-year (1978-1991), 188-game NFL playing career with the Rams as a center (he also played some at guard and tackle early in his career). He was named to Pro Bowl 6 times (1984-89). He played in Super Bowl XIV. He was named All-NFL in 1986 and All-NFC in 1989, both by Football News. From 1986 to 1991, started 76 consecutive games. Signed as a free agent, he was active throughout his NFL career in charity and community functions as well as speaking for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He was a 4-year letterman at Bowling Green (1974-77), winning All-Mid-American Conference honors at guard as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Bowling Green in 1978 and a master's degree in exercise physiology from Cal State Fullerton in 1987.

Born Nov. 25, 1956, Smith was a 3-sport star at Northland High in Columbus, Ohio.

He and his wife, Debbie, have 2 daughters, Jessica, 8, and Jenna, 5.

DENNIS THURMAN

Cornerbacks

Dennis Thurman, one of USC's and the NFL's great defensive backs, returned to his alma mater in January of 1993 to share his playing and coaching knowledge with the Trojan cornerbacks.

Thurman, 37, was a 2-time All-American (1976-77) safety and 4-year letterman (1974-77) at USC, playing for John McKay and then John Robinson. He was a member of the 1974 Trojan national champions and played on Trojan teams that won 4 bowl games. In his Trojan career, he had 13 interceptions (tied for sixth on Troy's all-time list) and returned 2 for TDs. He added 169 career tackles, 11 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries, plus 28 punt returns and 2 kickoff returns. He led the conference in interceptions in 1976 with 8. During his first 2 years at USC, he played both safety and flanker (overall, he started 5 games at flanker, catching 3 passes and running 7 reverses). His brother, Junior, was a Trojan defensive back in 1985-86. Dennis earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from USC in 1978.

Thurman then spent 9 years as a cornerback and safety in the NFL, his first 8 seasons (1978-85) with the Dallas Cowboys (he was an 11th round draft pick) and then 1986 with the St. Louis Cardinals. He had 36 career NFL interceptions and played in the 1981 Pro Bowl. He never missed a game during his 137-game career. He played in the 1979 Super Bowl.

After his playing career, Thurman became an assistant coach. He was the secondary coach for the Phoenix Cardinals under Gene Stallings for 2 years (1988-89), then was the defensive coordinator of the World League's Ohio Glory in 1992 (he was out of coaching in 1990 and 1991).

Born April 13, 1956, Thurman was a 3-sport star at Santa Monica (Calif.) High..

Thurman is the father of 2 daughters: Chelsea, 9, and Jade, 4.

CHARLES WHITE

Running Backs

"Somehow, I always feel better with Charlie White standing next to me," said USC coach John Robinson when he named White as USC's running backs coach in January of 1993. "He was the toughest, most intense running back I've ever coached."

The pair have a long association. White, 35, was USC's 1979 Heisman Trophy winner at tailback and a 2-time unanimous All-American (1978-79). He finished his 4-year USC career (1976-79, all under Robinson) as the school's all-time rushing leader with 6,245 yards (second best in NCAA history) and 49 TDs. As a senior, he led the nation in rushing with 2,050 yards and set or equalled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He was the nation's leading all-purpose runner in 1978 and 1979. USC captured the national championship in 1978 (it finished second in 1976 and 1979) and won 4 bowl games during his career. The 1979 and 1980 Rose Bowl Player of the Game, White was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1990.

A first round 1980 draft pick of the Cleveland Browns, he played in the NFL for 9 years. He was with the Browns from 1980 through 1984, then was with Robinson's Los Angeles Rams from 1985 until retiring after the 1988 season. He led the NFL in rushing in 1987 with 1,374 yards and was named to the Pro Bowl.

This is White's first coaching assignment. He spent 3 years (1990-92) as a special assistant to USC athletic director Mike McGee, involved in the Former Athlete Degree Achievement Program (for ex-Trojans who return to USC to finish their degree requirements), as well as in the athletic department's summer sports camp for local youths, community relations and facilities management. White himself was a participant in the FADAP program and received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1993.

Born Jan. 22, 1958, he was a football and track star at San Fernando (Calif.) High.

He and his wife, Judi, have 5 children: daughters Nicole, 12, Tara, 7, and Sophia, 6, and sons Julian, 11, and Ashton, 8.

RICKY HUNLEY

Defensive Assistant

Ricky Hunley, a 2-time All-American inside linebacker and then a star in the NFL, returns for his second year as a graduate assistant at USC. He works with the defensive ends, after helping with the linebackers and special teams last year.

In the summer of 1992, Hunley gained coaching experience at the Pittsburgh Steelers training camp as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship.

Hunley, 31, spent 7 years in the NFL with the Denver Broncos (1984-87), Phoenix Cardinals (1988) and Los Angeles Raiders (1989-90). He was the seventh pick of the 1984 NFL draft, chosen by the Cincinnati Bengals, but was traded to Denver midseason when the Bengals were unable to sign him. He started his last 2 years at Denver (leading the team in tackles in 1986 with 164 and adding 104 in 1987) and played in Super Bowls XXI and XXII. He played inside linebacker and was a key special teams player during his pro career. He served as the executive vice president of the NFL Players' Association (he now serves as a retired board member) and was involved in numerous charitable activities.

Hunley was a 2-time consensus All-American (1982-83), 3-time All-Pac-10 first teamer (1981-83) and 4-year starter (1980-83) at Arizona under former USC coach Larry Smith. He totalled 566 tackles in his career. The first consensus All-American in school history, he led the Wildcats in total and unassisted tackles his final 3 seasons. He had 31 games with 10 or more stops. His 7 interceptions in 1983 topped the Pac-10. He was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and played in the Hula Bowl, Japan Bowl and Blue-Gray Game his senior season, when he co-captained the Wildcats. In 1989, he was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame. At Arizona, he played alongside his brother, LaMonte.

He prepped at Petersburg (Va.) High, starring in football and baseball. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 26th round of the 1980 baseball draft.

Born Nov. 11, 1961, Hunley received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Arizona in 1987 and is working currently on his master's degree in business administration at USC. He also earned an Arizona real estate license in 1986.

He and his wife, Camille, have 2 daughters, Alexis, 2, and Kenady, born this past March. Camille, who received bachelor's and law degrees from USC, is the daughter of Judge H. Randolph Moore Jr., who teaches in USC's Law Center.

JEFF KEARIN

Offensive Assistant

Jeff Kearin is in his third year on the USC staff. After spending 1991 as a volunteer assistant, he was named a graduate assistant in the spring of 1992. He works with the quarterbacks, placekickers, punters and long snappers. He spent his first 2 seasons working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and placekickers.

He also was an administrative assistant with the USC men's volleyball team in the spring of 1993.

Kearin, 33, came to USC in the spring of 1991 after 11 years (1980-90) as an assistant football coach at his prep alma mater, Loyola High in Los Angeles. During that span, Loyola won 7 league titles and was the 1990 CIF Division I champion. Working under head coach Steve Grady, a former Trojan running back, Kearin helped coach current Trojans Matt Butkus and John Stonehouse.

His last 2 seasons (1990-91) there, Kearin also was Loyola's junior varsity boys' volleyball coach and taught classes there. And he was the head varsity girls' basketball coach at Marymount High in Los Angeles for those 2 seasons (1990-91).

Kearin prepped at Loyola High, where he played quarterback. He then attended the University of San Diego, playing quarterback there in 1978, before transferring to Loyola Marymount. He received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Loyola Marymount in 1983. He then attended Whittier College School of Law, receiving his J.D. degree in 1987. While in law school, he was a law clerk at 2 different law firms. He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

Born July 14, 1960, Kearin is single.

JAMES STROM

Strength and Conditioning Coach

James Strom was named USC's strength and conditioning coach in February of 1993.

Strom, 29, served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Los Angeles Rams for 3 seasons (1987-89) while John Robinson was the coach.

He then worked in the Santa Ana (Calif.) and Whittier (Calif.) school districts as an adapted physical education specialist.

He also has operated F.I.T. Beach Athletics since 1990, an outdoor weight facility in Long Beach, Calif., and for 6 seasons (1985-90) served as a personal trainer for major league pitcher Jeff Dedmon.

Strom received bachelor's degrees in physical education from Long Beach State in 1987 (fitness) and 1991 (adapted physical education) and an associate arts degree in athletic training from Santa Ana College in 1984.

While in college, he served as a physical therapy aide at the Physical Therapy Institute in Huntington Beach, Calif., and as a student trainer with the Rams.

Born Aug. 30, 1963, he is an avid runner and has completed 7 marathons.

His wife's name is Jogie.

ANDRE ABRAMS

Offensive Tackle
Junior

RINGTHEBELL77 on Archive.org

1993: Abrams, a junior, is listed as the No. 2 left offensive tackle behind Tony Boselli. Versatile enough to also play offensive guard, he figures to see some playing time in 1993.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Andre is very athletic. He has good quickness and the balance needed to be a good pass blocker. He has been slowed by shoulder injuries most of his career, but he's over that now. With added upper body strength, he should see action at tackle or guard."

1992: As a 1992 sophomore who had recovered from injuries which hampered his early career, Abrams played sparingly as the No. 2 left offensive tackle behind Len Gorecki and on special teams.

1991: Abrams, a reserve offensive tackle, missed all of his 1991 redshirt freshman year while recovering from surgery following 1991 spring practice to repair a dislocating right shoulder (the second such operation he has had in his career at USC). The injury kept him out of most of 1991 spring drills.

1990: He missed all of 1990, his first year at USC, after dislocating his right shoulder in pre-season drills and having surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: Abrams was named Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-American third team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Super Prep Southern California Top 100, All-Ivy League first team and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire as an offensive tackle in 1989 at Perris High in Nuevo (Calif.). He played a key role in Perris accumulating 625 yards rushing (among the top 5 team rushing totals ever in California prep history) in its 55-14 victory over La Habra High.

Abrams also lettered in track and field. He won the 1990 Ivy League title in the discus. He owns personal bests of 157-0 in the discus and 53-2 1/2 in the shot put.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC.

PAT AH-HING

Defensive Tackle
Freshman

1993: Ah-Hing is a redshirt freshman reserve defensive tackle. He missed 1993 spring practice.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Pat didn't participate in spring drills, so we were unable to evaluate him. But he certainly has the size necessary to be an effective down lineman."

1992: Ah-Hing redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Ah-Hing was named Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, and All-CIF Division V first team in 1991 as a defensive lineman at Rosemead (Calif.) High. He helped the Panthers to a 7-4 record in 1991 and a second place finish in the Mission Valley League. He also played fullback, scoring 5 TDs as a senior and gaining 462 yards (7.0 average) as a 1990 junior. He was a prep teammate of current Trojan Matt Koffler.

JOHN ALLRED

Tight End

1993: Allred is a redshirt freshman tight end with a promising future. Big and athletic, he's listed as a backup (with Johnny McWilliams and Tyler Cashman) to Bradford Banta.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "John will be a major player in the years to come. He's in the tradition of great USC tight ends. His upper body hasn't fully developed yet, but his lower body has."

1992: Allred redshirted as a tight end in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-way star and 3-year starter at Torrey Pines High in Encinitas (Calif.), Allred made Super Prep All-Far West, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Diego County first team, Oceanside Blade-Tribune All-Area first team (offense and defense), and All-Palomar League first team (tight end and linebacker) as a senior in 1991. He was named Palomar League Defensive Player of the Year as well after recording 93 tackles and a pair of interceptions. He had 23 catches for 347 yards (15.1 average) as a tight end for the Falcons, who finished 8-3 in 1991 and in second place in the Palomar League. He was named a scholar-athlete by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame and won San Diego Union Academic Athlete Award. He was a 3-year varsity letterman in basketball.

PERSONAL: John's sister, Linda, was a key member of the USC women's tennis team from 1989 to 1992.

DAVID APOLSKIS

Center
Senior

1993: Here's one of the remarkable stories in college football. Apolskis, a tested senior, has beaten the cancer which sidelined him all of 1991. He's listed as the backup center (with Clay Hattabaugh) behind Craig Gibson.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "David is a veteran center who knows how to play. He's solid, smart, efficient and every bit the competitor. We have complete confidence in his ability to go in and play well."

1992: After a year's layoff while fighting cancer, Apolskis contributed signficantly in his 1992 junior season (he appeared in every game). He spent the season as an often-used backup right offensive guard (he was also available at center), as well as a key special teams player.

1991: Apolskis was expected to be a key backup on the offensive line as a sophomore in 1991. But just before fall practice began, he was diagnosed with testicular cancer and had surgery in early August to remove a testicle. He underwent additional surgery to remove cancerous abdominal lymph nodes in late August. Throughout the fall, he received chemotherapy treatments and sat out the football season (he dropped 30 pounds). Doctors believe that it is highly unlikely the cancer will reoccur. He was held out of contact drills in 1992 spring practice because of sore ribs from follow-up surgery.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Apolskis started USC's first 6 games at center in 1990 and did a good job, but then gave way to Gibson, who started there the rest of the season. Apolskis spent the rest of the season playing a limited role as a backup, first behind Gibson at center and then behind Mark Tucker at strong offensive guard. He was named a Football News Freshman All-American second teamer.

1989: Apolskis redshirted in 1989, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-way starting lineman as a senior in 1988 at St. Thomas High in Houston (Tex.), Apolskis earned Texas Christian Interscholastic League All-State honors while helping the Eagles to a 9-2 record and the TCIL state title. He was especially effective opening holes in short yardage situations. He made the final sack to preserve St. Thomas' 10-6 victory in the state championship game. He was also named All-Greater Houston, Dallas Morning News Top 100, Fort Worth Star Telegram Texas Top 100, National Prep All-Southwest, Greater Houston Defensive Player of the Year and Houston Chronicle Nifty Fifty in 1988.

He was named All-Greater Houston and TCIL All-State as a junior in 1987 and as a sophomore in 1986. A versatile athlete, he played varsity basketball as a sophomore and threw the shot and discus in track his final 2 years at St. Thomas. He was also an excellent student, compiling a B+ average.

PERSONAL: Apolskis has bench pressed 380 pounds. His brother, Rick, was an offensive lineman at Arkansas (his last season there was 1989) who signed as a free agent with the New York Giants in 1990. David's late father, Rich, played basketball at Houston. His grandfather, Chuck, was an end with the Chicago Bears in 1938 and 1939. His great uncle, Ray, was a center with the Cardinals. David likes to read and fish in his spare time. During the spring of 1993, he was an intern with Prime Ticket's Press Box nightly sportscast. He's a public administration major at USC with a B- average (2.93 GPA).

DAVID APOLSKIS ON: His cancer: "When I was in the recovery room, they told me it was a tumor. The first thing I thought was I was going to die. I was crying. A nurse had to calm me down...It was really frightening. I was a mess for a few weeks. But I've done a lot of research on cancer and understand a lot more. This is the second or third most curable cancer there is...I got a lot of support from everybody. A lot of people worried about me too much. But sometimes it was good for me because I did need to slow down...What surprised me was the number of people who wrote to me (he received more than 300 letters) and told me they had the same problem. They were real supportive and helped me through it...I just wanted to be as normal as possible. I wanted to kid around with people. I think a lot of them thought I was in denial, that I wasn't really facing up to what was happening. But that was just my way of handling it...Afterwards, the first time I walked from my apartment to Heritage Hall, about 2 blocks, I was just dripping sweat. I was about to faint. I ended up sleeping in the trainer's room...There were some funny moments, especially when my hair started falling out. I tried for a while to disguise the baldness, but right before Halloween of 1991 I shaved it all off and went to a Halloween party dressed as Uncle Festus from 'The Addams Family.' Also, the players on the team started rubbing my bald head for good luck...The whole experience has really changed the way I look at football and at life. I feel really guilty now if I waste a day or if I do something dumb. I feel like I should apologize to myself. It's like I've been given a second chance and I don't think I should waste it...It was a shock at first not playing. It was really hard just to go out on the field and watch and know you can't play. I knew physically I couldn't be out there, but mentally I wanted to be in badly. It was really a big test for me to contemplate my football career and how long I wanted to go. I'm really starting to enjoy the game now...I've been pretty positive. I'm learning to appreciate football a lot more than I did before. It was like a chore before. Now it's a little bit different...I realized that if I worked hard and kept a positive mental attitude, I would be able to come back and do even more than I did before...My incentive to go back out and play football again came from wanting to prove to my mother that I was back to normal...I heard about another college football player who in August of 1992 discovered he had the same thing, exactly one year after I did. I got in touch with him and told him my story and what to expect. I wore his initials on my wrist bands every game. I felt as if I was playing the 1992 season for him as well as myself...I'm feeling great now. The thought of cancer never enters my mind anymore. There are so many things I want to do now with my life. I have a lot of life in front of me. I have a lot to live for. I have a lot to be thankful for...Every day I wake up, I thank God for the second chance He's given me."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive tackle Tony Boselli: "I never saw David down on himself. To do what he did, in one year to go from chemotherapy and radiation treatment to playing major college football is amazing."

BRADFORD BANTA

Tight End
6-6, 250
Senior

1993: A big senior who is equally adept at blocking and catching, Banta returns as the starting tight end...and he's a good one. He figures to also once again be USC's long snapper.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Bradford is fabulous. He's a great big guy, a good blocker and good catcher. He doesn't always get open and he doesn't always run down the field and beat you, but in zones he's very solid. He's a big leader on this team and a key player."

1992: Banta started all of 1992 at tight end as a junior. He earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice as he caught 8 passes for 114 yards (14.3 avg) with 1 TD (an 8-yarder against California). He had 3 receptions for 54 yards versus Washington State, including a 39-yarder in which he dragged several Cougar tacklers about 10-15 yards before going down. Bradford also performed flawlessly as USC's long snapper and recorded 4 tackles.

1991: Banta spent most of his 1991 sophomore season as the backup behind Jackson. Bradford even started 3 games (Washington State, Stanford and UCLA), although Jackson did play in those contests. Because USC frequently used multiple tight end formations, Banta played often in 1991. He caught 7 passes for 75 yards (10.7 average), including 2 for 30 yards in the Memphis State opener and 1 pass in 5 of USC's last 7 games. He and Jackson were named USC's Co-Offensive Player of the Game versus Notre Dame. Banta also served as the No. 2 long snapper behind Marc Raab, but was never called upon in that role.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Banta began 1990 as the No. 3 tight end behind starter Frank Griffin and backup Jackson (Bradford was used often in 3-tight end formations), but he steadily moved up the depth chart as injuries hit the position. By game 6 (Stanford), he was Jackson's backup after Griffin got hurt, and then Bradford became the starter by game 9 (California) after Jackson went down. Banta started 3 contests (California, Oregon State, UCLA) before he fractured the fibula bone in his left leg earlier in the Bruin game and was sidelined the rest of the season. He only caught 1 pass all year, but it was a big one: an 18-yard TD against California (he also grabbed what appeared to be a scoring toss at Arizona State on a botched field goal attempt when holder Pat O'Hara tossed the ball to kicker Quin Rodriguez, who in turn threw it 19 yards to Banta, but the TD was disallowed because of 2 forward passes). Bradford was also the backup long snapper behind Raab before getting hurt, but he never had to snap the ball.

1989: Banta redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: One of the most highly-recruited tight end prospects in the prep ranks in 1988, Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High in Baton Rouge (La.), which is located in the middle of the LSU campus (his parents' college alma mater). A 4-year starter, Banta caught 146 passes in his career for 2,629 yards and 22 touchdowns. He had 33 receptions for 563 yards and 3 TDs in 1988, helping University to a 13-0 record and the Louisiana state championship. Defensively at linebacker, he made 102 tackles and picked off 3 passes in 1988. He was the Gatorade Circle of Champions Louisiana Player of the Year, East Baton Rouge Parish Athlete of the Year, Super Prep All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, USF&G Sugar Bowl Award (for state prep player of the year), New Orleans Times-Picayune Top 10, Baton Rouge Morning Advocate Super Dozen, Lindy's All-South and Max Emfinger's Top 100 in the nation. Banta also earned All-State, All-District and All-Parish first team honors on both offense and defense in 1988 (including state and district defensive MVP).

Bradford's stats as a junior in 1987 were 38 receptions for 731 yards, 9 TDs, 75 tackles and 4 interceptions (University was 11-1 that year). His junior honors included 2-way All-District first team, All-Parish first team on offense, All-State first team on offense, and All-State second team on defense.

Banta missed 5 games with a broken leg during his sophomore season in 1986, but still caught 22 passes for 407 yards and 3 scores. He was a 2-way All-District second team pick in 1986.

Surprisingly, Banta's freshman statistics were his most impressive--53 receptions for 928 yards and 7 touchdowns while University lost in the state championship game. In 1985, Banta was named All-District and All-Parish first team, and All-State second team.

Also an outstanding basketball player, Bradford averaged 17 points and 9 rebounds, earning All-District first team and All-State second team honors in 1989. He was University's leading scorer and rebounder in 1987-88. Banta won the discus and was second in the shot put and javelin at the 1989 Louisiana state track meet (University won the team title) and had prep bests of 53-1 in the shot put, 169-7 in the javelin and 163-5 in the discus. He is a 3-time American Legion baseball All-Star and played fast-pitch softball for the nation's No. 2 team in 1986.

PERSONAL: Bradford is his middle name; his real first name is Dennis. He is a communications major at USC.

BRADFORD BANTA ON: Why he watches cartoons before each game: "I'm a very superstitious guy. I hate watching football on game days because it breaks my concentration on our game."

Long snapping: "When people ask me if I snap, I say, 'Yeah, but you don't want to hear my name.' If they do, it's because I messed up."

Visualization: "I started practicing visualization when I was in high school. It's something I learned from my father, who is a successful businessman. Before he goes into a meeting, he always thinks through every aspect of the meeting, so he'll be prepared for anything that might come up. I've applied this same technique to every facet of my life. Now I mentally go through each step of my day before it actually happens. I picture myself going through 2-a-days in my mind before football starts. And I go through each game the same way week by week. I do a large part of my football visualization while watching other teams' defenses on game film. I picture myself blocking or running the route I see on the screen. I picture myself catching every ball thrown to me. And I think only positive things because I believe that's the way to turn negatives around."

The difference between Baton Rouge and Los Angeles: "The thing that's hard to get used to is that each town is separated by a sign and there's no green in between. That amazes me. There are just so many people out here...The California lifestyle is so different from where I come from. Los Angeles is a fast-paced city, and one of the things I love to do most is people-watch. I've really enjoyed the opportunity I've had to meet so many new people and experience so many new things."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Joe Paterno, Penn State head coach: "He's as fine a blocking tight end as I've seen."

TERRY BARNUM

Cornerback
Sophomore

1993: A talented sophomore who has shown good promise, Barnum is listed No. 2 at a cornerback spot (behind Jason Sehorn and Jason Oliver).

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Terry had a very impressive spring. We moved him around a bit to see where he best fit in. He's very competitive. His desire and will to win are contagious. With more experience, he'll be a factor in our secondary."

1992: One of 4 first-year freshmen to play in 1992, Barnum was a reserve cornerback who played often on special teams. He made 3 tackles.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a tailback at Alemany High in Mission Hills (Calif.), Barnum was named 1991 Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-Mission League second team. Despite being slowed the last half of his senior season with an ankle sprain, he ran for 1,150 yards and 16 TDs and caught 23 passes for 300-plus yards and 2 TDs.

A 3-year starter, he had 1,185 yards and 18 TDs as a junior (he rushed for 349 yards and 6 TDs in a game). He was a 1990 Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team pick. He rushed for over 2,800 yards in his career at Alemany.

Terry lettered 4 years in track as well, clocking a best of 10.6 in the 100 meters and 21.8 in the 200 meters. He was a 2-time Mission League champ in both the 100 meters and 200 meters. He won the CIF 2-A 100 meters title as a sophomore in 1988. He served as his school's senior class vice president. He made the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports Scholar Squad.

JOE BARRY

Inside Linebacker
Senior

1993: Barry, a tough, heady senior, is listed as a co-starter (with Shannon Jones) at inside linebacker.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Joe is an excellent football player. He's conscientious, a competitor. He wants to win. He might lack size, but he always comes to play."

1992: As a junior, Barry served as the often-employed No. 2 weakside inside linebacker behind Brian Williams, as well as playing on special teams. Three of his 4 tackles in 1992 were for losses (of 10 yards), including 1 sack.

1991: Barry sat out 1991 after transferring to USC from Michigan.

TONY BOSELLI

Offensive Tackle
Junior

1993: Meet USC's latest great offensive lineman. Already a first team All-American and now a leading candidate for the Outland Trophy, the big, powerful, quick and dominating Boselli is a junior who returns for his third year as a starting offensive tackle (this time on the left side). For the second consecutive year, he has been named to the prestigious Playboy pre-season All-American team. In time, he could further add to USC's offensive line tradition by joining the 17 Trojan offensive linemen who have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968. Boselli also stars in the classroom.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tony appears to be ready to take his place alongside the great offensive tackles who have played at USC. He's definitely an elite player, worthy of all the recognition he's had already. He's a legitimate All-American. The key will be how much he improves, especially in how quick and physical he plays, and if he can take it to that next level like all the great ones have done. That's his challenge."

1992: As a sophomore right offensive tackle, Boselli was named to the Walter Camp All-American first team (becoming the 25th first team All-American offensive lineman at Troy since 1964). He was only the fifth Trojan sophomore to win All-American first team acclaim (the others were Mark Carrier, Richard Wood, John Ferraro and Orv Mohler). He started all but 2 games in 1992, sitting out the UCLA contest after spraining his left ankle against Arizona and missing the Fresno State game after reinjuring the ankle versus Notre Dame. Tony also made Football News Sophomore All-American first team, AP All-American second team, UPI All-American honorable mention and, for the second consecutive year, All-Pac-10 first team. He was picked to the 1992 pre-season All-American first teams of Playboy, Athlon and Football Digest.

1991: As just a redshirt freshman in 1991, Boselli inherited the starting strong tackle spot from NFL first round pick Pat Harlow and Tony had an unprecedented year. He made Football News Freshman All-American first team, All-Pac-10 first team (the first freshman offensive lineman ever honored and 1 of only 2 freshmen to make the 1991 All-Pac-10 first team, along with Arizona's all-purpose performer Charles Levy), Football News Almost All-American, USC's Offensive Player of the Year (the first freshman ever to win that award) and USC's "Gloomy Gus" Henderson Award (for most minutes played). A ferocious blocker, Boselli had an amazing 24 "decleaters" (knocking an opposing lineman off his feet) at Washington State, just shy of the USC record of 28 set by All-American and NFL first round pick Dave Cadigan against Boston College in 1987. Tony started every game but Stanford (Kian Ramsay started that one), but he did come in and play most of that contest. After the 1991 season, Boselli had arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder.

1990: Although he didn't play in 1990, Boselli spent all of his first-year freshman season as the No. 2 quick offensive tackle behind Michael Moody.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Super Prep All-American, Boselli was a 2-way lineman as a senior in 1989 at Fairview High in Boulder (Colo.), collecting 59 tackles (which included 5 sacks). He received All-State honors (first team offense, second team defense), and was named Blue Chip All-American (third team), Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Central Region, Tom Lemming All-Midlands, Tacoma Morning News Tribune West 100, USA Today Top 100, All-County and All-Centennial League. He had a personal-high 18 tackles (10 solo) in a 1989 game.

He played only on offense during his 1988 junior season and won All-State first team and All-County honors for his play. As a 1987 sophomore, he led Fairview to an 11-2 record and the Colorado State title. Tony's coach at Fairview was Sam Pagano, whose son, Chuck, was a USC graduate assistant coach (1984-85). Current Trojan Joe Barry prepped at Fairview.

He also lettered in basketball in his junior year, averaging 6 points and 7 rebounds, and he was the 1989 Colorado district champion in the shot put (he finished fourth in the state meet).

PERSONAL: He enjoys water and snow skiing. He's a business administration major at USC with a B average (3.00 GPA). He was named to the 1992 and 1991 Pac-10 All-Academic first team (in 1992, he was 1 of only 3 players to make the All-Pac-10 and Pac-10 All-Academic first teams; in 1991, he was 1 of only 2 freshmen to make the Pac-10 All-Academic first team and 1 of only 5 players to make the All-Pac-10 and Pac-10 All-Academic first teams). He was also 1 of just 7 players nationally honored as a 1991 Honda Scholar Athlete. He spent the summers of 1991 and 1992 working on a 150-acre farm run by 20 Benedictine nuns near Boulder, where he cut fields, baled and stacked hay, moved cattle, and drove tractors (he would then lift weights and run at night). He bench presses 360 pounds.

TONY BOSELLI ON: Blocking: "My whole objective is to knock the guy off the ball about 5 yards and put him on his back...We're the workhorses on offense. We really set the tone for the game and I really like being aggressive and tough."

Having a dominating offensive line: "The offensive line at USC has to dominate the other player. It's more a frame of mind than anything. As an offensive lineman, you have to prepare yourself mentally to do that and physically in the weight room. Our attitude is we're going to dominate the other team's defensive line, the guy in front of us, every play until he gives up."

His expectations: "My expectations are high, higher than anyone else's. I want to be a great lineman. That's my goal...I haven't really played my best game yet."

Why he chose USC: "When I was a little kid, through my junior year in high school, Notre Dame was the team I rooted for, the team I wanted to win. In my senior year, they were one of my top 5 choices, but they didn't offer me a visit...I came to USC because I just thought of all the great players who had gone here. This is Tailback U., but the offensive linemen played a big part in that."

Observing ex-USC All-American offensive tackle Pat Harlow: "He was so aggressive finishing blocks. He just wanted to kill people. He really had that killer instinct. I tried to work off that to alter my own style."

Working on a farm during the summer: "That was a hard job, but it taught me a lot of discipline...I never knew farmers worked so hard. It was real tough some days. But I knew I had to get ready for a long season...It was great, the best job I ever had."

Once working at McDonald's (his father and uncle own 11 outlets in Denver): "They probably lost money when I worked there. I ate more than I made."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Phoenix Cardinals assistant John Matsko, a former USC offensive line coach: "Tony is a very special guy. They come along every so often. He's in the class of (ex-USC All-American offensive linemen) Dave Cadigan and Pat Harlow. He's really committed to being a great player. He's extremely consistent."

RORY BROWN

Fullback
Senior

1993: Brown, a senior fullback who has battled injuries throughout his career, appears ready to make a major contribution in 1993. Impressive in this past spring's drills, he enters the fall listed as a possible starter (along with Deon Strother and Kevin Clark).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Rory is a smart, veteran player who had a very good spring. He is an efficient blocker and good pass receiver. He'll be on the field in a variety of roles this year."

1992: As a junior in 1992, Brown was a reserve fullback and key special teams player until a mid-season injury struck him down. He broke his left foot in practice prior to the Stanford game and missed the rest of the year. A strained hip caused him to miss the first part of 1992 spring drills.

1991: Brown missed the first 6 games of his 1991 sophomore season while recovering from surgery to repair torn ligaments in his right knee. The injury occurred in a scrimmage on the last day of 1991 spring practice. Brown was cleared to play in USC's last 5 games of 1991 and he appeared briefly as a reserve fullback at California, but did not carry the ball.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Brown was the No. 3 fullback behind Scott Lockwood and Raoul Spears in 1990. He also played on various special teams. His only carries in 1990 came at Oregon State, where he got 4 yards on 2 rushes. A pinched neck nerve and a sprained right knee slowed him for the second half of 1990 spring drills.

1989: Brown redshirted in 1989, his first season at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: A prep All-American fullback as a senior at Pueblo (Colo.) County High, Brown rushed for 1,472 yards on 139 carries (10.6 average) and 18 touchdowns in just 7 games in 1988. An ankle injury limited Brown's availability during his senior season. His 1988 honors included Super Prep All-American, USA Today's Super 102, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Colorado Super 11, All-State, All-Conference, All-Region, All-Area and All-City.

He rushed for 844 yards on 97 carries (9.1 average) and 19 TDs as a junior in 1987 and made 112 tackles on defense. He made All-State, All-Conference, All-Area and All-City in 1987.

Brown played both ways as a sophomore in 1986, gaining 412 yards on the ground and starting every game on defense. He earned All-Conference honors that season.

An outstanding track athlete, Brown lettered 4 years for Pueblo County's track team, posting bests of 10.8 for 100 meters and 58-0 in the shot put. An outstanding student, Rory had a 3.96 grade point average in high school.

PERSONAL: Brown played guitar in a band in Colorado. He can bench press 385 pounds. His sports hero is Walter Payton because "of his physical and quick style; the defense never knew what he was going to do." Rory received his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from USC in the summer of 1993 and is currently taking graduate courses in that major. He has a B+ average (3.31 GPA).

MATT BUTKUS

Defensive Tackle
6-2, 265
Senior

1993: After a year on the offensive line, Butkus was moved back to the defensive line following 1993 spring practice. The senior, who has a strong football heritage, is listed as a backup defensive tackle.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Because he spent this past spring still working with the offense, we didn't have a chance to evaluate Matt as a defensive lineman. But we're looking forward to having him join the defensive front."

1992: As a junior, Butkus was moved to center from nose guard in 1992 spring drills and served as a reserve there in 1992 (he didn't see any action).

1991: Butkus was a sophomore reserve nose guard in 1991, but did not see any action.

1990: Butkus was a reserve nose guard in 1990 as a redshirt freshman, but didn't see any action. He missed the California and Oregon State games with a stress fracture in his foot.

1989: Butkus redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-time All-CIF first team pick, Butkus was 1 of the most dominating defensive linemen in Southern California as a senior in 1988 at Loyola High in Los Angeles. He had 85 tackles, 17 sacks, 9 forced fumbles and 6 fumble recoveries while helping Loyola to a 12-1 record. Matt's 1988 honors included Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, California Football All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section and Division I first teams, Del Rey League Lineman of the Year, L.A. Times All-Central City and L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 honorable mention.

As a junior in 1987, Matt had 57 tackles, 12 sacks, 7 forced fumbles and 4 fumble recoveries for the 11-1 Cubs. He was named All-CIF Big 5 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, and All-Del Rey League first team in 1987.

He played offensive tackle as a sophomore in 1986 and had a blocking grade of 70 percent each game. He was a prep teammate of current Trojan John Stonehouse. His coach at Loyola was ex-Trojan tailback Steve Grady, while current USC graduate assistant coach Jeff Kearin also was an assistant at Loyola.

PERSONAL: He is the son of NFL Hall of Famer and ex-Chicago Bear linebacker great Dick Butkus, now an actor (Dick was a 2-time All-American center at Illinois). Matt's sister, Nikki, is a Notre Dame graduate who also attended UCLA. Matt was born in Chicago, Ill. He's a communications major at USC. He enjoys listening to classical music. His sports hero is Dan Hampton.

MATT BUTKUS ON: His famous father: "My dad was the greatest linebacker in history. And the greatest guy in the world off the field...I get to meet a lot of people and do a lot of things because of my dad...I don't promote my name or the fact I'm his son. I'm my own person. I know what my father accomplished. I'm trying my hardest to just be myself...Sometimes, in the beginning, my dad's reputation was hard to live up to. But as I played all the sports, I did it because I wanted to do it. Nobody forced me. My dad was just happy that I did play, because of all the fun experiences that he had."

GERALD CARUTHERS

Outside Linebacker
6-3, 235
Senior

1993: A senior who is tough against the run, Caruthers is listed No. 2 at an outside linebacker spot (with Errol Small) behind Brian Williams.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "We were impressed with Gerald this past spring. He's a strong run defender, but still needs improvement in his pass defense and he needs to get a little stronger physically. He'll definitely contribute this fall."

1992: As a junior, Caruthers--who came to USC in the fall of 1992 as a highly-regarded junior college transfer--saw brief action on defense as a reserve outside linebacker and on special teams.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Caruthers made Blue Chip J.C. All-American, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, and J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV first team as a 1991 sophomore linebacker at Pasadena (Calif.) City College. He averaged 9 tackles a game and, on the year, posted a team-high 7 sacks for minus 44 yards, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 blocked punts. He was the Mission Conference Defensive Player of the Week when he posted 8 tackles, 1 sack, 5 quarterback pressures, and 1 blocked punt in a win over Rancho Santiago. As a 1990 freshman, he was a part-time starter.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Saugus (Calif.) High, where he was All-Golden League in 1989.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC.

TYLER CASHMAN

Tight End
Sophomore

1993: Cashman, a sophomore tight end with a strong Trojan background, is listed as a backup (with Johnny McWilliams and John Allred) to Bradford Banta, but look for him on the field often as a tight-end-in-motion.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tyler fits very well into our passing game plans. We're going to use him like he was used in high school, where he caught a lot of passes as a big wide receiver/tight end who can be very effective on the inside."

1992: As a redshirt freshman, Cashman was moved to tight end from split end in 1992 spring drills. He saw limited action as a 1992 reserve.

1991: Cashman redshirted as a split end in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention pick while at Los Alamitos (Calif.) High, Cashman made 80 catches (tops in Orange County in 1990 and third best ever in county history) for 1,019 yards (12.7 average) and 11 touchdowns. He was also named Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-County first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team, and All-Empire League Offensive Player of the Year. He had a single-game best of 14 catches (12 in the first half) for 145 yards.

Cashman collected 45 receptions for a 19.3 average with 8 TDs as a 1989 junior. In his career, he made 126 catches (seventh on the Orange County all-time chart) and averaged more than 20 yards per grab. He played wide receiver, tight end, defensive back and punter. He also starred in baseball. Current Trojan Ron Monninger also prepped at Los Alamitos.

PERSONAL: His father, Pat, was a defensive back at USC in 1966 and 1967 (he won honorable mention All-American laurels in 1967) who returned an interception of a Gary Beban pass 55 yards for a touchdown in Troy's famous 21-20 win over UCLA in 1967 which clinched a Rose Bowl berth and national championship for the Trojans.

KEVIN CLARK

Fullback
Freshman

1993: Untested but full of potential, redshirt freshman Clark enters the fall listed as a possible starter at fullback (along with Deon Strother and Rory Brown). He's also a backup long snapper behind Bradford Banta.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Kevin is inexperienced, but he's a real prospect. He has almost the perfect build for the fullback position. He's quick, tough and can catch the ball. I expect him to develop into an outstanding player."

1992: In his first year at USC, Clark redshirted in 1992 as a fullback. He sprained his left ankle in practice prior to the Washington game and that kept him out of uniform for 6 games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Clark was part of a Tumwater (Wash.) High program that went 36-2 (including a 32-game winning streak) during his 3 seasons of varsity football. As a 1991 senior fullback, he was named Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Seattle Post-Intelligencer All-State first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Northwest Nuggets Best of the Rest, and Olympian Player of the Year. His rushing total in 1991 was 146 carries for 1,353 yards (9.3 average) and a school-record 27 TDs, despite being nagged most of the season with an ankle injury. He also caught 15 passes for 277 yards (18.5 avg.). he ran for 3,256 yards and 56 TDs in his career, both school records and, in all, owns 7 school football records.

He made USA Today All-USA honorable mention in 1990, with 1,497 yards and 22 TDs as Tumwater won its second consecutive state 3A title. He rushed for a school-record 225 yards on 25 carries in the state semifinals against Bremerton (Wash.) High.

As a 1989 sophomore reserve, Kevin rushed for 406 yards on 49 carries (8.3 avg.) and scored 8 TDs. His 4 brothers, Kelly, Kert, Kenny and Keith, all excelled in high school football (Keith won league honors as a defensive back in 1991 as Kevin's teammate at Tumwater).

Clark was a 2-time state discus champ (1990 and 1991). He also won the state shot put title (1990). He had bests of 184-6 in the discus and 57-11 1/2 in the shot.

CONRAD COLEMAN

Tailback

1993: Coleman, a redshirt freshman who missed 1993 spring drills while recuperating from 1992 knee surgery, appears healthy now and adds depth to the tailback corps.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We were unable to evaluate Conrad because he sat out spring practice with an injury. If he can recover well enough, he has the background to be a good runner."

1992: In his first year at USC, Coleman redshirted as a tailback in 1992 after surgery on torn right knee ligaments in the pre-season sidelined him all year.

HIGH SCHOOL: Coleman was a 1991 Max Emfinger All-American, Super Prep All-Midwest, All-State honorable mention, All-Chicago Area honorable mention, and All-Conference pick as a tailback at Bradley-Bourbonnais High in Bradley (Ill.). He rushed for 1,344 yards on 124 carries (10.8 average) in 1991. He had a best game of 275 yards rushing and 5 TDs against Joliet Central.

Coleman spent 1990 at Kankakee (Ill.) High, where he rushed for 1,588 yards on 225 carries (7.1 average) with 16 TDs (he also had 2 other TDs on kickoff returns) and was named All-Kankakee Area first team and All-Conference.

As a 1989 sophomore, he rushed for 548 yards on 75 carries (7.3 avg.). He also played defensive back. In track, he ran the 100 meters in 10.7.

PERSONAL: He's a political science major at USC.

JOEL CRISMAN

Offensive Guard
6-5, 290
Senior

1993: The solid, experienced Crisman is a senior who returns as a starting left offensive guard.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Joel is a real solid player with good size. If he can play more aggressively and with more quickness, he could establish himself as a very good offensive lineman."

1992: Crisman started most of his 1992 junior season on the offensive line. He started the first 6 games at left offensive guard, then sprained his right knee against Washington State and missed the next 2 contests (Arizona State and Stanford). Against Arizona, he played some at right offensive tackle when Tony Boselli got hurt. Crisman then started the UCLA game at right tackle, moved back to the starting left guard against Notre Dame, and then started at right tackle again against Fresno State. He played well enough all year to earn All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

1991: Crisman began his 1991 sophomore season as the No. 2 strong offensive tackle behind Boselli, but when quick guard Kris Pollack sprained knee ligaments at Oregon in USC's fourth game, Joel moved into the starting lineup at quick guard and did a respectable job the next 5 games (Washington State, Stanford, Notre Dame, California, Washington). He suffered a mild concussion against Washington, did not play the following week at Arizona and appeared as a reserve in the UCLA season-finale. After the 1991 season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Crisman was switched from the defensive line to offensive tackle in the spring of 1990 and played well enough to serve as the No. 2 strong tackle behind Pat Harlow in 1990 (he played sparingly there and on special teams). But in practice prior to the Arizona State game, he tore ligaments in his left knee and missed the remaining regular season contests while recuperating. He was able to suit up for the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State.

1989: Crisman redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, as a defensive lineman.

HIGH SCHOOL: Joel was an All-State pick as a 2-way tackle in 1988 while prepping at Grundy Center (Ia.) High. He led the team with 154 tackles and also had 13 sacks and 2 fumble recoveries in 1988. He was a major factor in Grundy Center's state championship titles in 1988 and 1987. Crisman's other 1988 honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Midlands, Elite All-State first team, and Conference Lineman of the Year. In the state semifinals, Joel had 21 tackles and 2 sacks. He was also named Prep of the Week by the Des Moines Register and Channel 7 in Iowa.

He made 113 tackles, 7 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries and 1 interception as a junior in 1987 and was named All-State, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, and All-Conference.

An outstanding basketball player, Crisman made All-Conference first team and All-State honorable mention as a senior while averaging 23 points and 12 rebounds per game.

PERSONAL: Joel likes to spend his free time hunting and fishing. He's a public administration major at USC.

DONN CUNNIGAN

Outside Linebacker
6-2, 205
Junior

1993: Cunnigan, a talented and experienced junior, is a backup outside linebacker (with Brian Haas) behind Jeff Kopp.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Donn has been a delight because he's taken well to the position. Although he doesn't have the size of our other outside linebackers, he has the ability to explode on tackles and is becoming an excellent pass defender."

1992: As a sophomore, Cunnigan benefitted from a position switch in 1992 spring practice when he was moved to outside linebacker from safety. Donn appeared in all 12 games in 1992 as a backup at strongside outside linebacker and on special teams. He made 15 tackles (1 for a loss), deflected 2 passes, and recovered 2 fumbles (against Oregon and California, both of which led to TDs).

1991: A key special teams player who also saw some action as the No. 2 strong safety behind Stephon Pace, Cunnigan appeared in all 11 games in 1991 as a redshirt freshman. He made 7 tackles in 1991, including 3 against Washington.

1990: Cunnigan redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

BASEBALL: Donn was a reserve outfielder for the 1993 and 1992 USC baseball teams before quitting to concentrate on spring football drills. In 1993, he hit .500 (2-for-4) with 2 runs scored in 4 early-season games. In 1992, he was 0-for-1 with a walk in his only plate appearances.

HIGH SCHOOL: Cunnigan earned All-CIF Division III first team honors in 1989 at Gahr High in Cerritos (Calif.). His other senior honors were California Football All-State honorable mention, Los Angeles Times All-South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team second team. He also starred in baseball at Gahr.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC.

DAVID DOTSON

Tailback

1993: An elusive, speedy redshirt freshman tailback who looked impressive during 1993 spring practice, Dotson is a backup (with Scott Fields and Shawn Walters) behind Dwight McFadden.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "David did a lot of good things in the spring. He's not a real big guy, but people don't knock him down easily. When they hit him, he spins around and keeps running. As he learns all the nuances of the position, he'll make more and more of an impact."

1992: Dotson redshirted as a tailback in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a member of the first senior class at Valley View High in Moreno Valley (Calif.), Dotson set 5 California state records in 1991 as a tailback: most yards in a game (507, on 27 carries against Rim of the World High), season (3,544 on 354 carries for a 10.0 average), and career (7,265), plus most TDs in a season (46) and most points in a season (282). Among his 1991 honors were Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West Player of the Year, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team (and Medium Schools Player of the Year), Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VIII first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, Riverside Press-Enterprise Riverside County Co-Player of the Year, and Sunkist League Player of the Year. He did all this despite being hampered by a late season ankle injury. He also had single-game rushing totals of 445 yards and 5 TDs on 40 carries versus Notre Vista and 431 yards and 5 TDs on 31 carries versus Montgomery High in San Diego (Calif.). A 3-year starter, he had 85 career TDs. He broke CIF rushing records of 3 past or current Pac-10 standouts--ex-Trojan Ryan Knight's single game mark (formerly 501), ex-Stanford Cardinal Glyn Milburn's season standard (formerly 2,713) and ex-California Bear Russell White's career record (formerly 5,998). David led the Eagles to a 10-2 record in 1991 and an appearance in the CIF Division VIII semifinals.

As a 1990 junior, he rushed for 2,498 yards and 30 TDs on a state record 366 carries (6.8 average) while earning Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division VIII first team honors, and All-Sunkist League. He was coached at Valley View by Leo Brouhard, who also coached Knight at Rubidoux (Calif.) High (Knight's brother, Sammy, is currently on the USC team). Dotson was a 3-year honor roll member at Valley View and was named the school's outstanding scholar-athlete in 1992. He was a prep teammate of fellow Trojan Willie Lowery.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 300 pounds.

MARK FARLIN

Freshman

1993: Farlin, a redshirt freshman, is a young, tough reserve inside linebacker.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Mark exhibited outstanding aggressiveness during spring practice. His strength is defending against the run. Improvement in his pass defense will make him a good player."

1992: Farlin redshirted as an inside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Topeka Capital-Journal All-State and All-I-70 pick at Manhattan (Kan.) High, Farlin led the Indians to a 22-7 record and a trio of league championships during his last 3 years there. He made 130 tackles in 1991, including season highs of 20 against Shawnee Mission and 19 against Washburn Rural. He was selected to the Kansas All-Star game after leading Manhattan to a 6-2 record and the district co-championship.

He earned Topeka Capital-Journal All-State Class 6A honorable mention and All-Central Kansas notice in 1990. As a 1989 sophomore, he started at fullback in the state championship game for the 9-3 Indians. Mark also played baseball (2-year starter) and basketball at Manhattan.

SCOTT FIELDS

Tailback
Sophomore

1993: A position switch this past spring from the secondary to tailback could pay off in a big way for Fields, a sophomore who enters the 1993 season as a backup (with Shawn Walters and David Dotson) behind Dwight McFadden.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Scott is still young and learning how to play tailback, but the position switch should work out well for him. Physically, he is a lot like Marcus Allen. And he is learning to work through some problems with his running style like Marcus did early in his career. At this stage, Scott doesn't control his legs very well when he runs. His upper body runs through a hole and his legs don't. But he's a tough guy and I think he'll develop into a really good player."

1992: One of 4 first-year freshmen to see action in 1992, Fields was a reserve safety and key special teams player.

HIGH SCHOOL: Fields was named Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-CIF Division I first team after leading Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif) to a 9-2 record in 1991 and its second consecutive Angelus League championship. He rushed for 1,589 yards on 242 carries (6.5 average) and 16 TDs, plus had 6 catches for 65 yards (10.8 average), despite being hobbled by an ankle sprain the last part of 1991.

In 1990, he ran for 1,416 yards on 176 carries (8.0 average) and 17 TDs while making All-CIF Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, and San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-San Gabriel Valley first team. He posted 50 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and an interception in 2 years of play on defense. He lettered 2 years in basketball and track and field as well. Scott prepped at the same high school as current Trojan Jess Holguin.

COLE FORD

Placekicker
Junior

1993: Ford, a strong-legged junior, returns for his third year as USC's placekicker. He'll also serve as punter John Stonehouse's backup.

CAREER: Known for his powerful leg on kickoffs, 46 of Ford's 94 kickoffs have not been returned out of the endzone.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Cole could become a great kicker. He has tremendous leg strength and range. But, like all young kickers, he needs consistency and focus."

1992: As a sophomore, Ford was the starting placekicker for the second year in a row. He made 11-of-20 field goals and 25-of-28 PATs in 1992. He hit a career-long 41-yard field goal at Stanford. After battling inconsistency, he finished the regular season by hitting his last 4 field goal attempts, including all 3 against Notre Dame (1 shy of USC's single game record), before missing his only try (a 37-yarder) in the Freedom Bowl against Fresno State. Some 31 of his 55 kickoffs in 1992 were not returned out of the endzone. He also recorded 1 tackle.

1991: Ford, 1 of 6 first-year freshmen to play in 1991, did a nice job handling USC's placekicks and kickoffs. Despite not using a tee and aiming at narrower goal posts for the first time in his career, he was effective on field goals (7-of-12, including 3 at Oregon, which was 1 shy of USC's single game record) and PATs (21-of-21). He was 7-of-8 inside the 40. His 45-yard field goal try at the gun to tie Stanford was just wide by a foot. He also consistently drove his kickoffs into the endzone (unheard of at USC in recent years), as 18 of his 39 kickoffs reached the endzone and only 3 of those boomers were run out. Ford missed the Washington game with a strained left hip flexor and then appeared in just the first half of the following week's game at Arizona before aggravating the injury (which forced him out of the UCLA season finale).

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 USA Today All-American honorable mention pick, Ford was a key figure in leading Sabino High in Tucson (Ariz.) to the state 4A championship that year. His 32-yard field goal proved to be the difference in Sabino's 31-28 victory over Peoria High of Phoenix in the state championship game played at Sun Devil Stadium. He made 8-of-11 field goals in 1990, including a career-best 54-yarder (he also attempted a 66-yarder) and was good on 51-of-58 PATs. He proved to have a strong leg as evidenced by kicking 46 of 69 kickoffs out of the end zone, including 4 that went through the goal posts. For his play, he was named Super Prep All-Far West, All-Arizona All-Star, All-Arizona 4A first team, All-Southern Division first team, All Phoenix Metro first team, All-Sonoran Conference, All-Tucson and team MVP as a senior. He doubled as a defensive end for Sabino as well, collecting 88 tackles, 4 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries. Current Trojan Greg Tellam also prepped at Sabino.

As a junior in 1989, Ford kicked 8 field goals and made All-Southern Division first team on a team which was 12-1 and reached the state quarterfinals.

PERSONAL: His hobbies include snow boarding, water skiing, horseback riding and auto mechanics (he restored a 1929 Ford Roadster pickup). When he was 12, Cole competed in the Western States 100 Horse Race, a 24-hour, 100-mile race in the Sierra Nevadas. His brother, Garrett, is a senior tight end at Colorado (he also played at San Diego State). Cole is a business administration major at USC.

COLE FORD ON: Kickoffs: "I take a lot of pride in my kickoffs. I work hard on them and I really enjoy kicking off. It develops a strong leg for a kicker."

Practicing his kicking in Tucson: "Arizona Stadium was the only place in Tucson that had the narrow goal posts and I used to sneak in there during the summer to practice kicking field goals. Once, the groundskeeper caught me, but he thought I was one of the Wildcat kickers."

Riding horses: "When I was 8, I started riding in long distance horse races called 'endurance rides.' The races travel along the old Pony Express trails all around the country and you have to complete 100 miles within 24 hours. My family and I went all over the country so that I could compete in these races. When I was 15, I got tired of sitting in a saddle and gave up the riding...My horse was an Arabian named 'Hoss' and he was the toughest horse around in endurance races. He taught me some important things. My family bought Hoss from some people who had purchased him from a meat market. That inspired me because it shows that no matter what you start out as, you can still become something special. Hoss showed me how to be tough. Endurance riding also taught me that to just finish the race can be like winning. Not everyone can be No. 1. Sometimes you can learn more just by finishing, even if you're in last place. If you're losing and stick it out, you can still learn to be tough. If you just hang in there, you can succeed."

His secret ambition: "It would be awesome to kick the winning field goal and then ride Traveler (USC's mascot) around the Coliseum."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Noted kicking coach Ray Pelfrey: "Cole is one of the best kickers I've ever coached. He's probably one of the strongest kickoff men in all of college football. He's stronger right now on kickoffs than some starting kickers in the NFL."

STUART GAGE

Offensive Tackle
6-4, 300
Sophomore

1993: Gage, a big and tough sophomore, is listed as the No. 2 right offensive tackle (with Len Gorecki) behind Norberto Garrido.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Stuart has a huge frame and is a very tough guy. He is waging a very determined battle to keep his weight in check. If he can lose weight and gain some playing experience, he'll be a solid player who could become a factor for us."

1992: Gage did not see action in 1992 as a redshirt freshman reserve offensive lineman.

1991: Gage redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Honored as a 1990 Super Prep All-Midlands, Gage was a 3-year letterman as a 2-way lineman at Charles Page High in Sand Springs (Okla.). He led the Sandites to the state semifinals and a 9-4 record in 1990. He was named to the All-State first teams of the Tulsa World, the Daily Oklahoman and the Oklahoma Coaches Association. He was also named All-Frontier Conference and All-District 5A-3.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 380 pounds.

DARREN GALLAWAY

Defensive End
Senior

1993: After serving capably as an often-employed backup, the senior Gallaway takes over as a starting defensive end in 1993.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Darren really impressed me this spring. He's a tough, solid, aggressive player who comes to play on every down. His long suit is defending the run. He should have an outstanding senior year."

1992: As a junior in 1992, Gallaway was the No. 2 weakside outside linebacker behind Willie McGinest as well as being a special teams performer. He appeared in all 12 games (he started against Arizona at defensive tackle for David Webb, but Webb did play) and posted 6 tackles overall (1 for a loss).

1991: Gallaway spent his 1991 sophomore season as the No. 2 weakside outside linebacker behind McGinest. He saw limited action in 9 games there and on special teams, posting 4 tackles, including 2 for losses of 6 yards (with a sack).

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Gallaway played briefly on special teams in 1990. He spent most of the season as a reserve defensive tackle, but when injuries hit USC's tight end corps, he was switched to a reserve tight end role for the Notre Dame game (but did not play). He was moved from outside linebacker to the defensive line early in the 1990 season.

1989: Gallaway redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, as a strongside outside linebacker.

HIGH SCHOOL: A defensive end-tight end while at Servite High in Anaheim (Calif.), Gallaway was a 2-year starter for the Friars. He was named Super Prep All-Far West, California Football All-State honorable mention, All-Angelus League first team, L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 honorable mention, All-Big A Empire first team and Servite Defensive Lineman of the Year as a senior in 1988. He made 57 tackles, along with an interception and 4 sacks, while helping Servite to a 10-3 record in 1988.

Gallaway was named All-Angelus League second team as a junior in 1987. He also caught 3 passes in his career at Servite.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC. His sports hero is Howie Long.

NORBERTO GARRIDO

Offensive Tackle

1993: John Robinson salivated when he first saw Garrido, who is one of USC's biggest players. Although Garrido is inexperienced, the sophomore had an impressive spring and won the starting right offensive tackle job.

JOHN ROBINSON: "It'll be fun to watch Norberto in 1993. He's an untested young player with a defensive background. He's not particularly fast, but he's a great big guy. He looks like he's 7 feet tall and 400 pounds! He wants to be a tough, dominating offensive lineman and has developed the mentality that if he can get to you, he'll not only block you, he'll strangle you."

1991: Garrido redshirted as a nose guard in 1991, his first year at USC, while sidelined following surgery for a broken left foot suffered in pre-season drills.

1990: Garrido originally signed with USC in the spring of 1990 but did not qualify academically, so he attended Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut (Calif.) in 1990 as a part-time student. He improved his national board scores and entered USC in the fall of 1991 as a first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: The 1989 Los Angeles Times San Gabriel Valley Lineman of the Year, Garrido posted 41 tackles (20 solo), 12 1/2 sacks and 3 pass deflections as a senior at Workman High in La Puente (Calif.). Offensively, he blocked at an outstanding 91% grade. The numbers resulted in further honors such as Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Valley and All-Valle Vista League first team (both ways). He enjoyed a lineman's dream when he recovered a fumble for a touchdown.

During his 1988 junior season, Garrido was named first team All-League and second team All-Valley. He did not play football until his 1987 sophomore year. An honored performer in track, Garrido was the 1990 Valle Vista League champion in the shot put (54-7) and the CIF 2-A runner-up (54-2 1/4).

PERSONAL: He bench presses 385 pounds.

CRAIG GIBSON

Center
Senior

1993: The veteran on USC's offensive line, Gibson--a consistent, heady senior--returns for his fourth season as the starting center. He'll become USC's first 4-year starting offensive lineman since All-American guard Mark Tucker did so in 1987-90. Gibson is also serving his second year as a backup long snapper behind Bradford Banta.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Craig is a really good player. He lacks size, but he makes up for it because he's such an excellent technician. He'll be counted on as one of our veteran leaders."

1992: Gibson started for his third year at center in 1992 as a junior. He won All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice and shared USC's "Gloomy Gus" Henderson Award (for most minutes played) with Len Gorecki. Craig also was the backup long snapper behind Banta, but never was called on in that role.

1991: As a sophomore in 1991, Gibson started all season at center (his second consecutive year in the lineup) and proved to be one of the mainstays on the Trojan offensive line.

1990: Gibson, as just a redshirt freshman, spent the first half of 1990 as the backup to Derrick Deese at quick offensive guard (he didn't see any action there), but in game 7, against Arizona, he moved into the starting center job and held it the rest of the season, performing admirably. He had arthroscopic surgery on torn cartilage in his left knee following the 1989 season which sidelined him for the first part of 1990 spring practice.

1989: Craig redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Gibson earned All-CIF Division III first team honors as a 2-way tackle at El Modena High in Orange (Calif.) in 1988. A 3-year starter on both sides of the line, he had 59 tackles, 3 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, and 2 pass deflections for the Vanguards as a senior. Offensively, he graded out at 3.8 (on a 4.0 scale) for blocking skills and had games of 4.1 and 4.0. Gibson's other senior year honors included All-Century League on offense and defense, L.A. Herald-Examiner All-Southern California, L.A. Times All-Orange County first team, The Register All-Orange County second team, L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 honorable mention and El Modena co-MVP.

Gibson had 75 tackles and 6 sacks as a junior in 1987 and was named All-Century League.

PERSONAL: He was born in Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He likes to hunt and snow ski. Michael Jordan is his sports hero. He's a public administration and planning major at USC. Craig's brother, Don, was a defensive guard at USC from 1987 to 1990 (he was All-Pac-10 first team in 1990 while serving as Troy's team captain) who then played for the Denver Broncos and now the New England Patriots. Another brother, Boomer, started at outside linebacker at Arizona in 1986 and 1987. His father, Frank, was a 3-year letterman at Army (tight end/defensive end) and captain in 1960 (the elder Gibson later served as an assistant coach at West Point).

CRAIG GIBSON ON: His older brothers: "They were great role models to have. It made me want to get a scholarship all the more. I was the little one, the one who was always picked on...I'll tell you one thing, it didn't make me a wimp. It made me tougher, mentally and physically. It taught me a lot...It's worked out for the best. It's made me work harder to get where I am."

Calling the blocking schemes for the offensive line: "I approach it as a challenge. You get up to the line and have to recognize the front, then basically tell everyone what to do."

How he overcomes his lack of size: "I've played tons of 300-pound nose guards, but you can't just look at weight. You've just got to block them. I have a real low center of gravity, and every time I get up to the ball, I think low, low, low. It's better to be quicker, because a lot of the time you're blocking linebackers who are great athletes...I know quickness is my strength. And you've got to be quick with the defenses we're playing. You're going out there on linebackers who are just as quick."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Boomer Gibson, Craig's oldest brother: "By far, Craig is mentally and physically the toughest of the family. He's a strong-minded kid. He's a scrapper. He's not overly physical, but he's so strong and quick to the first step, when he gets you he's got you."

Don Gibson, Craig's older brother and USC's 1990 team captain: "I knew he was going to be a good player, but I didn't know it would be so early. When he got his shot, he took advantage of it."

LEN GORECKI

Offensive Tackle
Senior

1993: A starting offensive tackle all of last season, Gorecki missed 1993 spring practice while recovering from 1992 post-season shoulder surgery and consequently enters this season listed as the backup right offensive tackle (with Stuart Gage) behind Norberto Garrido. But Gorecki, a versatile senior who can also play guard, is healthy now and will contend for playing time.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Len is a veteran who can play several positions for us. He's a competent player who, despite being sidelined in the spring, has the experience needed that gives him the opportunity to compete for a starting job."

1992: Gorecki started all of 1992 at left offensive tackle and, despite having limited playing experience, performed well as a junior. He shared USC's "Gloomy Gus" Henderson Award (for most minutes played) with Craig Gibson. He had post-season surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder.

1991: Gorecki spent the second half of his 1991 sophomore season as the backup strong offensive tackle behind Tony Boselli. He appeared briefly in the California and Arizona games.

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Gorecki began 1990 as a reserve strong offensive tackle, but didn't see any action. When backup Joel Crisman was injured prior to the Arizona State game, Len became No. 2 at that position behind Pat Harlow (he played briefly at Oregon State). But 3 weeks after his promotion, Gorecki broke the fibula bone in his left leg in practice prior to the UCLA game and missed that contest and the Notre Dame game. He recuperated in time to suit up for the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State.

1989: Gorecki redshirted in 1989, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Len earned All-CIF Division IV first team honors in 1988 as a senior offensive lineman at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). One of the top prep offensive linemen in Southern California in 1988, he helped Damien gain more than 2,000 yards rushing from the tailback position during his final 2 seasons. Gorecki also was named California Football All-State second team, Super Prep All-Far West, L.A. Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team and All-Baseline League in 1988. Current Trojans Jeff Diltz and Jonathan Himebauch also prepped at Damien.

Gorecki's 1987 junior honors included All-Pomona Valley, All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Baseline League. He also threw the shot for Damien's track team.

PERSONAL: He's majoring in public administration at USC.

LEN GORECKI ON: His first year at USC: "I was learning from the best, guys like Junior Seau, Tim Ryan, Dan Owens and Scott Ross. I didn't know it at the time. I just thought to myself, 'Geez, what a step up from high school.' I remember those guys telling me, 'Don't give up, you've got to get us ready. It's up to you to make us better.' I think that was the best advice anyone could have given me. Work hard on every down of every play. They were throwing me around, but teaching me at the same time."

BRIAN HAAS

Outside Linebacker
Sophomore

1993: After playing inside linebacker his first 2 years at USC, Haas moved to outside linebacker in 1993 spring drills and is listed No. 2 (with Donn Cunningan) behind Jeff Kopp at one of the spots. He'll also be a key special teams player.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Brian loves to play. He's a tough, hard-nosed player. He'll be a help on special teams and at any linebacker spot."

1992: As a redshirt freshman reserve inside linebacker in 1992, Haas saw limited action on special teams.

1991: Haas redshirted as an inside linebacker in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Haas was a 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention selection at El Toro (Calif.) High. A 3-year letterman at both linebacker and tight end, he posted 110 tackles, 15 quarterback sacks, 6 forced fumbles, 3 pass deflections and 2 interceptions on defense and caught 4 passes for touchdowns on offense as a senior. He was selected the team's Defensive Player of the Year and was the winner of the team's "Bull Hit Award" for having the most big hits during the season. He also was named Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, All-CIF Division II first team, Long Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-County first team and All-South Coast League first team.

As a junior in 1989, Haas was an All-South Coast League first team selection. He was an Orange County Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete honoree as well. He was a member of an El Toro program that went 30-8 during his 3 years. He is 1 of 4 Trojans from El Toro (along with Jeremy Hogue, Rob Johnson and Chris Miller). He also played baseball at El Toro, earning a varsity letter his senior year.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC with a B+ average (3.30 GPA).

QUINCY HARRISON

Wide Receiver
Freshman

1993: Harrison, just a redshirt freshman, has yet to play a down at Troy, but he could be a major factor in USC's untested wide receiver corps, where he is listed as a co-starter with Ryan Lenderman and several incoming players.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Quincy is a young, inexperienced receiver with talent. He's still learning the position. If he matures, he can help us this fall. His athletic ability gives him a chance to have a good future."

1992: Harrison redshirted as a flanker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Super Prep All-American, Harrison led Eldorado High in Las Vegas (Nev.) to an 11-1 record and the class AAA state championship as a senior. CLAY HATTABAUGH

Center
Junior

1993: Hattabaugh, a junior offensive lineman who was in the hunt to start last fall until a knee injury struck him down, missed 1993 spring practice while recuperating, but is healthy now and could be a key backup. He is listed as the No. 2 center (with David Apolskis) behind Craig Gibson, but he's versatile enough to also play offensive guard.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We're counting on Clay this fall. If he's 100% physically and gets all his strength back, he has a chance to see action at center or guard."

1992: As a sophomore, Hattabaugh was competing for the starting left offensive guard spot until he dislocated his left kneecap during 1992 pre-season drills. He was sidelined for USC's first 6 games, then started at Arizona State. He re-dislocated that kneecap in practice prior to the following game (Stanford) and had surgery, forcing him out of USC's last 5 games. He missed most of 1992 spring practice while recovering from 1991 post-season shoulder surgery.

1991: One of just 6 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1991, Hattabaugh was the No. 2 quick offensive guard (first behind Kris Pollack and then Joel Crisman) and he was quite impressive while seeing plenty of action. Clay appeared in 7 games (Memphis State, Penn State, Arizona State, Oregon, California, Washington, Arizona). He even started the Arizona game, becoming the first true freshman to start on the Trojan offensive line since Bruce Matthews (an eventual All-American and All-Pro) did so in 1979 against UCLA. After the season, Hattabaugh had surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: A product of state prep power Fontana (Calif.) High, Hattabaugh teamed with current Trojan Robert Loya to give Fontana one of the finest rushing games in the nation in 1989 and 1990. During Hattabaugh's 1990 senior season, the Steelers rushed for 3,432 yards (and over his last 2 years there, they rushed for 7,676 yards, a 294-yard per game average). He was named a 1990 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-Valley and All-Citrus Belt League.

As a junior in 1989, Clay was named Cal-Hi All-State Underclassman and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana went 34-4 during Hattabaugh's 3 seasons, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC. He bench presses 345 pounds.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Brett is an outstanding young competitor. With more experience and time to develop, he could help out our defense."

1992: Hayhoe redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

He was named team MVP. He caught 2 passes for a pair of touchdowns and 68 yards versus Carson (Nev.) High. He had 14 tackles and an interception against Reno (Nev.) High. A 2-year starter, he had 150-plus career tackles. He led Reed to the state playoffs 2 of the 3 years he lettered.

Brett played 3 seasons on the basketball team and was named 1991 team MVP. He also lettered a year in track (discus).

PERSONAL: He is the son of ex-Trojan lineman Bill Hayhoe, who lettered at USC in 1967 and 1968 (USC went to the Rose Bowl both years and won the national championship in 1967) and starred at tackle for the Green Bay Packers from 1969-74; Bill blocked a field goal in USC's 21-20 win over UCLA in 1967 to clinch a Rose Bowl berth and the national title. Brett's uncle, Jerry Hayhoe, lettered at USC in 1964 and 1966. Brett has a B average (3.13 GPA).

1993: A starting cornerback in 1992, the junior Henry enters 1993 as a reserve cornerback who figures to be used in extra defensive back situations.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Jerald improved and competed well throughout the spring. We'll benefit from his experience as a starter. He could be used often in nickel and dime situations."

He recorded 53 tackles, 6 deflections and an interception (at the goal line versus Washington State). He had a team-high 9 tackles against Washington State. He also had 8 stops and 2 deflections against Fresno State. He missed the last half of 1992 spring practice to have surgery for a dislocating right shoulder.

1991: One of just 6 first-year freshmen to see action in 1991, Henry was the No. 2 pass coverage halfback behind Calvin Holmes. Jerald appeared in 10 games (all but the Memphis State opener), primarily in extra defensive back situations, but he even started the California contest. JOHN HERPIN

Junior

1993: Herpin, a 4-game starter in 1992, goes into the fall as a starting cornerback with all the skills needed to be successful at the position. He missed most of 1993 spring drills while recovering from 1992 post-season surgery on a dislocating right shoulder, but the junior is okay now.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "We have great hopes for John in 1993. He highlighted his skills during the little bit that we saw of him this spring. He's got real good speed, he's a good coverage defender, and he's a fine athlete. We need for him to stay healthy."

1992: Herpin started at left cornerback 3 times (Oklahoma, Washington, Oregon) and at right cornerback once (Notre Dame) in 1992 as a sophomore. John served as Jerald Henry's backup at left cornerback and on special teams the rest of the time. He made 14 tackles, 3 deflections and 1 interception (at the end of the Oklahoma game). At Oklahoma, in his first significant action as a Trojan, he had 6 stops, 2 pass breakups and the pick. He didn't play against San Diego State and UCLA because of a hamstring pull.

1991: In the pre-season prior to his 1991 redshirt freshman campaign, Herpin was moved from flanker to the secondary, where he was impressive enough to be listed as the No. 2 pass coverage halfback (behind Calvin Holmes). However, John dislocated his right shoulder in pre-season drills and missed USC's first 2 games. He suited up for Troy's next 2 contests (Arizona State and Oregon) and saw brief action at Oregon (he didn't make a tackle). Then, in practice prior to the following contest (Washington State), he again dislocated his right shoulder and had surgery, which sidelined him for the rest of 1991.

1990: Herpin redshirted in 1990 as a flanker, his first season at USC.

TRACK: Herpin ran the high hurdles for the Trojan tracksters in the spring of 1991. He finished fourth in the Pac-10 meet with a personal-best 14.14. He ran 7 other races, all posting times of 14.61 or better, including a 14.19 to place second at the USC Homecoming meet and 14.24 (converted) for second against Cal State Northridge, Stanford and UC Irvine. He won 3 races: 14.32 in a 5 way meet against Arizona State, Washington, New Mexico and Baylor, 14.54 in a 4-way meet versus UC Irvine Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and UC Santa Barbara, and 14.59 against UCLA and BYU. He also led off USC's 400-meter relay once when the quartet won the USC Homecoming meet in 40.06.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 prep All-American by Parade, Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger, Herpin played in 3 games in for LaPorte (Tex.) High before breaking his arm on the first play of the fourth game as a senior. In the 3 games, he rushed for 248 yards on 17 carries (14.6 average), including 120 yards on his first 4 carries of the season. He also had 3 catches as a wingback. As a safety, he made 19 tackles. He was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, Blue Chip All-Southwest Region, Tom Lemming All-Southwest and Texas Football Magazine Super Team. He was rated the No. 10 player in Texas by the Houston Chronicle.

His 3-year career totals show 21 receptions for 530 yards (25.2 yards per catch), 320 yards rushing on 25 carries (12.8 average), 26 punt returns for 340 yards (13.1 average), 16 kickoff returns for 447 yards (27.9 average), 14 touchdowns, 11 interceptions and 7 fumble recoveries. He was All-State as a 1988 junior, when he had 14 catches for 337 yards (24.1 average) with 3 touchdowns, 73 tackles, 4 interceptions (returned 2 for touchdowns) and 481 yards returning kicks (with 2 scores).

An outstanding hurdler, Herpin was named USA Today pre-season 1990 All-USA Track & Field. A 2-time Texas state high hurdle champion, John's 1990 best of 13.52 topped all U.S. preps. He ran 10.52 in the 100 meters. A fine student, Herpin was a member of the National Honor Society.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC. He bench presses 325 pounds.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Mike is a good power rusher inside. He's an aggressive, consistent performer and a quick learner. We'll get solid play from him."

1992: As a junior, Hinz started at nose guard in USC's last 5 games of 1992 after serving as the often-used backup there behind Thomas Holland for the first 7 contests (Mike was elevated to a starter when Holland broke his arm). Hinz recorded 20 tackles (5 for losses), a deflection, a forced fumble (versus California), and a fumble recovery (at Arizona State).

1991: Hinz started the first 7 games of his 1991 sophomore season at nose guard and held his own. But he sprained his left ankle at Notre Dame and was sidelined the next 2 contests (California and Washington). He returned for Troy's final 2 games (Arizona and UCLA) and played briefly in them as a reserve. Overall, he made 18 tackles (all in the first 7 games), including 2 for losses of 2 yards. He also forced a fumble (which USC recovered at Notre Dame). He had 5 stops (including both of his tackles for losses) against Arizona State.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Hinz spent the first half of 1990 as the often-used backup to both Gene Fruge at nose guard and Don Gibson at defensive guard, but when Fruge was injured at Arizona State, Hinz assumed the starting nose guard role the following game (California) and was in the starting lineup the rest of the regular season, performing well. When Fruge returned to start the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State, Hinz again backed him up. Overall, he had 19 tackles, including 2 for losses, and 1 forced fumble (against Syracuse). He had at least 1 tackle in 11 of USC's 13 contests.

1989: Hinz redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC. He was slowed in pre-season drills with a sprained left ankle.

A very versatile player, he rarely left the field during a game, playing tight end, linebacker, nose guard, punter and special teams. He made 141 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and 1 interception in 1988. On offense, Hinz averaged 21 yards per catch on 15 receptions and scored 4 touchdowns as a senior. Times Inland Empire Lineman of the Year, Riverside County Defensive Player of the Year, Ivy League Defensive MVP (and All-League on offense), L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 first team.

A 3-year starter, Hinz had 102 tackles as a junior in 1987 and was a 2-way tackle. On offense in 1987, Hinz was named All-CIF Eastern Conference, All-Riverside County, and All-Ivy League, while he earned All-Inland Empire honors on defense.

He played both ways and punted in 1986 as a sophomore, making 36 tackles. He also competed in track, baseball and wrestling while at Ramona. An outstanding student, Hinz had a 3.5 grade point average in high school and was on California Football's Scholar team in 1988, as well as being Ramona's Outstanding Male Citizen.

Senior

1993: Holland, a hard-nosed senior, enters 1993 as the starting defensive tackle after being a starter the first half of 1992 until an arm injury sidelined him.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Thomas is an aggressive player, makes great use of his hands, and gets off blocks well. He makes up for his lack of size with his aggressiveness and toughness."

1992: Holland started the first 7 games of 1992 at nose guard as a junior before breaking his left arm on the first play at Arizona State and missing USC's last 5 games. Overall, he made 15 tackles, including 3 sacks.

ROB JOHNSON

Quarterback
Junior

1993: Johnson, an experienced, productive junior, returns as the starting quarterback. He is an effective passer and determined leader. He also shines in the classroom.

CAREER: With 182 career completions (on 321 passes, 56.7%, for 2,343 yards, 14 TDs and 16 picks), Johnson is ninth on Troy's career chart.

MIKE RILEY SAYS: "Rob really was impressive in the spring and proved he can play at a high level. He is a good all-around athlete who can handle play-action passes. We have placed a high emphasis in our passing game on being very efficient and getting rid of the ball on time, and Rob has handled that well. He's also very accurate and very eager."

1992: Johnson, whose thread-the-needle accuracy and soft touch revitalized the Trojan passing attack in 1992, won the starting quarterback job over 1991 starter Reggie Perry and was impressive as a sophomore. Johnson was second in the Pac-10 in passing efficiency at 123.7 and fourth in total offense (167.0). He won All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice. His passing line was 163-of-285 (57.2%) for 2,118 yards, 12 TDs and 14 interceptions. The 163 completions put him sixth on USC's season passing list. He had a streak of 99 consecutive passes without an interception during 1992.

In the San Diego State opener, he was 20-of-33 overall (60.6%) for 278 yards and 4 TDs. That was the most yards for a Trojan signalcaller in 16 games and the most TD tosses (one shy of Rodney Peete's USC game record) at USC in 21 games (and 1 more than Perry had all of 1991). Then, at Oklahoma, Johnson was 17-of-27 for 201 yards, and threw a 51-yard TD to flanker Curtis Conway. At the time, it was the longest pass at USC since Todd Marinovich hit Johnnie Morton for a 77-yard TD against California in 1990. Rob only played part of the Washington game before suffering a mild concussion midway through the second quarter. He bounced back in a big way the next week, going 11-of-16 for 125 yards and 3 TDs versus Oregon. Versus California, he was twice knocked out of the game (for good with a neck sprain late in the third quarter), but he completed 11-of-22 passes for 134 yards and a TD. He was 19-of-28 for 196 yards against Washington State and threw a key 27-yard fourth down TD pass to Conway with 27 seconds to play in the first half to give Troy a 21-7 lead at the intermission. At Arizona State, he hit 8-of-13 tosses for 137 yards and a TD. He was 11-of-22 for 195 yards at Stanford, but threw 3 interceptions. Against Arizona, he was 12-of-24 for 213 yards (including a 65-yarder to split end Johnnie Morton to set up USC's winning TD; it was USC's longest pass of the year, Johnson's longest of his career, and the longest play from scrimmage against Arizona in 1992) and he outjumped a Wildcat defender to catch a game-winning 3-yard throwback from tailback Deon Strother midway through the fourth quarter. That performance against the Wildcats earned Johnson Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Week honors. Johnson scored 3 times the following week at UCLA--he caught another TD pass (a 36-yarder from Conway off a lateral) and had a pair of 1-yard scoring sneaks--to go along with his 16-of-32 passing for 166 yards. Against Notre Dame, Rob completed 27-of-41 passes for 302 yards, all career highs, with a TD. He was named USC's Offensive Player of the Game versus UCLA and Notre Dame. He was just 7-of-18 for 95 yards with 3 picks versus Fresno State.

1991: The backup quarterback to Perry most of 1991, Johnson became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for USC in the post-World War II era (records before then are incomplete) when he started at Arizona. Rob played that entire Arizona game, hitting 10-of-20 passes for 114 yards and an 8-yard TD to Estrus Crayton (with 2 interceptions) while guiding USC to a pair of TDs. Two games before then, at California in USC's eighth game of the season, Johnson made his first appearance of 1991 by playing nearly all of the fourth quarter, going 6-of-9 for 80 yards and a TD (22 yards to Larry Wallace) while leading USC to 2 touchdowns. The next game, against Washington, he relieved Perry in the third quarter and was 3-of-7 for 31 yards and led Troy to a field goal (its only score in the game). Overall in 1991, as 1 of just 6 first-year freshmen to play at USC, Rob completed 19-of-36 passes (52.8%) for 225 yards, 2 TDs and 2 interceptions (he also lost 22 yards rushing on 17 carries, a -1.3 average).

BASEBALL: Johnson was a righthanded pitcher for the USC baseball team in the spring of 1992 before quitting to concentrate on spring football practice. He had a 6.75 ERA while appearing briefly in 2 games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Johnson was one of the most celebrated prep quarterbacks in the nation in 1990, winning All-American first team honors from Super Prep and Tom Lemming. He led El Toro (Calif.) High to the 1990 CIF semifinals and an 11-2 record by completing 207-of-303 passes (68.3%) for 2,788 yards and 29 touchdowns. As a result, he was named Super Prep All-Far West Offensive Player of the Year. His other 1990 honors included Blue Chip All-American second team and USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-County Offensive Player of the Year and South Coast League Co-Offensive Player of the Year. His 2 finest single-game performances included numbers of 21-for-25 passing for 275 yards and 3 touchdowns, and 16-for-19 for 241 yards and 3 touchdowns. He passed for 312 yards in 1 game and threw 4 touchdown strikes in another game. He set 5 school season passing records. Rob's father, Bob, was the El Toro coach.

As a 1989 junior wide receiver (El Toro's quarterback was Steve Stenstrom, now at Stanford), Johnson made 65 catches for 1,260 yards (19.4 average) and 12 touchdowns. For his play at receiver, he was named California Football All-State honorable mention, CIF All-Southern Section, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-County second team. He also was 20-for-25 (80.0%) for 550 yards as a backup quarterback in 1989. El Toro was 12-2 in 1989 and advanced to the CIF finals.

As a 1988 sophomore, Johnson split time with the varsity and junior varsity teams as a quarterback and defensive back.

Current Trojan teammates Brian Haas, Jeremy Hogue and Chris Miller also prepped at El Toro.

A 3-sport star at El Toro, Johnson was named the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports and Amateur Athletic Foundation Boys State Athlete of the Year and was the first prepster named twice as the Orange County Register Male Athlete of the Year (1990 and 1991). He was a 4-year starter for the Charger varsity basketball team, twice earning All-County honors and 3 times winning All-League recognition. He averaged 17.5 points a game as a sophomore, 21.8 as a junior and 25.0 as senior and was named team MVP both his junior and senior seasons. Rob was also a 4-year letterman in baseball, pitching El Toro to more than 20 victories during his career. He was a 16th round draft pick by the Minnesota Twins in 1991. A fine student with a 3.5 GPA at El Toro, he made the 1990 Cal-Hi Sports Scholar Squad.

PERSONAL: His older brother, Bret, was a quarterback at UCLA and Michigan State (he's now in the CFL). His cousin, Bart Johnson, pitched in the major leagues. Rob is a public administration major at USC with a B average (3.07 GPA). He made the 1992 Pac-10 All-Academic first team.

ROB JOHNSON ON: His assessment of his play in 1992: "I thought I was pretty consistent all year long except for the Stanford and Fresno State games...But the bottom line is: How many wins did the team have with you as the quarterback? Everything else is secondary. It's disappointing to see that we didn't win more because we started off really well."

His expectation: "I expect to come through if the game's on the line. If I don't do that, I didn't do my job."

Taking hits: "You're going to take shots--I've taken some pretty good ones--but so does every other quarterback. I wish I could stay in the pocket and throw and not get touched, but that's not football...Watching films, when you get blasted, it's funny, as long as you're all right. You see the ball released and then you see your body fly back about 5 yards."

His brother, Bret: "He's a better quarterback than I'll ever be...I've learned a lot from my brother and what he has gone through. That provides me with an example of what can happen in college football, that you never know what is going to happen."

Playing for his father in high school: "Playing for Dad was fun and it was also demanding. I knew he was going to be harder on me than on anyone else on the team. But he also separated it. He kept football away from home. Sometimes I'd ask him a football question and he wouldn't answer it...My dad is an excellent quarterback coach and my brother is an excellent quarterback, so being around those two people who are influential helped me become a better athlete and a better quarterback. I really had an advantage over a lot of other kids. Still, they didn't force me to work hard. They were there to help, but I still had to have the drive to work hard and practice on my own."

SHANNON JONES

Inside Linebacker
Senior

1993: To take advantage of his size, speed and ruggedness, the senior Jones--who started all of last year on the defensive line--was moved to inside linebacker in 1993 spring practice and will start there. It's a familiar position for him, as he was a reserve inside linebacker earlier in his USC career.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "We moved Shannon back to inside linebacker because we need a run stopper between the tackles and he brings some wood with him when he hits you. And he has improved in his pass defense. We believe the position switch will work out well."

1992: Jones came into 1992 as an untested junior, but turned out to be a pleasant surprise while starting all year at defensive guard and performing consistently. He had 23 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection. He was moved to defensive guard from inside linebacker in 1992 spring practice.

1991: As a reserve inside linebacker, Jones suffered a dislocated right shoulder in pre-season drills and that sidelined him for his entire 1991 sophomore season.

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Jones was a reserve weakside inside linebacker in 1990 whose only action was limited time on special teams. Jones began the season as an outside linebacker on the weakside. He won USC's Howard Jones Academic Incentive Award (for the most improved GPA).

1989: Jones redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, following surgery for a dislocated right shoulder injury suffered in pre-season drills.

HIGH SCHOOL: Jones was a 2-year 2-way starter at offensive guard and defensive end as a prep at Smiley High in Houston (Tex.). He averaged 8 tackles per game as a senior in 1988 and was named All-Conference first team, All-District first team on defense (second team on offense) and Dallas Morning News Texas Top 100.

As a junior in 1987, Jones made All-District first team and All-Conference second team. An excellent student, he carried a B+ average in high school.

PERSONAL: Jones' father, Bill, played for the Kansas City Chiefs. Shannon has bench pressed 355 pounds. He is majoring in business administration at USC.

SHANNON JONES ON: Moving back to inside linebacker: "It puts more pressure on me, but I like it. I have the chance to be a leader. I have to know all the calls and what everybody's doing all the time. The main thing is as the inside linebacker, you're there by yourself. So, if a lineman misses a tackle, you've got to make it or it could be a long play."

Being switched to defensive guard in 1992: "By that time, I was so hungry, I just wanted to play. Being a starting defensive lineman sounded better than being a backup linebacker."

His first 3 years at USC: "It was real disappointing. I'm here all the way from Houston to sit here and not play. Me coming in and getting hurt was a real blow to my morale. I talked to my father a lot and he told me to stick with it. I really thought about transferring, but I decided to hang in there and it's worked out."

Junior

1993: Keiderling, a junior who has yet to play at USC, is a reserve left offensive tackle who was moved from offensive guard in 1993 spring drills.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Jason is a steady player. He improved throughout the spring, gained confidence and proved he can play."

1991: Keiderling did not see any action in 1991 as a redshirt freshman reserve offensive guard.

1990: Keiderling redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC. He did not suit up for the first 4 games of 1990 while recovering from a broken hand.

HIGH SCHOOL: For his performance during his 1989 senior season as a 2-way tackle at Reseda (Calif.) High, Keiderling earned recognition on the Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press Telegram Best of the Rest, California Football All-State second team, All-L.A. City 3-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team and Daily News All-Valley second team. He was team captain as a senior in 1989. As a defensive starter, he accumulated 60 tackles, recovered a fumble and forced another. A 3-year letterman, he helped the Regents post a 3-year record of 24-6-2.

Freshman

1993: Just a redshirt freshman, Keneley has the size and ability to become an outstanding defensive lineman in time. He is listed as the No. 2 nose tackle (with Jason Uhl) behind Mike Hinz.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Matt is big and we need him to play big by plugging up gaps and holes. He has a lot of potential, but he needs to become more consistent and confident. At times this spring, he was brilliant. Once he gains confidence and matures, he has the capability of being a big-time player."

1992: Keneley redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: The Orange County Register's top-ranked recruit, Keneley was named Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division II first team, Register All-Orange County first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County, and South Coast League Player of the Year in 1991 at Mission Viejo (Calif.) MATT KOFFLER

1993: Koffler is a redshirt freshman who adds quality depth to the quarterback corps.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Matt has the physical tools and showed improvement during the spring, but he was a bit inconsistent. Once he becomes comfortable in our offense and has the time to mature, you can tell he has the talent to be successful."

1992: Koffler redshirted as a quarterback in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Max Emfinger All-American, Koffler passed for over 4,500 yards his final 2 seasons at Rosemead (Calif.) High, including 1,945 yards during his 1991 senior season. He completed 129-of-220 (58.6%) passes, including 15 that went for TDs (he also ran for 8 TDs). He was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, and All-CIF Division V first team. Against Duarte High, he threw for 289 yards (16-of-22) and 5 TDs and rushed 72 yards for another TD.

As a 1990 junior, Matt made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Division V first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-San Gabriel Valley first team, and Mission Valley League Back of the Year while throwing for 2,489 yards and 25 TDs. He led Rosemead to an 11-3 record and the Mission Valley championship. He holds a second-degree black belt in taekwondo. He turned down an offer to become a sumo wrestler in South Korea. Koo wants to become a priest ("I prayed to God and told Him if He made me a USC football player, I'd become a priest," Koo said. "And if I ever become a pro football player, I'll serve Him forever."). After his Friday night prep games, he would head to church and pray from 11 p.m. to 3 a.m. Dong is a religious studies major at USC with a B- average (2.98 GPA).

JEFF KOPP

Outside Linebacker
Junior

1993: In USC's new defensive formation, Kopp--an aggressive, determined junior--has been moved to a starting outside linebacker spot in 1993 spring practice after starting at inside linebacker in 1992.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Jeff is a smash-mouth football player. He plays the game with great aggression. He's a fundamentally sound player who can blitz, cover and play solid run defense."

1992: As a sophomore, Kopp became the starting strongside inside linebacker in the second game of 1992 (Oklahoma) and provided a huge boost to the Trojan defense. He made 74 tackles (fourth at USC), including team highs of 11 versus both Oregon (with 3 sacks and a forced fumble) and Arizona (with 2 for losses and a forced fumble late in the game which USC recovered), 9 at Washington (with a deflection), and 8 versus Notre Dame (with a fumble recovery, which set up a field goal). Seven of his tackles were for losses (of 38 yards) in 1992. He had 2 fumble recoveries to tie for the team lead (the other besides Notre Dame was against California, which set up a TD), 2 forced fumbles, and 2 deflections.

1991: Kopp backed up Matt Gee at strongside inside linebacker as a redshirt freshman and appeared in 9 games there and on special teams. He didn't get into the Stanford game and, because of a sprained right knee suffered in practice prior to the UCLA game, he sat out the Bruin season finale. Overall in 1991, he made 11 tackles (including 1 for a loss of 1 yard). He had 4 stops against California.

1990: Kopp redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A Super Prep All-American, Kopp registered 172 tackles, 7 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries and an interception as a linebacker in 1989 at San Ramon High in Danville (Calif.). He was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, Max Emfinger All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team and Defensive Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-Northern California, San Francisco Examiner All-Bay Area first team, and MVP of the All-Alameda County first team (as a linebacker and offensive lineman). He led San Ramon to an 8-4 record and the CIF North Coast Section 3-A Division semi-finals.

As a 1988 junior, he earned All-County and All-Bay Area honors while recording more than 120 tackles and 4 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC with a B- average (2.80 GPA). His father, Thomas, played fullback-guard at Arizona State. His brother, Mike, wrestled at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo.

JEFF KOPP ON: His jersey number: "After my first year here, (ex-USC All-American inside linebacker) Scott Ross told me he wanted to pass along his uniform number (35) to me. I had been wearing No. 49, but Scott had told me how Rex Moore had passed the number on to him and Riki Ellison had worn it before Rex. They were all famous USC linebackers who were known for playing a crazy, intense, 'wild dog' style of play. It was a great feeling to know I would be the next guy to wear that number. But I also knew it was a big responsibility to uphold. And I tried to uphold it the same crazy way they did...I thought everyone expected me to be intense, an emotional leader who did a lot of yelling and screaming on the field. That was Scott's mode and it worked for him. It didn't work for me...It was during the 1991 Cal game that I finally saw the light for the first time...The coaches told me I had all the tools necessary to be a great linebacker, but that I had to quit trying to live up to other people's expectations, that I was Jeff Kopp, not someone else...I realized then that I was playing a style different from my own personality. I'm a quieter, calmer person and my intensity is more focused. I'm not flashy. I'm more of a blue-collar type of player. I know what I'm supposed to do on the field and I do it."

5-11, 180
Junior

1993: Lenderman, an untested junior who has glue-like hands, could be a major factor in USC's thin wide receiver corps, where he is listed as a co-starter with Quincy Harrison and several incoming players. He also might be the holder on all placekicks.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Ryan had a good spring. He's a very competitive and efficient possession-type receiver who knows how to get open and catch the ball. He's been hampered by nagging injuries in his career, but if he can stay injury-free, he'll play a lot this fall and be a key to our success."

1992: As a sophomore reserve split end in 1992, Lenderman saw limited action, but didn't catch a pass.

1991: Lenderman was a reserve split end as a redshirt freshman in 1991, but he didn't see any action. He didn't suit up for USC's first 2 games (Memphis State and Penn State) while recovering from a dislocated right shoulder suffered in pre-season drills. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on that shoulder.

1990: Lenderman redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Colorado's all-time prep receiver, Lenderman snared 251 passes during his 4-year career at Grand Junction (Colo.) High, 1 reception shy of the national high school record. A 4-year starter, Lenderman wa a 1989 Parade and Super Prep All-American. He was also USA Today All-USA second team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Central Region, Tom Lemming All-Midlands and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. A 3-time All-State honoree, Lenderman caught 62 passes for 950 yards (15.3 average) and 13 TDs in 1989. He had 23 grabs and 4 TDs in the season-finale against Cortez High. He started 43 of 45 games during his career.

As a 1988 junior, he caught 89 passes for 1,468 yards (16.5 average) and 20 TDs. Grand Junction won the Colorado State 3A championship with a 14-0 record (the team was 31-4 in Lenderman's 3 seasons). Ryan was named 1988 USA Today All-USA honorable mention.

He posted 76 catches for 1,156 yards (15.2 average) and 14 TDs as a sophomore in 1987. He had 27 receptions and 4 TDs as a 1986 freshman.

He also lettered in baseball (centerfield), winning All-State honors in 1989 and 1990. He batted .490 in 1990 with 4 home runs.

IRWIN LINCOLN

Cornerback

1993: Despite missing most of 1993 spring practice while recovering from 1992 post-season surgery on a dislocating left shoulder, the sophomore Lincoln is talented enough to be listed as a No. 2 cornerback behind John Herpin.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Irwin's lack of practice time in the spring because of the injury hindered him, but we feel that with his natural ability, he'll compete for playing time in the secondary and especially on special teams."

1991: Lincoln redshirted as a cornerback in 1991, his first year at USC, while recovering from pre-season surgery to repair torn ligaments in his left knee.

HIGH SCHOOL: In 3 years of high school play, Lincoln was beaten for a passing touchdown just twice. A 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention pick despite being sidelined 7 games of his senior season at DeAnza High in Richmond (Calif.) with various shoulder and knee injuries, Lincoln still collected 40 solo tackles and an interception in 6 games. Also a wide receiver, he caught 15 passes for 260 yards (17.3 average) and 2 touchdowns. He returned a punt 89 yards for a touchdown. His additional 1990 honors included Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team (and Medium Schools 2-A Division first team), San Francisco Examiner All-Northern California first team and All-San Francisco Metro first team, and All-Diablo Foothill Athletic League. DeAnza posted an 8-4-1 record and advanced to the 1990 CIF North Coast Section 2-A Division finals.

As a 1989 junior, Lincoln had 53 tackles, 5 interceptions and 3 fumble recoveries and was named All-Diablo Foothill Athletic League. He posted 45 tackles, 3 interceptions and 3 fumble recoveries as a sophomore in 1988 and won All-Diablo Foothill Athletic League recognition. For his career, he had 12 interceptions.

He also lettered in track and has a lifetime best 14.32 in the 110-meter high hurdles. He won the CIF North Coast Section high hurdles championship in 1988 and 1989. He finished fourth in the high hurdles at the 1990 state championship. He was editor of El Vaquero, the DeAnza school newspaper. Current Trojan Ken Grace also prepped at DeAnza.

PERSONAL: He was born in Trinidad and Tobago and immigrated with his parents to the United States in 1979. He's a public administration major at USC.

WILLIE LOWERY

1993: A high-potential redshirt freshman, Lowery was moved in 1993 spring practice to defensive end (where he is a reserve) from outside linebacker.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "At times this spring, Willie showed signs of outstanding potential. Once he makes up his mind to take it to the next level, he could be an outstanding player. He should contribute this year on special teams and could see action on the line, too."

1992: Lowery redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 3-year starter at Valley View High in Moreno Valley (Calif.), Lowery made Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, All-CIF Division VIII first team, and Sunkist League Defensive Player of the Year in 1991. He notched 92 tackles with 12 sacks and 4 blocked punts in 1991 after averaging 10 tackles a game in 1990. He led the Eagles to a 10-2 record and the semifinals of the CIF Division VIII playoffs. He was a 3-time All-Sunkist League honoree. Willie was a prep teammate of current Trojan David Dotson.

ROBERT LOYA

1993: After starting part of last year and improving with each performance, the sophomore Loya is listed as the backup right offensive guard (with Kyle Ramsay) behind Kris Pollack and could vie for playing time. He missed the first half of 1993 spring practice while recovering from 1992 post-season surgery to remove cartilage from his left knee.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Robert got some great playing experience last year as a young player. If he is completely recovered from his knee injury, he could be a factor on our offensive line."

1992: As just a redshirt freshman, Loya started 7 games (Washington and then the final 6 regular season contests) at right offensive guard in 1992 and did an admirable job. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove right knee cartilage following 1992 spring practice.

1991: Loya appeared briefly in the Memphis State opener as a backup strong offensive guard, but then suffered a pinched nerve in his neck prior to the next game (Penn State) and was sidelined the rest of his 1991 freshman season. Because of the early injury, he was allowed to redshirt. He was 1 of just 6 first-year freshman to see action in 1991.

HIGH SCHOOL: Loya teamed with current Trojan Clay Hattabaugh to give Fontana (Calif.) High one of the finest offensive lines in the state in 1989 and 1990. Fontana gained 7,676 yards rushing his last 2 seasons, including a school-record 4,244 in 1989. He was named to 6 1990 All-America first teams -- USA Today All-USA, The National's Top 50, Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger. Robert also made Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana was 24-2 in Loya's final 2 years, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

As a 1989 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclassman, All-CIF Division I first team, California Football All-State honorable mention, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Both years, he made the team's line calls and had blocking grades of more than 80%.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC. He made 1992 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention.

ROBERT LOYA ON: Run blocking: "In high school, we never passed the ball. It was just the running game. My real game is the run. I've always loved to run. I just love pounding."

ELIC MAHONE

Defensive End
Senior

1993: Playing his third position in 3 years, Mahone--who was moved in 1993 spring practice to defensive end--is regarded as a fierce pass rusher. The senior is listed as a backup (with Junior Moi) behind Darren Gallaway.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Elic had a top-notch spring. For only his second year on defense, he showed outstanding pass rushing skills and made a great improvement in his run defense. He'll be used a lot on pass rush downs. He could be a big key for us."

1992: As a junior, Mahone switched from tight end to defensive tackle-outside linebacker in 1992 spring practice and backed up David Webb at that position. Elic saw limited action there and on special teams in 1992, getting 1 tackle. He separated his left shoulder in practice prior to the California game and missed 3 contests (California, Washington State and Arizona State).

1991: A reserve tight end as a 1991 sophomore, Mahone played in extra tight end situations and on special teams. He appeared in 8 of USC's 11 games (all but the Penn State, Arizona State and Arizona contests), but did not catch a pass.

1990: As a first-year freshman, Mahone began 1990 as a reserve tight end, but as injuries hit the tight end corps he steadily moved up the depth chart to where he saw plenty of action as the backup behind Bob Crane for the Notre Dame game and No. 3 behind Frank Griffin and Crane in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State. Elic made 1 catch in 1990, a 10-yarder at Arizona State, and also recorded 1 tackle on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger All-American, Mahone enjoyed an outstanding career at Muir High in Pasadena (Calif.). He averaged 10 tackles a game as a defensive end in 1989 and collected 6 sacks on the year. Out of his tight end position in a Wishbone offense, he caught 13 passes for 275 yards (21.2 average) and 6 TDs. In 1 game, he caught 4 passes for more than 200 yards and made 2 sacks. His other senior honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team (as a tight end), All-CIF Division II first team as a defensive lineman) and All-Pacific League. His 11-1-2 team was the 1989 CIF Division II co-champions.

Elic made 40 catches with 6 TDs as a junior in 1988. He also lettered 2 years in basketball, averaging 11 points as a senior. In track and field (he was All-Pacific League in 1990), he long jumped 20-0, high jumped 6-5 and ran a 10.9 100 meters. A fine student with a 3.29 GPA in high school, Mahone was a Scholastic All-American as a junior. He served as Muir's activities commissioner his senior year. Current Trojan Saladin McCullough also prepped at Muir.

TERRY McDANIELS

Senior

1993: McDaniels, a big senior who has started 20 games on the defensive line in his USC career (but none last year), is listed as the No. 2 defensive tackle (behind Thomas Holland), but he has the ability to see a lot of action in 1993 and be a dominant force.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "With a greater commitment to excellence, Terry could become the best defensive lineman in the Pac-10. He possesses outstanding skills and has the size needed to shed blocks and plug holes. He just needs to get in better physical condition and play up to his size. He holds a big key for the success of our defense this fall."

1992: McDaniels spent the first half of his 1992 junior year as the backup defensive guard behind Shannon Jones and then was the No. 2 nose guard behind Mike Hinz (after starter Holland got hurt at Arizona State). Terry saw significant action, getting 18 tackles (4 for losses), including 4 each against Arizona State, Stanford and Fresno State. He had post-season arthroscopic surgery on his right knee and left ankle.

1991: McDaniels started USC's first 7 games at defensive guard as a 1991 sophomore before giving way there to Matt Willig for the final 4 games (Terry did play in the last 4 games as the backup). Switched to guard in the pre-season from defensive tackle, McDaniels had 31 tackles overall, including a team-high 7 for losses of 24 yards (2 were sacks for minus 16 yards). He also recovered 2 fumbles (against Penn State and Notre Dame, both of which set up TDs). He had 4 stops against both Washington State and Washington. He broke his right hand on the last day of 1991 spring practice.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, McDaniels started all of 1990 at defensive tackle and did a commendable job. Terry had 27 tackles overall, including 8 for losses of 18 yards (4 were sacks), plus 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery (in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State), and 1 forced fumble (against Washington State). He had 6 tackles versus Notre Dame and 3 tackles for a loss against Washington State.

1989: McDaniels redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A prep All-American as a 1988 senior at Pasadena (Calif.) High, McDaniels was 1 of the top 2-way high school linemen in California. In 1 game in 1988, he scored a touchdown after recovering a fumble he forced on defense and then scored again on offense when he recovered his teammate's fumble in the end zone. His 1988 honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-American, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, California Football All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. McDaniels was also named L.A. Herald-Examiner Southern California Top 25 and pre-season Super 11 first team, L.A. Times San Gabriel Valley Player of the Year, Pasadena Star News All-Pasadena first team and All-Pacific League on both offense and defense.

A 3-year 2-way starter for the Bulldogs, McDaniels made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior team and All-Pacific League (on offense) in 1987 and was All-League as a sophomore in 1986. Current Trojans Phalen Pounds and Trey Towns also prepped at Pasadena.

A fine track athlete, McDaniels' specialty, surprisingly, was the hurdles where he had impressive prep bests of 14.7 in the 110-meter high hurdles and 40.1 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles. A B student in high school, Terry was also involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was active on Pasadena High's anti-drug campaign.

PERSONAL: He can bench press 365 pounds. His sports heroes are Karl Mecklenburg and Lyle Alzado. Terry is a history major at USC.

DWIGHT McFADDEN

1993: After an impressive 1992 season, McFadden--an exciting, speedy sophomore--earned the starting tailback job after a fine showing in 1993 spring drills. He has all the makings of an outstanding runner. He might also return kicks and punts in 1993.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We intend for Dwight to lead the league in rushing this year. He had a very good spring. He's very quick and fast. He has outstanding speed in the small area where a runner lives. He can make you miss him. He's quiet and doesn't look tough, but he is. And he's ambitious. This kid is good."

1992: McFadden came into his 1992 redshirt freshman season as an unknown, but quickly opened up people's eyes. A 2-game starter (Stanford and Arizona) at tailback and the backup behind Estrus Crayton most of the rest of the time, Dwight rushed for 465 yards (second on the team) and 2 TDs on 126 rushes (3.7 avg). He also had 5 catches for 31 yards (6.2 avg). He made the Football News Freshman All-American third team. In the San Diego State opener, McFadden ran for 74 yards (all in the second half) on 13 carries. That was the most rushing yards by a USC freshman since Calvin Holmes had the same yardage at Oregon in 1987 and the most in a USC freshman debut since Aaron Emanuel had 76 yards at Illinois in 1985. Dwight led the Trojans in rushing 6 times: against Arizona State (a career-high 95 yards with a 5-yard TD on 19 carries, all in the second half), Oklahoma (a game-high 62 on 16 carries, all in the second half in his home state), California (54 on 13 carries), Notre Dame (45 on 9 carries), Arizona (41 on 17 carries), and Stanford (30 and a 1-yard TD on 19 carries in his first career start). He also had 57 yards on 15 carries versus Washington State. His 32-yard non-scoring run against California earned him a share of USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award.

1991: Although at times during the 1991 season, his first at USC, McFadden was listed as a key reserve tailback, he never made it into a game and therefore was redshirted.

PERSONAL: McFadden, who rushed for 1,938 yards and 26 touchdowns as a 1990 senior at Eisenhower High in Lawton, (Okla.), was named 1990 All-American first team by Super Prep, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger. His additional honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Midlands, Tom Lemming All-Midlands, and All-State. He also played defensive back. Eisenhower was named 1990 national champion by USA Today after going 14-0 and winning the state's 5-A title.

As a 1989 junior, he ran for 1,156 yards on 190 carries (6.1 average) with 18 touchdowns, and also had 5 interceptions. He also was a state qualifier in the high hurdles and intermediate hurdles.

PERSONAL: He is a public administration major at USC.

DWIGHT McFADDEN ON: Why he chose USC: "I felt I had the best chance to get to the NFL from here and it was also the best place to get an education."

Beating Oklahoma in 1992: "I proved that I made the right choice by going to USC instead of Oklahoma or someplace else."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Tim Reynolds, McFadden's high school coach (now at Oklahoma State): "Dwight knew he wanted to be a great running back. He made himself good. He's an excellent running back because of his work ethic and willingness to learn...He has the ability to change direction without losing much velocity. He can start and stop and return to full speed better than anybody I ever coached."

WILLIE McGINEST

Defensive End
Senior

1993: McGinest, a leading candidate for the Lombardi Award and All-American honors, is a quarterback's worst nightmare. The senior defensive end who'll be starting for his third season (he was an outside linebacker the last 2 years, but was moved to the line in 1993 spring practice) is big, strong, fast, athletic and dominant. He's the prototype impact defensive player. He has already been named to the prestigious 1993 Playboy pre-season All-American team.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Willie can be one of the dominant defensive players in the United States. I expect him to be one of our leaders in 1993. We'll feature him on our defense."

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "I expect McGinest to be a top player. He has the God-given talent, especially in applying pass pressure. He worked hard in the spring and improved his consistency. I've always believed that you have to have a player who is a threat on defense so the opponent says, 'We've got to get that guy blocked!' Willie has to be that guy for us."

1992: Starting for his second season at weakside outside linebacker as a junior, McGinest proved to be a dominanting player in 1992. He was an All-Pac-10 first teamer and USC's Defensive Player of the Year. Of his 63 tackles (fifth on USC), a team-high 23 were for losses (fourth in the Pac-10) of minus 99 yards. He tied for the Pac-10 lead in sacks with 16 (for minus 82 yards). That approached All-American Tim Ryan's school marks of 28 tackles for losses and 20 sacks, set in 1989. McGinest tied for the team lead in forced fumbles (3) and was second in deflections (9). He also had a fumble recovery.

At Arizona State, he topped Troy in tackles (12, including 4 for losses, of which 3 were sacks) and deflections (2). He had 7 stops (1 sack) at Stanford and against Washington State (1 sack). Willie added 6 tackles (1 for a loss), a deflection and a caused fumble at Washington. Versus Notre Dame, 3 of his 6 tackles were for losses (including 2 sacks) to earn him USC's Defensive Player of the Game versus Notre Dame. He had 5 stops (3 were sacks), broke up a pass and forced a fumble versus Oregon. He also had 5 stops at UCLA, including 2 for losses (with a sack), and 3 deflections. He had 4 tackles at San Diego State, including a pair of sacks for minus 16 yards, and batted down 2 passes at the line. Against California, he had 4 tackles (1 for a loss), plus a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Three of his 4 tackles against Arizona were for losses (including 2 sacks), as were 2 of his 3 stops against Fresno State (including a sack).

1991: The starting weakside outside linebacker as a sophomore in 1991, McGinest recorded 35 tackles, including 6 for losses of 16 yards (including 2 sacks for minus 7 yards). He also forced 3 fumbles (1 against Penn State and 2 at Washington State, both of which USC recovered, the second to set up a TD) and deflected 6 passes. He appeared in 9 games and started 8 times. He did all this despite being nagged almost all season with a lingering ankle injury. He sprained his left ankle against Penn State and missed the next 2 games (Arizona State and Oregon), then returned as a backup in the Washington State game before regaining his starting job. He had 10 tackles (2 for losses) at Arizona and 6 against Penn State.

1990: As just a first-year freshman, McGinest served as a backup outside linebacker in 1990, the first half of the season behind Kurt Barber on the strong side and then behind Craig Hartsuyker on the weak side. Willie even started 3 games: in the Syracuse opener on the strong side (Barber replaced him in the second series) and against Arizona State and California on the weak side (although Hartsuyker did play in those 2 games). Willie also played on special teams. Overall, McGinest had 27 tackles, including 6 for losses of 39 yards (5 were sacks), and 2 deflections. He made a tackle in 11 of USC's 13 games. He had 2 sacks at Ohio State. He was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week for blocking a punt at Ohio State (which Zuri Hector ran in for USC's opening score of the game).

HIGH SCHOOL: One of the top Southern California preps in 1989, McGinest earned Super Prep, Tom Lemming and Blue Chip All-American honors in 1989 as a linebacker at Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High. He posted 107 tackles, 18 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, 4 deflections, 4 blocked kicks and an interception as a senior. He led Poly to a 9-2 record and the Moore League title. In 1 game, he collected 4 sacks and 3 quarterback hurries. He was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Max Emfinger All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West (unanimous), Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team as a senior.

As a 1988 junior, McGinest was All-South Coast League second team with 80 tackles, 4 sacks and 3 deflections. He was a 3-year football starter. He was also a highly-regarded basketballer, winning Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, All-CIF Southern Section, All-Long Beach and All-League honors after averaging 14 points a game in 1989-90.

PERSONAL: Willie bench presses 380 pounds. He's a public administration major at USC.

WILLIE McGINEST ON: His style of play: "Make life tough on the quarterback or whoever has the ball. Make them remember who you are and where you're from. That's about all there is to it...I have respect for quarterbacks, but it's not my job to like them. It's my job to destroy them. They're the bull's-eye and I'm the bull...My goal is to disrupt offenses and make them recognize me before we play them. That will open it up for somebody else, if they concentrate on me...Knowing that I have people watching me and I have a responsibility just makes me play harder. But I wouldn't care if I had an average game and we won. I'll give up all the sacks and everything for wins."

Why he didn't leave USC after his junior year to enter the NFL draft: "When I came to USC, I had 3 goals: to win a national championship, to win a Rose Bowl, and to get my degree. By staying, all 3 of my goals are within reach...I talked to (ex-USC All-American) Mark Carrier. He told me to do what's best for me, but don't jump the gun too early, just take everything slow and evaluate everything...Coach Robinson was happy. He said that if I came back, then our chances as a team would be greater in 1993...It's time for me to live up to my own expectations and goals. It's time for me to play like I know I can."

A 1992 pre-season talk he had with ex-USC All-American outside linebacker Junior Seau, now starring with the San Diego Chargers: "He told me to take care of his old uniform number (55) and don't do anything to lower the value of it...He told me I had to be more aggressive and play every down like it was my last. He compared it to the guy across the line from you is trying to take everything away from you. So you've got to beat him every play, every single play...Since I've been at USC, people have been trying to make me into another Junior. I'm flattered to be compared to him, but it is a lot of pressure. He left big shoes to fill."

Staying busy: "I have to stay busy. I'm not the kind of guy who can sit around and do nothing. I'll always find something to do to fill my spare time, whether it's playing cards or dominoes, bowling or fishing. I even tried playing the violin once when I was in elementary school. But I wasn't too good at it and gave it up after a week."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: UCLA head coach Terry Donahue: "He's a real factor. He has a huge wingspan and is a very imposing player. He's a big-time athlete and productive football player."

USC safety Mike Salmon, on McGinest's 12-tackle, 4-sack performance at Arizona State in 1992: "If Arizona State's backfield would have been a no parking zone, Willie would have loaded up on tickets."

Ex-USC inside linebacker Matt Gee, Troy's 1991 captain: "You can just stand there and let Willie chase the quarterback to you. It's nice to know if you're tired that Willie will bring them to you."

1993: Converted to defensive end from outside linebacker in 1993 spring practice, Moi is listed as a backup (with Elic Mahone) behind Darren Gallaway.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Junior showed signs this spring of his desire to be a contributor on our defense. We need for him to improve and get on the field, and that will happen with better physical conditioning and strength gains."

1992: As a junior, Moi was a reserve outside linebacker and key special teams player. He made 1 tackle in 1992. He sprained his right knee in practice prior to the California game and was sidelined 3 contests (California, Washington State and Arizona State).

1991: Moi spent most of his 1991 sophomore year as the No. 2 strongside outside linebacker behind Kurt Barber and then Lamont Hollinquest (Junior also was available as a backup at the weakside outside linebacker spot). He also played on special teams. Moi saw limited action in 7 of USC's 11 games (all but Arizona State, Oregon, Washington State and Notre Dame), notching 5 tackles and recovering a fumble (on the opening kickoff of the second half against UCLA). He dislocated his left elbow against Penn State and missed the next 2 games (Arizona State and Oregon). He had 2 stops against both Washington and UCLA. After the season, he had surgery on his elbow and missed 1992 spring practice.

1989: Moi redshirted in 1989, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Moi was an All-CIF San Diego Section first team selection in 1988 as a senior linebacker for state-champion Rancho Buena Vista High in Vista (Calif.). Junior made 64 tackles, 10 sacks, 5 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries in 1988 for the Longhorn defense which was instrumental in 13-0 Rancho Buena Vista's CIF San Diego Section title and designation as the state champs. Moi's other 1988 honors included Vista Press-Courier North County Defensive Co-Player of the Year, L.A. Times All-County first team, Avocado League Defensive Player of the Year and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. A 2-way starter in 1988, Moi caught 6 passes for 111 yards (18.5 average) and scored 2 touchdowns.

As a junior in 1987, Moi had 26 tackles, 3 sacks, 1 forced fumble and had 3 receptions for 24 yards. A versatile athlete, he also played basketball and baseball at Rancho Buena Vista.

PERSONAL: He is called Junior because his real first name, Vaelaa, is the same as that of his father. Former USC All-American Junior Seau is his cousin. His sports hero is Dominique Wilkins. Moi is a public administration major at USC.

JOHNNIE MORTON

Wide Receiver
6-0, 190
Senior

1993: Morton, an acrobatic senior wide receiver known for his velcro-like hands, will be starting for his fourth season and is now an All-American candidate. He'll go down among USC's best-ever pass catchers. He might also return kicks and punts in 1993.

CAREER: In his career, Morton has 113 catches for 1,681 yards (14.9 avg) for a third place tie (with Hank Norman) on USC's all-time chart (Johnnie needs 51 catches to break the record). He has 5 100-yard receiving games in his career (3 in 1992).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Johnnie will be among the best receivers in the country and he could earn All-American honors. I really like his ability."

MIKE RILEY SAYS: "Although we don't have much depth at wide receiver, we have an outstanding player there in Johnnie. I'm impressed with his ability to run precise routes and to make big plays. He's got good speed and good quickness. He understands the intricacies of his position very well."

MIKE SANFORD SAYS: "We always knew Johnnie was capable of making big plays. He has excellent hands and is tough, not afraid to go in traffic. He works hard and watches plenty of game film. He wants to be a great receiver. He does the extra things that make him a great receiver."

1992: As a junior in 1992, Morton started at split end for the third straight year and was named to the All-Pac-10 second team. He made 49 catches (tied for the team lead) for 756 yards (15.4 avg) and 6 TDs in 1992. The receptions tied him for sixth on USC's single season receiving list and the TDs catches were USC's most in a season since Gary Wellman had 6 in 1989. He was third in the Pac-10 in both receiving yards (68.7) and receptions (4.5).

Johnnie had a team-high 6 catches for 84 yards at San Diego State, including 3 for touchdowns (24, 17 and 19 yards) to tie a USC single game TD reception record held by 4 others (Shelton Diggs, Kevin Williams, John Jackson and Erik Affholter). It was Morton's first game with a TD catch since his legendary 1990 UCLA contest (a span of 13 games) when he had 2 late TD grabs in Troy's 45-42 win. At Oklahoma, Morton had a 9-yard reception before a right ankle sprain sidelined him the rest of the game and the following contest at Washington. But he came back in grand style, getting another 3 TDs (36, 25 and 22 yards) versus Oregon (to tie the school record again) among his game-high 8 catches for 114 yards overall. He added 4 grabs for 49 yards against California, a team-high 5 for 48 yards versus Washington State, and a 25-yard catch at Arizona State. He led USC in catches at Stanford (5 for 113 yards) and versus Arizona (4 for 108, including a 65-yarder to set up USC's winning fourth-quarter score; it was USC's longest pass of the year and the longest play from scrimmage Arizona allowed in 1992). He had 3 catches for 54 yards at UCLA, including a 39-yarder on fourth down with 1:15 to play to set up USC's final TD. He equalled his career high (first set versus Stanford in 1991) with a game-high 9 catches for 91 yards against Notre Dame. He topped USC with 3 catches for 61 yards against Fresno State.

1991: Morton was USC's leading receiver as the starting split end in his 1991 sophomore season with a team-high 49 catches for 662 yards (13.5 average). That put him sixth on USC's season pass catching list. He had a career-high 9 receptions (for 77 yards) versus Stanford, 8 both at California (for a career-best 135 yards) and versus Washington (83 yards), and 5 each against Memphis State (62 yards) and Penn State (67 yards). He had a 14-game pass catching streak dating back to 1990 snapped at Arizona. He did not start the California game (Joel Scott did), but Johnnie played in the game. Morton also returned 4 kickoffs for 59 yards (14.8 average). He was also the backup holder on placekicks behind Mike Salmon, but was never called on to hold. For all this, he was named All-Pac-10 honorable mention and Football News Almost All-American. He missed most of 1991 spring practice with a slight fracture and strained tendon in the big toe of his right foot.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Morton started 5 of the last 6 games at split end in 1990 (Arizona State, California, UCLA, Notre Dame, and the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State). Before that, he was an often-used backup to Larry Wallace and Scott the rest of the time. Morton made 15 catches for 263 yards (17.5 average) and 3 TDs. He etched his name into Trojan lore when he caught 2 dramatic TD passes from Todd Marinovich late in USC's 45-42 victory over UCLA, the first a 21-yarder where he had to outjump a Bruin defender with 3:09 to play to give USC a 38-35 lead and then, after UCLA recaptured the lead, a game-winning 23-yard diving grab in the corner of the end zone with 16 seconds remaining. Johnnie had 4 catches for 70 yards and the pair of scores at UCLA, plus 3 catches for 111 yards (with a 77-yard TD, tied for the longest reception in the Pac-10 in 1990) against California, 3 catches for 36 yards versus Michigan State, and 3 grabs for 35 yards versus Penn State. He also returned 5 kickoffs for 100 yards (20.0 average).

1989: Morton redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

TRACK: To improve his speed and quickness, Morton spent the spring of 1993 working out with the USC track team. He even ran in a race, placing third in a heat of the 100 meters in 10.92 in a triangular meet against Iowa and Fresno State.

HIGH SCHOOL: Morton was an exciting pass receiver/return specialist as a 1988 senior at South Torrance (Calif.) High. He caught 60 passes for 951 yards (15.9 average) and 9 touchdowns in 1988. He also rushed for 2 TDs and had 5 scores on returns that year. Morton's 1988 honors included All-CIF Division VII first team, California Football All-State honorable mention, Super Prep All-American, Ocean League MVP, L.A. Times All-South Bay first team, Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribue Western 100, and Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest. One of Johnnie's kickoff returns went for 103 yards (a school record).

He had 46 receptions for 857 yards (18.6 average) and 10 touchdowns as a junior in 1987. Morton made All-Bay League first team, L.A. Times All-South Bay second team and Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team in 1987. He played varsity as a sophomore in 1986 and was a reserve defensive back.

Morton also starred in track in high school and posted sprint bests of 10.8 in the 100 meters and 22.3 in the 200 meters. An outstanding student, Johnnie had a B average in high school and made the California Football Scholar team in 1988.

PERSONAL: His brother, Eric, is a freshman defensive back at Dartmouth. Johnnie is a communications major at USC. He would like to try his hand at acting and modeling. He spent the summer of 1992 as an intern with "The Arsenio Hall Show." His sports hero is ex-Trojan receiver Lynn Swann "because he adjusted his body so well to any kind of throw and also because he is a good role model." However, until he got to Troy, Morton didn't know that Swann attended USC (all he knew was that Swann played for the Pittsburgh Steelers)! Johnnie went to a Japanese elementary school for 3 years (his mother is Japanese American) and used to speak some conversational Japanese ("but now I've forgotten most of it").

JOHNNIE MORTON ON: Running on USC's track team in 1993: "I needed to learn how to run, if that makes sense. My technique needed to be better...If I can increase my speed, I can increase my stock."

What kind of receiver he is: "I want to go deep, I want to go short, across the middle, to the corner, down the sidelines, everywhere. I don't want to be just a certain type of receiver. I want to be a threat everywhere...I'm always confident I can get open. I probably bug the heck out of (quarterback) Rob Johnson, letting him know."

Watching so much game film: "I feel if I can get an opponent's tendencies down, then more than likely I will be able to get an edge up on him by game time."

His famous 1990 TD catches at UCLA: "It really hasn't sunk in yet. I think it will later on when I'm done with football. When you're still playing, it's hard to put it in perspective...It was the biggest moment I've ever had in football. But it happened so early in my career. I want to do a lot of things in my career...I don't like to live off the past glories too much. I'll go back and remember those times when I'm out of college...I don't like talking about it that much. There's so much emphasis on those catches. Mine just happened to come at the right moment...People mention that game to me all of the time. I get tired of it because I think that's all people are going to remember me for. I don't want to go down being remembered for one game only. I have a lot I want to accomplish in my career. I think people will understand. I just expect a lot from myself."

Meeting Lynn Swann, his idol: "He talked to me about his philosophy of receiving. He told me that wherever the ball is, his attitude is that it belongs to the receiver and not the defender. He was the one who inspired me to be a receiver."

Why he chose USC: "I didn't really want to come to USC originally because I used to like UCLA and Washington. Then, when I was a senior in high school, one of my good friends led me here. And I found a good balance of athletics and academics, so I ended up a Trojan."

Being half Japanese American and half African American: "I don't even think about it. The only real advantage is that I really look big around my mom's side of the family."

WHAT OTHERS SAYS: USC safety Reggie Perry, a former Trojan quarterback: "Johnnie has those great hands and he had a knack for the ball. It was great to have that clutch receiver out there that you knew would come up with the catch no matter where the ball was."

GIDION MURRELL

Senior

1993: Murrell, a quick, tough senior inside linebacker who has started 11 times at USC (once last year) and has 119 career tackles, is listed as a backup (behind co-starters Shannon Jones and Joe Barry) this year. He missed 1993 spring practice while academically ineligible.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "I haven't seen Gidion on the field yet because he missed spring ball, but I'm excited about his ability and potential. He's a big guy who can run. And he'll hit you. He'll make a contribution to our defense this fall."

1992: As a junior, Murrell started the San Diego State opener at strongside inside linebacker, but was moved to No. 2 at that spot behind Jeff Kopp for the rest of 1992. Murrell still played a lot, getting 17 tackles (3 for losses), 3 deflections, and 1 forced fumble (at Arizona State). He had 4 tackles against Fresno State. After 1992 spring practice, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder to remove cartilage.

1991: Murrell started 7 games at the weakside inside linebacker position and did a solid job despite being hampered most of 1991 with injuries. A knee sprain suffered in the Memphis State opener slowed him in the following game against Penn State (he played, but didn't start; Brian Williams did) and then he sprained his right ankle in practice prior to the Oregon game and sat out that contest and Washington State. He played as Williams' backup in the following game (Stanford), then Gidion returned to the starting lineup for the Notre Dame game and the rest of the year. Despite all this, Murrell made 62 tackles (fourth on the team) overall, including 6 for losses of 28 yards (with 2 sacks). He also recovered a fumble (against Washington), forced another (against Penn State, which USC recovered to set up a TD), and deflected 2 passes. He had 9 stops against UCLA (a team high) and Notre Dame, and 8 against Arizona State and Arizona.

1990: In 1990 spring drills, Murrell was switched from tight end to inside linebacker and the move paid off in a big way. As just a redshirt freshman, he spent the first half of 1990 as the No. 2 strongside inside linebacker behind All-American Scott Ross and saw limited action. But when injuries hit the inside linebacker corps, Gidion took on a greater role, to the point where he started the last 3 regular season games (Oregon State, UCLA and Notre Dame) at the weakside spot for an injured Brian Tuliau and Matt Gee (Tuliau returned to start the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State). And Murrell was outstanding, getting a team-best 8 tackles at Oregon State, 5 at UCLA, and a game-high 10 versus Notre Dame (to share USC's Co-Defensive Player of the Game versus Notre Dame award with Ross). He also had a team-high 6 stops against Michigan State and 5 stops at Washington. Murrell also played on special teams. Overall, Murrell had 40 tackles (including 2 for losses) and 2 deflections, plus a fumble recovery and a forced fumble (both occurred on the opening kickoff against California, when he first stripped the ball from returner Russell White and then recovered it, setting up a USC TD).

1989: Murrell redshirted as a tight end in 1989, his first season at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Murrell earned All-CIF Division IV first team honors while playing tight end and linebacker as a senior in 1988 at Palm Springs (Calif.) High. He caught 33 passes for 521 yards (15.8 average) and 4 touchdowns, helping the Indians to a 9-2 record. He also had 130 tackles, 1 interception, 3 fumble recoveries, 9 forced fumbles, 13 pass deflections and 2 blocked kicks on defense in 1988. Murrell's other 1988 honors included California Football All-State second team, Super Prep All-Far West, L.A. Times All-Inland Empire first team, District MVP, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest.

He had 17 receptions for 337 yards (19.8 average) and 4 TDs as a junior in 1987, along with 64 tackles, 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery, 3 forced fumbles and 4 pass deflections at linebacker. He earned All-Ivy League honors in 1987. Murrell was an All-League first teamer in basketball as a senior and also competed in track.

PERSONAL: His nickname is "Batman," because of the way his shoulder pads ride high on his shoulders (giving him the look of the Caped Crusader) and the way he swoops in to make tackles, a la the crimefighting Batman. Actually, Murrell is the second Trojan linebacker to carry the Batman moniker; 3-time All-American Richard Wood (1972-74) also had that nickname. Gidion enjoys listening to music in his leisure time. His sports hero is Bo Jackson. He's a communications major at USC.

GIDION MURRELL ON: His nickname: "Sometimes the nickname bothers me, like when I don't perform at the level that I know I'm capable. In looking at the way Richard Wood played, I feel it's an honor to be called Batman, but when I don't perform at his level, it doesn't feel good to be called that name."

JASON OLIVER

Senior

1993: The senior Oliver, a veteran of USC's secondary who is looking to start for his fourth season, is listed as a co-starter with Jason Sehorn at a cornerback spot.

CAREER: Oliver has 9 career interceptions.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Jason competed well in the spring. With his experience and the competitiveness that he brings to our defense, he should have a very productive senior year."

1992: As a junior right cornerback in his third year as a starter, Oliver had 39 tackles (2 for losses), 5 deflections, a forced fumble (at Washington), a blocked field goal (versus Fresno State), and an interception (at Stanford) in 1992. He made a tackle in all 12 games (including at least 2 in 11 games). He had 7 stops against Fresno State. He broke up 3 passes against Arizona. Although he didn't start against Notre Dame (John Herpin did), Oliver did play. He had post-season arthroscopic surgery on his left knee. Jason missed part of 1992 spring practice because of an ankle sprain.

1991: Oliver--who started all of his 1991 sophomore season at run support cornerback--had a team-high 5 interceptions which he returned 11 yards (2.2 average), tied for third in the Pac-10 at 0.5 (tied for 22nd nationally). He also had 46 tackles (including a career-high and team-best 9 at California and 7 against UCLA) and a team-best 11 deflections (including 4 versus Stanford and 3 versus Stanford). He made Football News Sophomore All-American second team, All-Pac-10 honorable mention, and Football News Almost All-American. He picked off 3 passes against Penn State, 1 shy of the USC game record and the first time that happened since Cleveland Colter had 3 thefts against Stanford in 1987. Jason was named Sports Illustrated's national Defensive Player of the Week and the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week for his performance. His pick in USC's 34-27 win at Washington State came at the USC 3-yard line with 17 seconds to play as the Cougars were driving (the ball was snapped from the USC 34). He also had an interception in the fourth quarter against Washington to help shut out the then-No. 2 Huskies in the second half.

1990: As just a first-year freshman, Oliver started 5 of the last 7 games in 1990 (Arizona, Oregon State, UCLA, Notre Dame and the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State) at the run support cornerback spot after spending the first part of the season as a reserve at that position. He played exceptionally well...and did so despite some adversity. He made 18 tackles, deflected 3 passes, forced a fumble (at Stanford, as the receiver was about to score a TD, giving USC possession of the ball), and intercepted 3 passes (at Stanford in the end zone, at Oregon State, which he returned 66 yards for a TD, and the following week at UCLA, which he ran back 34 yards for another score). The last Trojan to return 2 thefts for TDs in a season was Joey Browner in 1982. The 66-yard return at Oregon State was the longest run with an interception by a Trojan since Colter went 94 yards for a TD at California in 1987.

That Oliver did all this as a true freshman was amazing, but the fact that he had to endure tragedy during the 1990 season made it even more remarkable. Both of his parents died within a 26-day span in mid-season, first his mother, Juanda, and then his father, Marvin, 2 days before Jason received his first starting assignment (Arizona). Oliver started against the Wildcats and made a season-high 4 tackles, then missed the following week's practice and the subsequent Arizona State game to attend his father's funeral. Jason was left with a 9-year-old brother, Clinton.

HIGH SCHOOL: An All-CIF Central Section honoree in 1989, Oliver led Bakersfield (Calif.) High to a 26-0 record (13-0 each season) and 2 CIF championships as a 2-year starter. The Drillers were 45-1 in Oliver's 4 years in high school. Jason played both sides of the line in 1989, as a wide receiver and cornerback. Offensively in 1989, he made 20 receptions for 318 yards (15.9 average) and 8 TDs. He also returned 2 punts and a kickoff for touchdowns while accounting for 983 all-purpose yards. Defensively, he amassed 56 tackles and 5 interceptions. His other 1989 honors included Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and California Football All-State second team. In the 1989 CIF championship game, he had 3 interceptions off of Robert Dougherty of Mt. Whitney High, the state's completion percentage record holder.

As a 1988 junior, he had 63 tackles, 6 interceptions and 2 TDs on defense, and 10 receptions for 290 yards and 3 TDs on offense. Oliver was also part of a CIF championship with the Drillers' basketball team (1989), which won 2 successive South Yosemite League titles. He won 1989 All-League honors for his basketball play.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

JASON OLIVER ON: Dealing with the tragic death of both parents: "After a game, you're excited. It's like with trophies or something. If you win something, you go tell your parents. Sometimes I feel real empty. But when I was on the field, I got away from reality. I was enjoying the game. When the game was over, I had to deal with reality again. It doesn't hurt quite as much now. Every now and then, you have a memory that reminds you of something you used to do. I don't think about it near as much as before. Usually, it's at family times of the year, like Thanksgiving or Christmas. If it's during the day, I get busy and try to do something else. If it's at night, I take the easy way out and go to sleep. The first question that comes to mind is 'Why?' That's when I start to get busy or go to sleep."

His traumatic freshman year: "It's kind of hard to believe. If everything hasn't happened, what else can happen?...There is always going to be a chip on my shoulder because I don't understand what happened. It makes me sad, but it makes me mad at the same time...I'm just a kid. But these days I don't feel much like a kid. I've never had so much responsibility dropped on my shoulders all at once."

REGGIE PERRY

Safety
Senior

1993: After making a name for himself as a quarterback at USC (he was the starter in 1991 and the backup in 1992), the athletic Perry hopes to take advantage of a noteworthy position switch in 1993 spring practice--to strong safety--to make an impact on defense. The senior is listed as a co-starter there with Mike Salmon. Making the conversion even more remarkable is the fact that Reggie missed a few days of 1993 spring drills to recover from a medical procedure done on his heart to correct an irregular heartbeat (a condition known as Wolff-Parkinson-White Syndrome).

CAREER: With 141 career completions, Perry is 15th on USC's all-time passing list.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "We're real pleased with Reggie and how he has taken so well to the change. He is a real competitor and has a great attitude. He has a lot of skills and is a smart player. And he's a guy who can hit you. He'll make an impact on our defense."

1992: As a junior, Perry served as Rob Johnson's backup in 1992. Reggie appeared in 6 contests (Oklahoma, Washington, Oregon, California, Washington State, and Stanford), completing 10-of-21 passes (47.6%) for 198 yards, 1 TD and 2 interceptions. He also ran for 7 yards and a TD on 19 carries (0.4 avg). He was 6-of-13 for 136 yards at Washington, including a 53-yard TD pass that flanker Curtis Conway pulled down even though a Husky defender tipped it (at the time, it was the longest pass at USC since Johnnie Morton caught a 77-yard TD against California in 1990). Reggie also was 2-of-4 against California (for 37 yards) and Stanford (for 25 yards). He took only 1 snap at Oklahoma, but made the most of it as he scored on a 2-yard option keeper on fourth down late in the game. He had a 24-yard scramble against Washington State and an 18-yarder at San Diego State.

1991: Although he came into his 1991 sophomore season with only 3 career snaps (and no pass attempts) under his belt and had to replace Todd Marinovich, USC's No. 2 career passer and an NFL first round draft pick, Perry started 10 of USC's 11 games at quarterback (he did not play at Arizona) and did a commendable job. He completed 131-of-255 aerials (51.4%) for 1,574 yards and 3 TDs, but threw 12 interceptions. The 131 completions put him 10th on USC's single season passing chart.

Against Stanford, he had his best day as a Trojan, going 22-of-33 for 201 yards, including 19-of-27 for 189 yards in the second half (12-of-15 for 122 yards in the fourth quarter alone). He upped his career pass yardage best the next week at Notre Dame, getting 222 yards on 20-of-35 passing (including 14-of-20 for 179 yards in the second half), despite playing most of the second half with a torn tendon in the little finger of his right (throwing) hand. Against UCLA, he threw for 2 TDs (13 yards to Curtis Conway and 6 yards to Yonnie Jackson) and 209 yards on 13-of-28 passing. He completed 14-of-29 passes for 196 yards versus Washington. His other scoring toss of 1991 came against Penn State (7 yards to Jackson), when he was 10-of-20 for 123 yards. In his other starts, Perry was 13-of-23 for 155 yards against Memphis State, 13-of-28 for 136 yards against Arizona State, 6-of-12 for 64 yards at Oregon, 7-of-21 for 104 yards at Washington State, and 13-of-16 for 165 yards at California. He was particularly effective passing in the second half of games, hitting 55.6% of his aerials (70-of-126) for 915 yards and just 3 picks. In his last 5 games of 1991 (Stanford, Notre Dame, California, Washington, UCLA), his second-half passing line read: 48-of-76 (63.2%) for 632 yards, 1 TD and no interceptions.

Reggie proved to be equally skilled at passing and running, in the mold of ex-Trojan Heisman Trophy runnerup Rodney Peete. Perry ran for 254 yards (with 5 TDs on 105 carries, a 2.4 average) in 1991, the most rushing yards by a Trojan quarterback since Jimmy Jones had 267 yards in 1971. (Troy Winslow is USC's most prolific rushing signalcaller with 319 yards in 1965; before 1953, Trojan quarterbacks were primarily runners operating out of the single wing.) Perry had 60 rushing yards in the Memphis State opener, the most by a Trojan quarterback since Shane Foley had 60 at Arizona State in 1990. In that Memphis State game, Perry ran for a 20-yard TD, the longest scoring run by a Trojan quarterback since Peete went 32 yards against Illinois in 1986. Reggie added 53 rushing yards at Washington State, 52 versus Penn State and 51 at Notre Dame. And his 35-yard run versus Penn State was the longest by a USC quarterback since Vince Evans went 36 yards against UCLA in 1976. Reggie's TDs came on short runs against Penn State, Stanford, California and UCLA. Perry's 1,828 yards of total offense ranked 16th on USC's single season list and he was fifth in the Pac-10 in total offense at 182.8.

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Perry spent 1990 as the No. 3 quarterback (with Pat O'Hara) behind starter Marinovich and backup Foley. Reggie appeared in just 1 game in 1990, late in the Oregon State contest, where he ran the ball once for 7 yards. He missed the last half of 1990 spring practice after dislocating his left elbow in a scrimmage.

1989: Although Perry redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, he served as the No. 3 quarterback behind Marinovich and Foley (he never was called into action).

HIGH SCHOOL: Perry was one of the most highly recruited quarterbacks in Texas after passing for 2,100 yards and running for another 1,140 yards in his 3-year prep career at Denison (Tex.) High. Despite missing 5 games as a 1988 senior with a broken foot, his honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, Super All-State second team, Dallas Morning News Texas Top 30, Fort Worth Star Telegram Texas Top 100 and was the top-rated quarterback in the Texas Blue Chip Prospects pre-season list. He helped Denison to a 12-2 record.

As a junior in 1987, he completed 65-of-132 passes (49.2%) for 912 yards and 3 touchdowns and rushed for another 715 yards with 5 TDs on 126 carries (5.7 average). He made USA Today All-USA honorable mention, All-State second team and District MVP as a junior. He also starred in basketball, baseball and track for the Yellowjackets.

An outstanding student, Reggie carried a 3.6 grade point average in high school and was an Academic All-American in 1987. He served as president of the National Honor Society chapter at Denison.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 335 pounds. His sports hero is Walter Payton. He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.81 GPA). He enjoys listening to classical music.

REGGIE PERRY ON: His philosophy: "I've worked hard at being a leader by being confident, mature and upbeat. I want my teammates to respect me, both on and off the field. I think I have the talent. I like having eyes on me and being given the opportunity to show what I can do. But my main motto is I love to have fun. I always try to keep an upbeat attitude. I smile so much that if I'm not smiling, the team will ask me what's wrong."

Being a backup quarterback in 1992 after starting in 1991: "I made a promise to myself that I was going to be the hoarsest person on the sideline. No matter what, I was involved. At halftime in the lockerroom, I was in a sweat."

Children: "I want to be a good example for little kids. Whenever I go home to Texas, I spend 75 percent of my time with the kids in the neighborhood. In the mornings, my doorbell will ring and there will be several kids at the door wanting to know if I can come out to play or if they can come in and watch TV with me. There's no better feeling than looking in a kid's face and seeing that you've made them happy. I spend time with these kids to show them that I'm not any different than they are."

His musical taste: "I love listening to classical music, especially anything by Mozart or Beethoven. I also learned to love opera after I started watching it on public TV. I don't understand the words, but the TV versions have the translations on the screen so I'm able to follow along. I've always wanted to see an opera in person or go to see musical plays in the theatre. That's one of the reasons why I left Denison and came to USC, to experience new and different things in the world."

His diet: "I'm a junk food nut. I eat anything that's bad for me. The greasier, the better. I'd rather go out and eat a hamburger and fries than eat a meal with vegetables."

His Texas drawl: "In practice in 1990, when I went into the huddle and called a play, everybody would laugh. They'd ask me to repeat it just so they could hear me talk again. Then they'd laugh some more."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC center David Apolskis: "If there is one person I'd love to see enjoy success, it's Reggie Perry. He is one of the nicest people I know, a genuine human being. He took so much negative in 1991, but he managed not to let it show."

MICAH PHILLIPS

6-0, 185
Sophomore

1993: A versatile young defensive back, the sophomore Phillips is listed as the backup strong safety behind co-starters Reggie Perry and Mike Salmon.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Micah had an outstanding spring, working at both strong safety and cornerback, and he was impressive at both spots. He'll be a productive contributor for us in 1993."

1992: One of only 4 first-year freshmen to see action in 1992, Phillips was a reserve cornerback who played on special teams. He made 2 tackles in 1992.

HIGH SCHOOL: Phillips was named a Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-Southwest Region, All-Dallas second team, All-District 10 5A first team, and team defensive MVP in 1991 at Kimball High in Dallas (Tex.). He had 103 tackles (68 unassisted), 4 sacks, 6 interceptions (including 4 in a game) and 5 fumble recoveries during his 1991 senior season. He led Kimball to a 10-1 record in 1991 and the District 10 5A championship. Kimball posted a 27-5 record during Phillips' final 3 years. A 4-year varsity letterman and 3-year starter, he played cornerback his first 3 seasons before moving to strong safety for his senior year. He picked off 11 interceptions during his 4-year career.

He collected 97 tackles, 3 sacks and 7 interceptions as a 1990 junior. He lettered 2 years in baseball (centerfield) as well, batting .374 his senior season. A fine student, Phillips was a 3-year All-City Academic selection.

PERSONAL: He benches 345 pounds.

KRIS POLLACK

Offensive Guard
Junior

1993: Pollack, a highly-capable junior who has started 14 times in his career, returns as the starter at right offensive guard. He missed the first half of 1993 spring practice while recovering from post-season shoulder surgery.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Kris is a proven player who will be one of the mainstays of our offensive line. The line is a key to our success offensively and he is a key to the line. He has lost some weight, he has recovered from the shoulder injury and is in great shape. I expect him to have a great season."

1992: Injuries limited Pollack, 1 of USC's top offensive linemen, to starting only 5 games (San Diego State, Oklahoma, Oregon, California, and Fresno State) and appearing in just 7 (Arizona and Notre Dame were the others) at right offensive guard as a sophomore in 1992. A sprained right ankle suffered in practice prior to the Washington game kept him out of that contest. He separated his right shoulder against California and missed the next 3 games (Washington State, Arizona State and Stanford). He then re-dislocated the shoulder when he returned as a backup to Robert Loya in the Arizona contest and missed the UCLA game. He played as Loya's backup against Notre Dame. He started the Freedom Bowl against Fresno State, but dislocated the shoulder once again. He had post-season surgery to repair the injury. He was versatile enough to play either of the guard spots and even at tackle.

1991: Pollack started--and was impressive in--9 games at offensive guard as a 1991 redshirt freshman: USC's first 4 at quick guard and the Trojans' final 5 at strong guard. He sprained his right knee at Oregon and was sidelined the following game (at Washington State), but returned for the next game (Stanford) to play some as Joel Crisman's backup at quick guard. When starting strong guard Derrick Deese suffered an elbow injury against Stanford, Pollack assumed Deese's spot in the lineup for the remaining games.

1990: Pollack did not play in 1990 as a first-year freshman. He spent the first part of the year as a reserve, but when injuries struck some of USC's backup offensive linemen, Kris moved up and served as the backup quick offensive guard behind Deese.

HIGH SCHOOL: During his 1989 senior season at Clovis West High in Fresno (Calif.), Pollack was named Blue Chip All-American third team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-Northern California, All-Central Section first team, and All-North Yosemite League (and NYL Outstanding Lineman). He was a 2-way tackle for the Golden Eagles. Current Trojan Ryan Tyiska also prepped at Clovis West.

Kris made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclassmen and All-North Yosemite League teams as a 1988 junior. Clovis was 15-5-1 during Kris' junior and senior seasons. At his size, Kris posed an interesting figure on the Clovis West high golf team, where he won All-League honors his junior year.

PERSONAL: Pollack is a public administration major at USC. He bench presses 340 pounds.

KYLE RAMSAY

Offensive Guard
Sophomore

1993: An up-and-coming young offensive lineman, the sophomore Ramsay is the backup right offensive guard (with Robert Loya) behind Kris Pollack.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Kyle is a young prospect who had a very good spring. He's a tough guy with excellent size and potential. He competes well. He's on track to becoming a very good player."

1992: As just a redshirt freshman in 1992, Ramsay was the No. 2 center behind Craig Gibson (he also could play offensive guard or tackle). He saw some playing time on the line and on special teams in 1992.

1991: Ramsay redshirted as a center in 1991, his first year at USC. By the end of the season, he had advanced to the No. 2 center behind Gibson (but Kyle never saw any action). After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left ankle.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Max Emfinger All-American first team selection from McKay High in Salem (Ore.), Ramsay was a key figure in McKay's offensive scheme. In one game as a senior, the McKay offense ran 12 consecutive rushing plays behind Ramsay to score the game-winning touchdown. While at McKay, Ramsay was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and Northwest Nugget and All-State.

He also played basketball at McKay. An excellent student (he maintained a 4.0 GPA in high school), he received an Academic Letter Award, was a member of the National Honor Society and was named Who's Who for outstanding academic achievement.

PERSONAL: His older brother, Kian, played on the Trojan offensive line from 1988-91 (a pinched neck nerve ended his career).

DONOVAN ROY

Offensive Tackle

1993: A big sophomore, Roy is a reserve right offensive tackle. He missed 1993 spring practice to concentrate on his academics.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Donovan has tremendous potential because of his great size and athletic ability. He's continuing to mature. We haven't seen him on the field because he missed spring practice, so we're looking forward to seeing what he can do."

1991: Roy redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A member of the 1990 CIF Division X championship team at Montclair Prep in Van Nuys (Calif.), Roy was the main reason Mountie backs rushed for over 6,500 yards his last 2 seasons there. As a 1990 2-way senior lineman, Roy had a 90% blocking grade on offense and made 56 tackles (35 solo), 6 sacks and 5 fumble recoveries on defense. He was named to the 1990 Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools (2-A Division) first team, All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Daily News All-Valley first team and All-Alpha League first team. Montclair Prep was 22-4 in Roy's final 2 seasons.

Donovan also played basketball and volleyball at Montclair Prep.

MIKE SALMON

Safety
Senior

1993: Salmon, a talented, consistent senior who started most of 1992 at outside linebacker after opening the season at strong safety, was moved back to safety in 1993 spring practice. Likely to start for his third year, he's listed as a co-starter at both strong safety (with Reggie Perry) and free safety (with Jason Sehorn). He also might be the holder on all placekicks. Mike missed 1993 spring practice while playing for the Trojan baseball team.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "We're excited about Mike. He's smart, experienced, has a good sense for the ball, and is very consistent."

1992: As a junior, Salmon started the San Diego State opener at strong safety, then spent the rest of 1992 as the starting strongside outside linebacker (akin to a rover). He made 51 tackles (10 were for losses of 48 yards, including 5 sacks for minus 35 yards). He also deflected 2 passes, recovered a fumble (late in the Arizona game) and forced a fumble against California to set up a field goal). He had 7 tackles against Washington and Arizona State, and 6 stops at UCLA. He was also the No. 2 holder on all placekicks (behind Smith), but wasn't called upon in that role in 1992.

1991: Salmon started all of his 1991 sophomore season at free safety and recorded 72 tackles (third on the team), 2 interceptions which he returned 4 yards (at Washington State and Notre Dame), 5 pass deflections, a fumble recovery (at Washington State, which set up a TD), and 2 forced fumbles (against Penn State, which set up a TD, and at Oregon, which set up a field goal). He led USC in tackles against Penn State (11) and California (9), and also had 9 stops versus Memphis State and 8 at Arizona. He also was the holder on all placekicks and performed the job flawlessly. In 1991 spring practice, Mike was moved to free safety from run support cornerback.

1990: Salmon, as just a redshirt freshman, benefitted from a position switch in the spring of 1990 which saw him go from split end to free safety to, in the 1990 pre-season, run support cornerback. Although he spent the final 4 games of 1990 backing up Jason Oliver at cornerback, Mike started 7 mid-season contests (Penn State, Washington, Ohio State, Washington State, Stanford, Arizona State, and California). He also played on many special teams. Overall, he had 45 tackles (including 1 for a loss), 5 deflections, a forced fumble (against Penn State, which set up a field goal), and 4 interceptions (tied with Pace for tops at USC and tied for ninth in the Pac-10 at 0.3) which he returned 27 yards. Two of his picks came in his hometown at Arizona State (1 near the goal line on a great over-the-shoulder grab and 1 to set up a field goal), while 1 was against Washington State on another over-the-shoulder catch and the other was a diving clutch in the end zone at Oregon State. He had 6 tackles at both Ohio State and Oregon State. He had a tackle in 12 of USC's 13 games. He was named a Football News Freshman All-American second teamer.

1989: Salmon redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, as a split end.

BASEBALL: Salmon was a backup outfielder for the 1993 USC baseball team. He hit .280 with 14 hits, 4 runs scored and 7 RBI in 50 at-bats while appearing in 33 games (he started 9 times). He was a reserve outfielder in the springs of 1992, 1991 and 1990 before quitting the team to concentrate on spring football drills. In 1992, he appeared briefly in 2 games, but didn't get an at-bat. In 1991, he didn't get a hit in 2 at-bats, but scored once. In 1990, he appeared in 5 games (starting once), getting no hits in 6 at-bats, but scoring 3 runs, getting 1 RBI, and stealing 2 bases in 2 attempts.

HIGH SCHOOL: The 1988 Arizona Big School Player of the Year, Salmon was a record-setting, do-it-all athlete while at Greenway High in Phoenix (Ariz). He played receiver, running back, defensive back, return specialist, placekicker and punter while at Greenway. As a senior in 1988, he caught 31 passes for 485 yards (15.6 average), rushed for 574 yards on 67 carries (8.6 average) and scored 13 touchdowns on offense. He also hit 8-of-10 field goals, including a 49-yarder (he once kicked a 67-yarder in practice), and converted 35 PATs as a placekicker, and averaged 40.1 yards per punt. Including a TD on an interception return, Salmon scored 137 points in 1988. He also averaged 29.3 yards per kickoff return and 12.0 per punt return in 1988. He even passed for 187 yards and 2 scores on halfback options as a senior. Defensively, Salmon had 108 tackles, 10 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and 4 forced fumbles in 1988. His other 1988 football honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, and All-Skyline Division at 3 positions. In 2 games as a senior, Salmon passed for 2 TDs, caught a 31-yard scoring pass, kicked 2 field goals (including the 47-yarder), intercepted 2 passes and kicked 4 PATs--all in the first half. His 18 career interceptions are an Arizona prep record.

He earned All-Skyline Division honors on offense and defense as a junior in 1987, despite missing some games because of a broken ankle (he did play 5 games with it).

Salmon was also a 2-year starter in basketball (he averaged 10 points) and an All-Skyline Division pick in baseball (he hit .405 as a junior in 1988 and was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies). He was the USA Today and Arizona Republic state Athlete of the Year.

PERSONAL: Salmon likes to water ski and play tennis in his spare time. His sports hero is Chuck Cecil. His brother, Tim, is an outfielder for the California Angels. Mike's cousin is actress Holly Hunter. He's a communications major at USC.

MIKE SALMON ON: Athletes' stereotypes: "I'd like to shed the image of the dumb jock. We're not just the 'mean, lean fighting machine.' A lot of people might think it's weird that I read about world news or sit up late at night watching CNN News."

His brother Tim: "He did everything for me and stayed on me the way a father would. Really, he made me the person I am today...It's funny, but growing up, Tim was more or less the football player and I was the baseball player. Somewhere we had a role reversal...Tim recommended that I not sign a baseball contract. He was actually my biggest recruiter at USC...He wouldn't let me quit football. It was almost like I had to live out his dream."

A boyhood collecting hobby: "I used to collect all sorts of Arizona State football gear. My older brother, Tim, and I used to go to all the Sun Devil games and stand above the tunnel. When the players would run by, we would yell at them and ask them to give us something. We collected chin straps, wrist bands, elbow pads, water cups, decals, anything that said 'Sun Devil Football' on it."

Playing on the USC scout team in 1989: "I'll never forget those days. We were going to play Ohio State, so I was impersonating tailback Carlos Snow. The coaches are riled up, they want us to beat Ohio State, so I'm getting chased down and hit by Junior Seau, Dan Owens, Tim Ryan. I mean, I can remember getting gang tackled by the first four rounds of the NFL draft. It was crazy. At the time I kept telling myself, 'It's not going to be a fun year.' I kept telling myself that I'd be glad that I did it. I was really discouraged all that year. I began not liking football. I see guys going through it now and I make it a point to bring up their spirits, because it's the worst."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Older brother Tim Salmon: "I know I've really pushed him. I used to have this genuine-leather NFL football and I'd throw it to him all day long on the street. Whenever he dropped a pass, I'd scream at him because I didn't want him scuffing up the ball."

JASON SEHORN

Safety-Cornerback
Senior

1993: Versatile senior Sehorn, who was impressive at safety as a junior college transfer last fall after being switched from wide receiver, returns to the secondary as a starter, where he is listed as a co-starter at both free safety (his 1992 position) with Mike Salmon and at cornerback with Jason Oliver. He might also return kicks and punts in 1993.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Jason made great progress in the spring. He has great closing speed, outstanding quickness, and he covers a lot of ground. He's a very aggressive player, sometimes a bit too much for the secondary. And he's capable of playing safety or cornerback."

1992: Sehorn came to USC in the fall of 1992 as a J.C. All-American receiver, but was moved to safety the first day of practice and adapted to defense so well that he won All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors as a junior. After opening the coaches' eyes as the backup free safety in the San Diego State opener (he had an interception that set up a TD, plus 2 tackles in brief duty), he was moved into the starting lineup there for the Oklahoma game and held the job all of 1992. He was second on the team in tackles (80, including 2 for losses), led the Trojans in deflections (10), and shared the team lead in interceptions (3, including 2 versus Arizona) and fumble recoveries (2, against Washington and Washington State). He also forced a fumble (at UCLA). He topped USC in tackles against UCLA (12), Stanford (11), Fresno State (10), and California (9). He added 7 stops against Washington State and Arizona, and 6 against Washington, Arizona State and Notre Dame. He also fielded a short punt at Washington and returned it 2 yards.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Sehorn's 1991 honors included Max Emfinger J.C. All-American, Blue Chip J.C. All-American, Super Prep JUCO 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and All-Golden Valley League first team (and Offensive MVP) while at Shasta Community College in Redding (Calif.). As a 1991 sophomore, he had 2,404 all-purpose yards (a national-record 267.1 average per game), the best-ever by a California J.C. non-back: 56 catches for 1,020 yards (18.2 average per catch, 113.3 per game) with 14 TDs, 36 carries for 196 yards (5.4 average) and 2 TDs, and 59 returns for 1,188 yards and 1 TD. He owns the national career J.C. record for all-purpose yards (4,308) and the state career record for average all-purpose yards per game (239.0). He had a national-record 506 all-purpose yards with 4 TDs in one game and returned a kickoff 100 yards for a TD in another. He played occasionally at safety, usually late in games when Shasta was in prevent defenses.

In 1990, he made J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and All-Golden Valley League first team with 59 catches for 1,033 yards (17.5 average) and 17 TDs, all school records. He had 1,904 all-purpose yards. He also rushed for 119 yards on 19 carries (6.2 average). In one game, he had 5 TDs and 189 yards on only 5 catches. He was coached at Shasta by ex-USC assistant Ron Ponciano.

He also was on Shasta's basketball (averaging 12.0 points) and track (a school-record 48-1 in the triple jump) teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: He played football only his senior year at Mount Shasta (Calif.) High, earning league MVP honors. At Mount Shasta, he also starred in basketball (averaging 12.9 points) and track (48-0 triple jump). Despite having played only 1 season of American Legion baseball, he signed a baseball contract with the Chicago Cubs in 1988 and played 2 seasons (1988 and 1989) in their minor league system (in the Instructional League in Arizona and in the Appalachian League in Huntington, W. Virg.).

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC.

JASON SEHORN ON: The transition from receiver to defensive back: "When I came here, I knew they had lots of great receivers, but only a few safeties. I knew I had a lot better chance of playing right away on defense. The coaches didn't pressure me to switch. They said I could stay at receiver and that I would see some action there. But they also said I would probably get a lot more playing time on defense...I had to learn how to backpedal, crossover, everything. On top of that, I had to learn defenses. Those first couple of weeks were a struggle. It took a while. It was like being a freshman all over again...I was like a receiver making tackles. I didn't have all the fundamentals down. I mostly knew what to do, but it was a matter of doing it...The most frustrating thing was not knowing exactly what to do at every moment. I knew all of the formations, but when the play happened, sometimes I just felt kind of lost out there...I played well in 1992, considering I'd never tackled anybody in my life before. I know there's room for improvement. I missed a lot of tackles and I've got to cure that...I don't anticipate being a receiver again, not after seeing what defensive backs can do to a receiver. We're not going all out to kill anybody, but the hits you see, I don't want to be a receiver anymore."

Playing minor league baseball: "I did okay. I played the outfield well, I could run and steal bases. But I struggled at the plate...I didn't even know what a slider was. I didn't know a whole lot about the game...Baseball's not a lot of fun for me. When I was playing baseball, I looked forward to August and football more than anything. Baseball just gets repetitive...I got bored playing every day. I'd come to the dugout hoping my name wasn't in the lineup."

Playing different sports: "My athletic career has taken some interesting turns, that much is certainly true. It's been an interesting, winding road...I don't waste time with things I can't excel at. I don't want to be average. I want to be up there at the top."

KEITH SISCEL

Senior

1993: Plagued by shoulder injuries throughout his Trojan career, Siscel is a senior reserve left offensive tackle who has yet to see action. He missed 1993 spring practice while recuperating from 1992 shoulder surgery.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Keith has been injured and we haven't been able to really evaluate him as a player. I know he's a smart player and really wants to get back on the field."

1991: Siscel, a reserve offensive tackle, missed all of his 1991 sophomore season recuperating from 1991 summer surgery to repair a dislocating right shoulder, his second such operation at USC. He missed 1991 spring practice because of the injury.

1988: Siscel actually signed with USC in 1988, but did not qualify academically, so he elected to attend Solano Community College in Suisun (Calif.) that year as a part-time student. He didn't play any football there. He improved his grades and entered USC in the fall of 1989 as a first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: Siscel was 1 of the top offensive linemen in Northern California in 1987 as a senior at Vacaville (Calif.) High. He was named All-Northern California, California Football All-State second team, Super Prep All-Far West, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits honorable mention, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-Superior California and All-Montecello Empire League in 1987.

A 3-year starter, he consistently received blocking grades of 80-90% during his prep career. Keith earned All-Superior California and All-League first team honors as a junior in 1986 and was second team All-League as a sophomore in 1985. Vacaville was 24-9-1 in the 3 years Siscel was in the lineup and advanced to the Sac-Joaquin section finals in 1985. Current Trojan Scott Whitehouse also prepped at Vacaville.

Siscel also participated in track in high school, winning the Montecello Empire League title in the shot put as a senior. He played basketball as a freshman and sophomore.

PERSONAL: He likes to golf in his free time. His sports hero is Howie Long. Keith is a public administration major at USC.

ERROL SMALL

Outside Linebacker
Junior

1993: A junior who is tough against the pass, Small is listed No. 2 at an outside linebacker spot (with Gerald Caruthers) behind Brian Williams.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Errol had an impressive spring. As he gains physical strength, he'll be a big contributor for us, particularly on passing downs."

1992: As a sophomore reserve outside linebacker, Small didn't see action in 1992. Prior to 1992 spring practice, which he missed while recovering from 1991 knee surgery, Small was moved from safety to outside linebacker. After the 1992 season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left knee.

1990: Small redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC. He dislocated his right shoulder in practice prior to the John Hancock Bowl and had surgery, which kept him out of most of 1991 spring drills.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Blue Chip All-American second team selection, Small enjoyed a star-studded career as a safety and running back at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks (Calif.). Offensively in 1989, he rushed for 1,567 yards (7.7 average), collecting 21 touchdowns, while on defense he posted 67 tackles with 7 interceptions. He also averaged 12.9 yards on 10 punt returns. Further 1989 honors included Super Prep All-Far West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Blue Chip All-Western Region, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-CIF Division VII first team (as a running back), Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team (as a defensive back) and San Fernando Valley League MVP. In his senior year, Small registered touchdown runs of 89 (twice) 60, 57 and 35 yards. Against Alemany High, he rushed for 213 yards on 14 carries (15.2 average), scored 3 touchdowns (on runs of 89, 57 and 7 yards), snared 2 interceptions and forced 2 fumbles. He also played fullback and outside linebacker.

As a junior in 1988, Small rushed for 557 yards on 64 carries (8.7 average) and recorded 10 TDs. He led Notre Dame to a 19-4 record and 2 San Fernando Valley League titles (1988 and 1989). He lettered in basketball through his junior year.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

JOHN STONEHOUSE

1993: Stonehouse, a sophomore known for getting good hang time, returns as USC's punter after a record-setting 1992 campaign. He'll also serve as a backup placekicker (with Martin Boskovich) behind Cole Ford.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "John has a chance to develop into one of the best punters ever at USC. He got great experience as a freshman and performed well. If he improves on his consistency and hang time, he'll be remembered for a long time."

1992: One of just 4 first-year freshmen to play in 1992, Stonehouse was USC's punter all season and was named to USA Today's national "Fabulous True Freshmen" first team and Football News' Freshman All-American second team. He averaged 38.7 yards while setting USC season records for most punts (80) and yards punted (3,099). Only 31 of his punts were returned and for just a 3.8 average. Fourteen of his boots pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line. Five of his punts went 50-plus yards, including a 59-yarder against Washington State and a 57-yarder against Fresno State to tie a Freedom Bowl distance record. John also was the backup placekicker behind Ford, but was never called upon in that role.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 3-year starter at Loyola High in Los Angeles, Stonehouse made 1991 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the West honorable mention, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, and Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team as a punter. He averaged 43.6 yards on 41 punts in 1991, including 9 of 52-plus yards. He posted a 40-yard career average.

John averaged 42.8 yards as a 1990 junior and once had 3 50-plus yard punts in a game. He made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team, and All-Angelus League first team in 1990. He also hit 50-yard field goals in 1990 and 1989. His coach at Loyola was ex-Trojan tailback Steve Grady, while current USC graduate assistant coach Jeff Kearin also was an assistant at Loyola. He was a prep teammate of current Trojan Matt Butkus.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 310 pounds. His brother, Paul, was Stanford's punter from 1989 to 1992. His father attended UCLA and his mother went to USC.

DEON STROTHER

Senior

1993: USC's most experienced runner (6 starts and 767 yards in his career), Strother--a hard-charging, elusive senior who can catch and throw as well as he can run--was moved in 1993 spring practice from tailback to fullback. He has the inside track at starting there in 1993 (going into the fall, he is listed as a co-starter with Rory Brown and Kevin Clark).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Deon is versatile. He reminds me size-wise of Marcus Allen and Manfred Moore, tailbacks who played some fullback during their USC days. A fullback doesn't necessarily have to be big to be a good blocker. The quicker player who gets to the target and strikes can be a better blocker than a big guy. Deon does that. He's very competitive, is smart and is a good leader. He can run the ball well. And he catches the ball well."

1992: Injuries hampered Strother's 1992 junior season, but when he was healthy (he played in 5 games), he proved to be an effective tailback. He sprained his left ankle in pre-season drills and was sidelined for USC's first 4 games (San Diego State, Oklahoma, Washington and Oregon). He suited up for the California (he didn't play) and Washington State games, then re-sprained the ankle at Arizona State and missed the following contest (Stanford). He played against Arizona and UCLA, started the Notre Dame game, and played against Fresno State. Overall, he ran for 42 yards and 2 TDs on 20 carries (2.1 avg) and caught 10 passes for 86 yards (8.6 avg). Against Arizona, Strother took a pitch midway through the fourth quarter from quarterback Rob Johnson, swept right, stopped, and lofted a 3-yard pass back to Johnson, who outjumped a Wildcat defender for the game-winning TD. It was the second TD pass in Strother's career (he had one at Washington State in 1991). Against Notre Dame game, he ran for 38 yards on 12 carries, including a 1-yard TD (he also caught 4 passes for 36 yards). He made his only carry against Fresno State count as he plunged in for a 1-yard TD to open the Freedom Bowl's scoring. After the 1992 season , he had arthroscopic surgery on his right knee.

1991: Strother was a 5-game starter (Penn State, Notre Dame, California, Washington, and Arizona) at tailback as a 1991 sophomore and ended up with a team-best 614 rushing yards and 7 TDs on 129 carries (4.8 average). As the starter at California--near his Oakland home--he had a career-high 153 yards and 2 TDs on 17 carries, including a 92-yard TD run (the fourth longest run in USC history and just 2 yards short of the school record). That 92-yard jaunt, the longest run in the Pac-10 in 1991, won him USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award. He notched the first 100-yard game of his career when he ran for a game-high 122 yards with a TD on 22 carries at Washington State, all in the second half while filling in for an injured Mazio Royster. Deon also threw a tricky 28-yard TD pass in that game to Larry Wallace. Going into the Washington State game, Strother had just 151 rushing yards in 1991 after collecting only 111 yards in 1990. He also started the Penn State game (his first career start) when Royster was sidelined with a knee injury and Strother ran for 67 yards and a TD on 20 attempts. Deon also led Troy in rushing versus Stanford, getting 45 yards and 2 fourth-quarter TDs on 11 carries, and--while starting--both at Notre Dame, with 83 yards (including a 29-yard TD) on 18 carries, and versus Washington, with 40 yards on 14 attempts. He appeared in all 11 of USC's games, serving as the No. 2 tailback when not starting. For all this, he was named a Football News Almost All-American.

1990: As a first-year freshman, Strother saw his first action of 1990 at Arizona State (game 8) and was Royster's backup at tailback after that. Deon played in 3 games, at Arizona State (49 yards on 7 second-half carries, including a 14-yard run on his first carry as a Trojan), at Oregon State (59 yards on 12 carries, including a 1-yard TD), and in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State (3 yards on 1 carry, plus 2 yards on 1 reception). Overall, he had 111 yards on 20 carries (5.6 average) and 1 TD, plus 1 catch for 2 yards (2.0 average).

HIGH SCHOOL: Strother was named a 1989 Tom Lemming All-American after rushing for 1,345 yards and 19 TDs on 195 carries (6.7 average) in 1989 at Skyline High in Oakland (Calif.). The 1989 San Francisco Examiner Bay Area Player of the Year, he also had 12 catches for 274 yards (22.8 average) and 3 TDs. He scored 5 touchdowns in a game as a senior. Additional senior year honors included Blue Chip All-American third team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Max Emfinger All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-Northern California, All-Bay Area first team, East Bay Player of the Year, and Oakland Athletic League Player of the Year. A 3-year starter at tailback and linebacker, Strother had 110 tackles, 8 sacks and a blocked punt on defense in 1989.

As a junior in 1988, he rushed for 1,222 yards and 16 TDs on 160 carries (7.6 average), and caught 11 passes for 162 yards (14.7 average) and 4 scores. He also notched 9 sacks on defense. In 1 game as a junior, Strother scored 3 TDs and posted 16 tackles (including 5 sacks).

A 3-time All-City performer, he rushed for 759 yards and 8 TDs (including 211 yards and 3 TDs in 1 game) and collected 56 tackles as a sophomore in 1987.

Strother also lettered 3 years in basketball and 1 year in track. An excellent student, Deon was named the 1989 Oakland Tribune Scholar Athlete of the Year and National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Northern California Scholar Athlete. He was the student body vice president at Skyline and was a member of the California Scholastic Federation.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 330 pounds. He's majoring in business at USC. He was born in Saginaw, Mich.

DEON STROTHER ON: Playing fullback: "Initially, of course, there's that resistance: 'fullback, oh, uh oh.' But then you realize you want to play and will play wherever...I look at it like this, it's only making me more well-rounded as a runner, a more complete runner. I know one of the keys besides running is blocking and you really have to know how to block. The main difference now is sometimes I'm seeing a tenacious, dominant attitude in my play. Being at fullback has really allowed me to let go with that side and, hey, it feels good. You don't have to touch the ball to have fun. At fullback, you're going for that collision...It'll be some tough yardage now. You put your head down and go for it. But if I do break the line and there is nobody there, I could be on the safety and he's surprised."

Passing: "I got more pleasure out of throwing that first touchdown pass (at Washington State in 1991) than any I've scored on the ground in my career. I have always wished for a chance to throw the football. I've always been fascinated by watching quarterbacks. I don't know how they are able to run around, avoid tackles, find the receiver and then hit the guy right on the chest with the ball. For the last couple of years, I used to work on my passing on my own. I would ask the quarterbacks how to hold the ball right. And I would practice my technique whenever I would throw the ball back to the team manager after I'd run a play."

GREG TELLAM

Freshman

1993: A young player with promise, Tellam is a redshirt freshman reserve outside linebacker.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Greg is a good, young prospect with a bright future. He's aggressive and a quick learner. He could be a key special teams contributor this year."

1992: Tellam redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a senior middle linebacker in 1991 at Sabino High in Tucson (Ariz.), Tellam had 155 tackles, including 71 unassisted tackles and 4 sacks. As a result, he won Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-State first team, All-Sonoran League first team, and team MVP honors. He led the Sabercats to a 7-3 record in 1991.

Greg made 162 tackles as an outside linebacker during his 1990 junior season while leading Sabino to the state 4A title with a 14-0 record and a No. 17 ranking in the final USA Today poll. He collected 19 tackles in the state championship game against Peoria (Ariz.) High. He also had 19 tackles and an interception in the state semifinal game against Glendale (Ariz.) Catcus High. He was a prep teammate of current Trojan Cole Ford. He also lettered in Sabino's track program (shot put). He was involved in the Arizona D.A.R.E. program and spoke at numerous grade schools throughout the Tucson area.

JASON UHL

Nose Tackle
6-3, 270
Senior

1993: A veteran, solid performer, Uhl is the No. 2 nose tackle (with Matt Keneley) behind Mike Hinz.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Jason is a solid, consistent senior who gets everything he's got out of his talent and abilities. He has an excellent work ethic. He'll definitely contribute this fall."

1992: Uhl spent the last half of his 1992 junior season as the No. 2 defensive guard behind Shannon Jones after serving as a reserve there earlier in the season. He saw limited action and didn't make a tackle.

1991: Uhl started 2 games (California and Washington) at nose guard for an injured Hinz. The rest of the season, he was the often-used (especially in pass-rushing situations) backup there, at defensive guard (behind Terry McDaniels and then Matt Willig), and on special teams. Overall in 1991 as a sophomore while appearing in all 11 of USC's games, he made 9 tackles (including 1 for a 2-yard loss). He had 3 stops each against Arizona State, California and Washington. But the highlight of his season was in the Oregon game, when he snagged one-handed a point-blank pass by Duck quarterback Danny O'Neil (Jason's former high school teammate) and ran the fourth-quarter interception 30 yards for a TD. Uhl also returned 2 short kickoffs (against Stanford and UCLA) 21 yards.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Uhl was the backup defensive guard behind Don Gibson and saw limited action in 1990. He appeared in 6 games (Syracuse, Ohio State, California, Oregon State, UCLA, Notre Dame), mostly in pass rushing situations. Jason had 5 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He missed part of 1990 spring drills with a hyperextended left elbow.

1989: Uhl redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Uhl was a standout defensive lineman as a senior in 1988 at Mater Dei High in Sana Ana (Calif.), despite playing most of the season with an injured shoulder. He had 50 tackles, 12 sacks, 5 forced fumbles, 4 pass deflections and 2 fumble recoveries in 1988. He made All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Super Prep All-Far West, L.A. Herald-Examiner All-Southern California, Top 25 and pre-season Super 11 honorable mention, L.A. KYLE WACHHOLTZ

1993: Wachholtz, a rifle-armed sophomore in the mold of a prototype quarterback, is the backup quarterback behind Rob Johnson, but is good enough to start. He has loads of potential, some of which he exhibited in brief appearances in 1992.

MIKE RILEY SAYS: "Although a sore arm hampered him during some of spring practice, Kyle improved and showed us he can play at a very high level. He is a very natural athlete. In everything he does, he looks like a quarterback. He's very smooth and is a natural thrower. It's fun to watch him throw. And being tall helps at that position. As he learns more about quarterbacking and gets a better grasp of our offense, he'll really blossom."

1992: As a redshirt freshman in 1992, Wachholtz was a backup quarterback (with Reggie Perry) behind Johnson. Although he appeared in only 3 games, he was very impressive in those outings. In a pressure-filled game at Washington, Kyle got his first action as a Trojan midway through the fourth quarter with USC trailing just 17-10. He drove a stalled USC offense to the Husky 28 before his pass was picked off in the endzone with 1:32 to play. He was 3-of-6 in that game for 31 yards. Against California, he guided USC on its decisive scoring drives (USC overcame an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit to win, 27-24). He was 3-of-4 for 23 yards against the Bears. In both the Washington and California games, he replaced Perry, who had stepped in for an injured Johnson. Wachholtz also appeared versus Oregon, but didn't throw a pass. Overall, Wachholtz was 6-of-10 (60.0%) for 54 yards with 1 interception. He tore a stomach muscle in practice prior to the Stanford game and missed that contest.

HIGH SCHOOL: Wachholtz completed 116-of-198 (58.6%) passes for 1,868 yards and 20 TDs as a senior at Norco High in Corona (Calif.) and was named 1990 Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division V first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-County and Mountain View League Offensive MVP. He led Norco to a 12-2 record, the Mountain View League championship and an appearance in the CIF Division V championship game.

As a junior in 1989, Kyle completed 93-of-203 (45.8%) passes for 1,418 yards and 11 TDs and led Norco to a 12-1 record and the CIF Division V semifinals. He was 33-of-68 (48.5%) passing for 581 yards and 5 TDs as a 1988 sophomore.

He also lettered 2 years in baseball (he made the All-Mountain View League team as a senior and was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays) and basketball (he was named to the Riverside Press-Enterprise All-County second team as a senior) at Norco.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. His uncle, Larry Wachholtz, was an All-American defensive back at Nebraska in 1966.

KYLE WACHHOLTZ ON: His first action as a Trojan: "I was nervous when they told me I'd go in because I didn't expect it. But once I got going, I really felt like we were going to go in and score...After that, I had confidence that I could play college football. You wonder if you can play at this level coming out of high school...My parents were watching the (1992) Washington game live on TV. All of a sudden, there I was in the shotgun. My mom jumped up over the table to get to the VCR. They hadn't been taping the game to that point. She tried to turn it on, but the picture got all fuzzy and snowy. While she was trying to get it to work right, they missed my first pass (a 25-yard completion to Curtis Conway). They had to tape the game later when it was replayed."

His first year at USC, 1991: "I was lost. I had no idea. All this was new to me...It was frustrating. When I was a true freshman, I couldn't even walk up to the line and make any calls. I was afraid to make a mistake. I had no self-confidence...It was hard. Two quarterbacks were ahead of me, so it was a longshot that I'd get a chance to play."

BIGTHEBELLY on Archive.org

1993: Walters, a redshirt freshman who has the size and speed to be an outstanding runner, is listed as a backup tailback (with Scott Fields and David Dotson) behind Dwight McFadden. He might also return kicks and punts in 1993.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Shawn got his weight down and had a very good spring. He has some speed and some size. He's trying to change from being a breakaway back to being a physical back. If he does, he'll be a successful runner."

1992: Walters redshirted as a tailback in 1992, his first season at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: After leading Lamar High in Arlington (Tex.) to a 12-1 record and the regional semifinals in 1991, Walters was named Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American second team, Dallas Morning News All-Dallas first team, and All-Tarrant County Offensive Player of the Year. He rushed for 2,091 yards on 314 carries (6.7 average) and 30 TDs. In 1990, he was USA Today All-USA honorable mention, All-State, All-District, and Dallas Morning News All-Dallas first team. Lamar was 26-2 in 2 years with Walters at running back.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 305 pounds.

BRIAN WILLIAMS

Outside Linebacker
6-2, 230
Junior

1993: In USC's new defensive formation, Williams--a super-quick junior who topped Troy in tackles last fall--has been moved to a starting outside linebacker spot in 1993 spring practice after starting at inside linebacker in 1992. Watch for him to continue to make an impact there.

DON LINDSEY SAYS: "Brian is a threat as a blitzer or as a coverage man. He defends the run well as long as he doesn't try to get too fancy. I think he's just an outstanding player."

RICKY HUNLEY SAYS: "Brian is a pure talent. He's got good size, he's got good speed. He can cover the field from sideline to sideline. He's a pursuer. With his elusiveness, he's able to escape blockers and run by people. He can cover backs out of the backfield; he can cover wide receivers down the field."

1992: USC's tackle leader as just a sophomore, Williams posted 91 stops in 1992 from his starting weakside inside linebacker spot. Some 13 of his tackles were for losses of minus 33 yards (including 3 sacks). He tied for the team lead in forced fumbles (3, against California to set up a TD, Washington State, and Arizona State). He also had an interception (late in the California game to help seal USC's win) and a deflection. He led USC in tackles against Stanford (11), San Diego State (9), Notre Dame (8), and Oklahoma (7). He also had 10 tackles at Arizona State, 9 against Oregon and Fresno State, and 8 against Washington and California. He made the Football News Sophomore All-American third team.

1991: Williams started more games (4) than any of the 5 first-year freshmen who saw action in 1991. As a weakside inside linebacker, he started against Penn State, Oregon, Washington State and Stanford, and served as Gidion Murrell's backup the rest of the year (he did not appear in the Memphis State opener). Brian made 34 tackles in 1991, including 3 for 14 yards in losses (with a sack), and had 2 pass deflections. He had a team-high 11 tackles at Oregon and 7 against UCLA. He also played on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: Williams led Bishop Dunne High in Dallas (Tex.) to a perfect 12-0 record and the 1990 state 3-A championship as both a linebacker and running back. As a senior that year, he collected 143 tackles, 6 sacks, 17 forced fumbles, 6 fumble recoveries (4 for TDs) and 4 interceptions. His 1990 honors included Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Southwest, Tom Lemming All-Southwest, Dallas Times Herald Top 25, Houston Chronicle Nifty 50, Houston Post Top 100, All-District II and League Defensive Player of the Year. As a running back in the 1990 state semifinal game, he gained 144 yards rushing on just 7 carries and scored 2 TDs. In the state championship game, he rushed for 126 yards on 7 carries and had 2 touchdowns (1 rushing and another receiving).

As a 1989 junior, he posted 117 tackles, 5 interceptions and 4 fumble recoveries. He was named All-State, All-District and was League Defensive Player of the Year as the Falcons went 8-3-1 and finished the season as the state 3-A runnerup. As a 1988 sophomore, Brian was a member of Bishop Dunne's state championship 3-A team that posted an 8-3 record.

An excellent athlete, he also won district honors for his play in basketball (forward), baseball (first base) and track (hurdles, long jump and relays).

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. As a youngster, Williams performed with a 4-member all-saxophone group that played gospel music in Dallas churches.

BRIAN WILLIAMS ON: His playing style: "I just run to the ball as fast as I can. I'm just trying to make plays, help the defense out and stop the ball from going anywhere...Wherever the ball goes, I go. I want to be near the ball on every play, not lagging behind. I want to be assisting on the tackle or at least standing by the pile."

1992 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 -- September 5, San Diego, California
USC 31, San Diego State 31
Att: 52,168

USC	14	7	7	3	--	31
San Diego State	7	0	24	0	--	31

USC, looking to bounce back from its disappointing 1991 season, opened 1992 with a 31-31 tie at San Diego State before 52,168 fans and an ABC-TV regional audience in the inaugural Ralphs Holiday Classic. It was the first meeting between Troy, fielding its 100th team, and SDSU. It was also USC's first visit to the San Diego area since 1945. For USC, it was the start of a first-ever 3 straight road games on a schedule that some have ranked the toughest in the nation.

The Trojans, ranked 24th nationally by UPI, opened up a 21-7 halftime lead, but the Aztecs came storming back with a 24-point third quarter to make the game a battle to the wire. Only 2 missed field goals (30 and 55 yards) by Aztec PK Andy Trakas in the final minute kept SDSU from upsetting USC.

QB Rob Johnson keyed a revitalized Trojan pass attack, going 20-of-33 for 278 yards and 4 TDs (he was 11-of-15 for 166 yards and 3 TDs in the first half). That was the most yardage for a Trojan signalcaller in 16 games and the most TDs (one shy of Rodney Peete's USC game record) at USC in 21 games (and 1 more than 1991 starter Reggie Perry had that season). However, Johnson lost 2 fumbles (both led to SDSU TDs), had an interception and was sacked 5 times.

Three of Johnson's scores (24, 27 and 19 yards) went to SE Johnnie Morton, giving Morton a share (with 4 others) of USC's single game TD catch mark. Despite being USC's leading receiver in 1991, Morton didn't have a TD catch that season (it was his first TD grabs in 14 games). Johnson's other TD toss was a 22-yarder to FL Curtis Conway. PK Cole Ford tied the game with 5:36 to play with a 32-yard field goal.

USC rushed for 165 yards behind starting TB Estrus Crayton (18 carries, 76 yards) and backup Dwight McFadden (13, 74). McFadden's total was the most by a USC freshman since Calvin Holmes had the same yardage at Oregon in 1987 and the most in a freshman debut since Aaron Emanuel had 76 yards at Illinois in 1985.

USC's defense, which held SDSU to 117 first-half yards (only 42 rushing), couldn't contain the Aztecs in the second half. SDSU ran for 229 yards overall, 220 (the third most ever by a runner against USC) by Heisman Trophy candidate TB Marshall Faulk. Faulk had 3 rushing TDs, including a 59-yarder.

ILB Brian Williams led USC in tackles with 9, while S Stephon Pace added 7. OLB Willie McGinest had 4 stops, including 2 sacks, and 2 pass deflections. S Jason Sehorn intercepted a pass.

GAME 2 -- September 19, Norman, Oklahoma
USC 20, Oklahoma 10
Att: 70,215

USC	0	0	0	20	--	20
Oklahoma	0	3	7	0	--	10

Unranked USC--using a 20-point fourth quarter and a stifling defense--got the monkey off its back in a big way as it snapped its 7-game winless streak by upsetting No. 11 (UPI, No. 12 USA Today/CNN, No. 13 AP) Oklahoma, an 11-point favorite, 20-10, before 70,215 fans in Norman and an ABC-TV regioinal audience.

It was USC's fourth straight win over the Sooners and broke OU's 13-game home winning streak over non-Big Eight opponents.

The Trojans, behind 10-0, got all of their points in the final period. It was USC's most points in a quarter since getting 21 in the final frame against UCLA in 1990.

Early in the fourth quarter, FL Curtis Conway caught a 51-yard TD bomb from QB Rob Johnson to get USC--coming off a bye--on the board. It was the longest pass at USC since Todd Marinovich hit Johnnie Morton for a 77-yard TD against California in 1990. On the day, Conway caught 9 aerials for 115 yards, both career highs, while Johnson was 17-of-27 for 201 yards.

Several minutes later, S Stephon Pace--taking advantage of a new NCAA rule allowing defenders to advance fumbles--picked up a loose Sooner ball and ran it 19 yards for the go-ahead score. Three OU possessions later, Pace intercepted a Cale Gundy pass and the Trojans marched down the field for another TD, this one coming on a 2-yard run off the option by QB Reggie Perry, his only appearance in the game.

USC's defense had an impressive outing, allowing OU only 201 total yards (just 48 rushing, the Sooners' lowest since 1982 when they were limited to 43 by USC). Oklahoma was averaging 504.0 yards of total offense. OU's second quarter field goal and third quarter TD pass came after Trojan turnovers. ILB Brian Williams had 7 tackles (2 for losses) for USC, while ILB Jeff Kopp had 6 stops and CB John Herpin, in his first action as a Trojan, had 6 tackles and an interception. Pace was named the Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Week.

GAME 3 -- October 3, Seattle, Washington
Washington 17, USC 10
Att: 73,275

USC	3	7	0	0	--	10
Washington	14	0	3	0	--	17

USC, a 14-point underdog, gave top-ranked Washington a scare in a valiant losing effort, 17-10, before 73,275 loud fans in Seattle and an ABC-TV national audience.

It was the Pac-10 opener for the No. 20 (by AP, No. 21 by USA Today/CNN and UPI) Trojans, who lost their third straight to the Huskies (and their fifth loss in the last 6 trips to Seattle). USC, coming off a bye, was playing its third consecutive road game.

USC outgained the Huskies (332-271 in total yards), but Washington converted 3 of Troy's 5 turnovers (3 interceptions, 2 fumbles) into all of its points. USC fell behind quickly, 14-0. The Huskies intercepted a pass by QB Rob Johnson and returned it to the USC 1, scoring on the ensuing play. USC then drove to the UW 35 before fumbling it away and the Huskies marched for another TD.

Except for a third quarter field goal, USC's defense stymied UW the rest of the way. Defensive standouts for USC included ILB Jeff Kopp (9 tackles), S Stephon Pace (8, 1 interception), ILB Brian Williams (5, 2 for losses), S Mike Salmon (7), and OLB Willie McGinest (6, 1 for a loss, 1 deflection, 1 forced fumble). Washington converted just 2-of-15 third downs and rushed for just 92 yards.

USC, which got on the board with a 27-yard field goal by PK Cole Ford in the first quarter, used 3 quarterbacks. After Johnson (4-of-9, 76 yards) suffered a mild concussion in the second quarter, Reggie Perry (6-of-13, 136) came on and soon after threw a 53-yard TD pass to FL Curtis Conway. Not only was it a career long for both players, it was the longest pass at USC since Todd Marinovich hit Johnnie Morton for a 77-yard TD against California in 1990. When USC's offense stalled in the second half, redshirt freshman Kyle Wachholtz (3-of-6, 31), in his first action at Troy, came in midway through the fourth quarter. USC threatened late, getting to the Husky 28 before a Wachholtz pass was picked off in the end zone with under 2 minutes to go.

USC TB Estrus Crayton ran for a game-high 105 yards on 25 carries, the third 100-yard game in his career, while Conway had a game-high 5 catches for 112 yards.

GAME 4 -- October 10, Los Angeles, California
USC 32, Oregon 10
Att: 46,343

Oregon	7	0	3	0	--	10
USC	17	9	0	6	--	32

Behind a stifling defense and some big plays in the pass and return games, USC (ranked No. 20 by AP and No. 22 by UPI) thumped Oregon, 32-10, in its Coliseum opener before 46,343 fans and a Prime Network cable audience.

The win snapped USC's 6-game Pac-10 losing streak and its 4-game home losing string. The Oct. 10 date was the latest USC played the first home game of its season since 1919.

The Trojans were up 17-0 less than 7 minutes into the contest. PK Cole Ford hit a 32-yard field goal 4 plays after USC recovered a Duck fumble on the opening kickoff. On the first play of USC's next possession, QB Rob Johnson threw a 36-yard TD pass to SE Johnnie Morton, the first of a school record-tying 3 TDs receptions Morton had in the game (he also had 3 TD grabs in the season opener at San Diego State to tie him with 4 others in the Trojan recordbook). When Oregon's next possession stalled, FL Curtis Conway returned a punt 96 yards for a TD, the longest punt return in USC history (breaking Ernie Merk's 93-yarder versus Minnesota in 1955). Conway was named the Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance.

Morton's other TD grabs were for 25 yards in the second quarter and 22 yards in the fourth quarter. He had 8 catches for 114 yards overall. Troy's other points came on a safety (USC's first since 1984) when Oregon snapped the ball out of the end zone on a punt. Johnson was 11-of-16 passing for 125 yards with the 3 scores, while Conway had 224 all-purpose yards (146 on 6 punt returns, 66 on 3 kickoff returns, and 12 on a pass reception).

The Trojan defense, which had an astonishing 13 sacks for minus 63 yards, allowed Oregon just minus 10 yards (the fewest it has given up since Oregon State had minus 13 in 1989). Overall, the Ducks got just 219 total yards. ILB Jeff Kopp had a game-high 11 tackles (with 3 sacks) and forced a fumble, and ILB Brian Williams added 9 stops (3 for losses). OLB Willie McGinest had 3 sacks among his 5 tackles and he also broke up a pass.

GAME 5-- October 17, Los Angeles, California
USC 27, California 24
Att: 54,476

California	3	7	14	0	--	24
USC	0	6	7	14	--	27

Scoring 14 points in the final 5:45 of the game, USC (ranked 18th by AP and UPI, 22nd by USA Today/CNN) overcame an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat California, 27-24, before 54,476 fans and an ABC-TV regional audience. It was the second late come-from-behind win for Troy in 1992 (in the 20-10 Oklahoma win, USC scored all of its points in the final quarter).

USC capitalized on Golden Bear turnovers, forcing 6 fumbles (Troy recovered 4) and an interception. Cal had 4 turnovers in the fourth quarter alone. Both of USC's fourth-quarter TDs (2- and 1-yard runs by TB Estrus Crayton, only the second and third rushing TDs by Troy in 1992 and the first ones by a tailback) came after turnovers: ILB Brian Williams (who later had an interception with 2:19 to play that sealed the game) forced a fumble which ILB Jeff Kopp recovered on the Cal 32, then on Cal's next series DT-OLB David Webb forced another fumble which OLB Donn Cunnigan recovered on the Cal 14.

Third-string QB Kyle Wachholtz (3-of-4 for 23 yards) guided USC on its decisive scoring drives; he replaced QB Reggie Perry (2-of-4, 37 yards), who had come in late in the third quarter when starting QB Rob Johnson (11-of-22, 134 yards, 1 TD) suffered a neck sprain.

After a pair of second quarter field goals (20 and 27 yards) by PK Cole Ford to cut Cal's halftime lead to 10-6, Johnson hit TE Bradford Banta on an 8-yard scoring pass on the opening possession of the second half. But the Bears responded with TDs on their next 2 series to go up 24-13. All 3 of Cal's TDs were on scoring passes from QB Dave Barr to WR Sean Dawkins.

The defensive battle saw Cal get only 285 total yards (the Bears were averaging 433.8) and USC get 273. On defense, USC--which allowed Cal to convert just 2-of-12 third downs--was led by S Jason Sehorn (9 tackles, 2 for losses), S Stephon Pace (8, 1), Webb (8,2), and Williams (8,1). For his play, Webb was named the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week.

USC (ranked 15th by AP, 17th by UPI and 18th by USA Today/CNN), behind the running, catching and returning of FL Curtis Conway, withstood Washington State's potent offensive attack to down the undefeated Cougars (ranked 13th by AP and USA Today/CNN, 14th by UPI), 31-21, before a Homecoming crowd of 54,038 fans in the Coliseum and an ABC-TV regional audience.

It was WSU's 13th straight loss to USC in the Coliseum (dating to 1957). USC upped its record to 17-2-2 against undefeated WSU teams and 4-0 versus ranked Cougar squads. At 6-0, WSU was off to its best start since 1930.

Conway scored twice in the first half, a 24-yard run off a reverse in the first quarter (the longest run in his career) and a 27-yard fourth down pass from QB Rob Johnson just 27 seconds before halftime to give USC a 21-7 lead at the intermission. Then, with just 3:19 to go in the game and WSU having closed to within 24-21, Conway took a pooched kickoff 58 yards to set up USC's final TD. Conway, who had 158 all-purpose yards (82 on 3 kickoff returns, 51 on 4 catches, 24 on the reverse, and 1 on a punt return), was named the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week.

USC's other scores came on a 7-yard second quarter run by TB Estrus Crayton, who had 62 rushing yards on 14 carries, a 27-yard third quarter field goal by PK Cole Ford (to cap a 24-0 scoring run by the Trojans), and an 8-yard fourth quarter run by FB Wes Bender after Conway's long return. Johnson was 19-of-28 passing for 196 yards, SE Johnnie Morton had 5 catches for 48 yards, and TB Dwight McFadden ran for 57 yards on 15 carries. USC ran for a season-best 188 yards.

Although USC had more first downs (25-18) than WSU, the Cougars piled up 502 total yards, led by Heisman Trophy candidate QB Drew Bledsoe (24-of-37 for 358 yards), who threw for 2 TDs and ran for another. His scoring pass in the fourth quarter was the first points allowed by USC in the final frame in 1992.

The Cougars misfired on 2 scoring opportunities when CB Jerald Henry intercepted a Bledsoe pass at the goal line in the third quarter and when a WSU fourth quarter field goal attempt missed.

Henry had a team-high 9 tackles, while S Jason Sehorn had 7 stops along with a fumble recovery and OLB Willie McGinest had 7 tackles (including 1 for a loss).

Arizona State	0	0	10	3	--	13

USC (ranked 13th by AP and 14th by USA Today/CNN and UPI) used a balanced offensive attack, a pressure defense and the magic of FL Curtis Conway to beat Arizona State, 23-13, in Tempe on Halloween before 51,096 fans and a Prime Network cable audience. It was USC's fourth straight win of the season, its longest streak since 1989.

Although ASU had more total yards (338-252) and ran off more plays (76-62), Troy prevailed. USC led from the start, as Conway outleaped a Sun Devil defender for a 31-yard TD off a pass from QB Rob Johnson midway through the second quarter. On its first possession of the second half, the Trojans marched 98 yards, getting the last 5 yards on a run by TB Dwight McFadden, the first TD of his career (McFadden had 95 yards on 19 carries overall).

After ASU closed to within 14-10, Conway returned a kickoff 95 yards for a TD, the first scoring kickoff return at USC since Anthony Davis went 102 yards against Notre Dame in 1974. Conway had 210 all-purpose yards (140 on 2 kickoff returns, 49 on 3 catches, 27 on 3 punt returns and minus 6 on a reverse), while Johnson was 8-of-13 passing for 137 yards. The Trojan defense posted 8 sacks and limited ASU's ground game, which was averaging 205.7 yards, to just 87 yards. OLB Willie McGinest had a team-high 12 tackles (including 3 sacks) and 2 deflections, while ILB Brian Williams added 10 stops with a forced fumble and DT-OLB David Webb had 8 tackles (with 3 sacks) and a forced fumble. Webb sacked ASU QB Grady Benton 3 straight times near the game's end, the last for a safety.

GAME 8 -- November 7, Palo Alto, California
Stanford 23, USC 9
Att: 72,571

USC	0	0	3	6	--	9
Stanford	10	3	3	7	--	23

For the first time since 1970, USC lost to Stanford in Palo Alto, as the Cardinal (ranked 21st by AP and 22nd by UPI and USA Today/CNN) upset No. 11 USC, 23-9, before a crowd of 72,571 and a Prime Network cable audience.

The loss snapped USC's 4-game win streak and it was Stanford's second straight over Troy (the last time Stanford beat USC twice in a row was 1970-71). With a win, USC could have moved into a tie for first place in the Pac-10 with Washington, which earlier in the day lost to Arizona.

USC, which trailed 13-0 at halftime as it had just 70 total yards (minus 2 rushing), struggled throughout the game. Overall, USC had 5 turnovers (including 4 interceptions, its most since Michigan State had 4 picks in the 1988 Rose Bowl), rushed for only 59 yards (its fewest since getting 29 yards against Notre Dame in 1990), and surrendered 5 sacks (the Trojans were without 3 injured offensive line starters, Kris Pollack, Joel Crisman and Clay Hattabaugh). Two of USC's intercepted passes were in the Cardinal end zone (another was returned for a TD late in the fourth quarter) and USC also failed to convert on fourth-and-goal near game's end. Stanford had more first downs (22-16), total yards (391-323) and plays (76-67).

USC's scores came on a career-long 41-yard field goal by PK Cole Ford on the opening drive of the second half and on a 1-yard TD by TB Dwight McFadden (in his first start) midway through the fourth quarter (which was set up by a 44-yard pass on a reverse from FL Curtis Conway to SE Johnnie Morton). Conway had 127 all-purpose yards (77 on 4 receptions, 49 on 3 kickoff returns and 1 on a punt return), while Morton had a team-high 5 catches for 113 yards. QB Rob Johnson was 11-of-22 for 195 yards but had 3 interceptions, while Reggie Perry replaced him for 3 series and was 2-of-4 for 25 yards and an interception.

PK Eric Abrams had 3 field goals for Stanford, while FB J.J. Lasley scored on a 38-yard pass from QB Steve Stenstrom, who was 23-of-39 for 273 yards. USC ILB Brian Williams and S Jason Sehorn had 11 tackles each.

GAME 9 -- November 14, Los Angeles, California
USC 14, Arizona 7
Att: 53,849

Arizona	0	0	0	7	--	7
USC	0	6	0	8	--	14

In a defensive battle, USC (ranked 18th by AP, 19th by UPI and 20th by USA Today/CNN) used a trick play to knock off a tough Top 10 Arizona team (ninth by AP, and 10th by UPI and USA Today/CNN), 14-7, before 53,849 Coliseum fans and an ABC-TV regional audience.

The win, USC's third of the year over a higher-ranked foe, snapped Arizona's 5-game winning streak and guaranteed USC a winning 1992 season.

For the third time in 1992, USC came from behind in the fourth quarter to win. Trailing 7-6 midway through the final stanza, TB Deon Strother took a pitch from QB Rob Johnson, swept right, stopped, and lofted a 3-yard pass back to Johnson, who outjumped a Wildcat defender for the TD. It was the second TD pass in Strother's career (he had one at Washington State in 1991).

The Trojans led 6-0 at halftime after TB Estrus Crayton's 2-yard run late in the second quarter, the first TD Arizona allowed in the opening half all year (and only the third rushing TD against UA all season). USC missed 2 field goals and a PAT in the first half. Arizona didn't score until early in the fourth quarter on a 41-yard pass from QB George Malauulu to WR Cary Taylor, the longest pass versus USC in 1992.

The game was even statistically, with USC getting 291 total yards to 285 for UA (USC held the ball 5:08 more and ran off 12 more plays). The Trojan defense forced 3 turnovers and held Arizona, which was averaging 182.9 yards rushing, to a season-low 68 ground yards. The Wildcats converted just 2-of-14 third downs, gave up 5 sacks, and missed 2 field goals.

ILB Jeff Kopp had a game-high 11 tackles (2 for losses) and forced a fumble late in the game which USC recovered. S Jason Sehorn had 2 interceptions and 7 stops. SE Johnnie Morton had 4 catches for 108 yards, including a 65-yarder to set up USC's winning TD (it was Troy's longest pass of the year, Johnson's longest of his career, and the longest play from scrimmage against Arizona in 1992). Johnson, who was named Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Week, was 12-of-24 passing for 213 yards.

GAME 10 -- November 21, Pasadena, California
UCLA 38, USC 37
Att: 80,568

USC	10	7	14	6	--	37
UCLA	10	7	0	21	--	38

A failed 2-point conversion pass with 41 seconds to play left USC (ranked 14th by USA Today/CNN and 15th by AP and UPI) with a heartbreaking 38-37 loss to crosstown rival UCLA, an 8-point underdog, before 80,568 fans in the Rose Bowl and a national ESPN cable audience.

It was another memorable game in the classic intracity showdown (it was the series' third highest scoring contest). UCLA came back from a 31-17 fourth quarter deficit to go ahead 38-31, only to see USC QB Rob Johnson score on a 1-yard sneak with 41 seconds remaining. But Johnson's conversion pass to TE Yonnie Jackson was incomplete, giving the Bruins their second straight win over Troy and dropping USC into a third place tie in the Pac-10 (a win would have given USC a share of the Pac-10 title). It was the most points allowed by USC in 1992.

The game seesawed in the first half, which finished knotted at 17-17. After USC PK Cole Ford opened the scoring with a 36-yard field goal, UCLA TB Kevin Williams scored on an 18-yard run. Then, when USC let the ensuing short kickoff go unfielded, UCLA recovered to set up a career-long 47-yard field goal by PK Louis Perez. The Trojans used some trickery to score on the next possession, as FL Curtis Conway took a lateral and, despite having Bruin All-American CB Carlton Gray draped all over him, threw a 36-yard TD to Johnson (the second straight week Johnson caught a TD pass). The teams traded second quarter TDs, with Bruin SE J.J. Stokes grabbing a 57-yard bomb from walk-on QB John Barnes and Johnson scoring on another 1-yard keeper (the first rushing TD of his career).

USC took control in the third quarter when S Zuri Hector blocked a punt and S Bruce Luizzi recovered it in the end zone for a TD and then TB Estrus Crayton raced to a 32-yard score. But UCLA blazed back with 3 TDs in less than 10 minutes in the final quarter on a 29-yard Barnes-to-Stokes aerial, a 1-yard Williams run, and a stunning 90-yard Stokes TD catch of a Barnes pass for the decisive points with 3:08 to go.

Stokes had 263 receiving yards (a UCLA record and a USC opponent record) on 6 catches, while Barnes hit 16-of-28 passes for 385 yards (the most against Troy in 1992) and Williams ran for 99 yards on 23 carries. Crayton rushed for a game-high 140 yards on a career-high 28 carries, the fourth 100-yard game of his career (his second in 1992 and his second against UCLA). Johnson was 16-of-32 for 166 yards, while Conway had a team-high 5 catches for 69 yards. USC's 197 rushing yards were a season high. USC S Jason Sehorn had a game-topping 12 tackles. USC held the ball longer (33:26-26:34) and had more plays (79-63), but UCLA had more total yards (479-399).

Notre Dame	7	10	7	7	--	31

No. 5-ranked Notre Dame used a powerful running attack to notch its 10th consecutive win over USC (ranked 19th by AP, 22nd by UPI and 23rd by USA Today/CNN), 31-23, before 90,063 Coliseum fans and a prime time national ABC-TV audience.

The Irish ran for 330 yards, including a career-best 227 yards with 3 TDs on 19 carries by TB Reggie Brooks (2 yards shy of USC's opponent record of 229 set by California's Russell White in 1991).

Although USC--which wore pre-1970s style jerseys to celebrate its 100th team--had more plays (78-59), possession time (33:53-26:07) and first downs (24-20), the teams traded scores throughout.

PK Cole Ford got USC on the board on the opening possession with a 35-yard field goal, but Notre Dame answered on its first drive as Brooks ran for a 12-yard TD. USC came right back on the next series with a 1-yard scoring run by TB Deon Strother.

In the second quarter, Irish PK Craig Hentrich hit a 37-yard field goal, but Ford responded on the next possession with a 38-yard field goal. Brooks then raced 55 yards for a TD on the following series. Ford hit his third field goal of the game--a 32-yarder at the halftime gun--to make it 17-16 ND.

The teams traded third quarter TDs. After Brooks scampered to a 44-yard score, Trojan TB Estrus Crayton scored on an 18-yard pass from QB Rob Johnson. ND FB Jerome Bettis then closed the scoring with an 8-yard run in the final quarter. USC got to Notre Dame's 5-yard line with 25 seconds to play, but Johnson was intercepted in the end zone by CB Tom Carter.

Johnson was 27-of-41 for 302 yards, all career highs, while USC SE Johnnie Morton tied a career best with 9 catches for 91 yards and FL Curtis Conway added 7 catches for 84 yards (Conway had 185 all-purpose yards). Some 302 of USC's 380 total yards came through the air, while only 75 of ND's 405 total yards were via passing (the fewest passing yards allowed by USC since Arizona had 16 in 1989).

ILBs Brian Williams and Jeff Kopp led USC with 8 tackles each (Kopp also recovered a fumble), while 2 of OLB Willie McGinest's tackles were sacks.

GAME 12 -- December 29, Anaheim, California
Freedom Bowl
Fresno State 24, USC 7
Att: 50,745

Fresno State	0	7	3	14	--	24
USC	0	7	0	0	--	7

USC (ranked 23rd by AP, 24th by UPI and 25th by USA Today/CNN), making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl before 50,745 fans in Anaheim Stadium and a national Raycom television audience.

It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. USC, which started its 1992 campaign 5-1-1, finished up with 3 straight losses (and 4 defeats in its final 5 games) to post a 6-5-1 mark, while Fresno State--winners of 6 in a row--ended at 9-4.

The Bulldogs dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs.

The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC TB Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when FB Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC FL Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass).

After a 43-yard field goal by PK Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by TBs Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog QB Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards.

TB Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, S Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while ILB Brian Williams added 9 stops, CB Jerald Henry had 8, and CB Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

Records include games played by USC at site when USC was not the designated home team.

USC totals include all games played on campus, including games played at Bovard Field.

Rose Bowl totals include games played against UCLA.

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888.

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938---USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939-- USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 13 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. * * *

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; USC's Cole Ford barely missed a 45-yard field goal at the gun), and the 1992 UCLA game (UCLA came back from a 31-17 fourth quarter deficit to go ahead 38-31, only to see Rob Johnson score on a 1-yard sneak with 41 seconds to play, but Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Yonnie Jackson was deflected by Bruin Nkosi Littleton).

"THE COMEBACK"
1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy missed the 2-point conversion) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added coach John McKay right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed the Buckeyes, 17-10, with just minutes left to play. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and he followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's sixth highest bowl winning percentage (.629) among the 47 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Oklahoma State's .750, Georgia Tech's .680, Notre Dame's .667, Oklahoma's .650 and Arizona State's .633). USC is just 3 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories with 22. Troy's 35 bowl appearances rank behind only Alabama (45). USC is the only school ever to have won 9 consecutive bowl games (1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival).

USC's overall post-season record is 22-13. The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 27 Rose Bowls and has a 19-8 mark in that classic. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 6 of its last 8 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 8 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, John Hancock Bowl and Freedom Bowl.

1977 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Michigan 6

After an opening game loss, USC won its 11th-straight game by grinding out a 14-6 win over Michigan. Michigan's Rob Lytle opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge, but Trojan quarterback Vince Evans got that back with a one-yard rollout. Freshman tailback Charles White, filling in for the injured Ricky Bell, rushed for 122 yards, including a seven-yard scoring jaunt that closed out the scoring for USC. John Robinson became only the second rookie coach from the Pac-8 to capture a Rose Bowl.

Both teams combined for 1,139 yards of total offense, including 620 by USC. Dwight Ford raced 94 yards for a score, a USC record, while Rob Hertel threw four touchdown passes (including two to Calvin Sweeney).

1979 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

In a tough defensive struggle, the Pac-10 ran its victory string to five in a row as USC outlasted Michigan 17-10. Trojan tailback Charles White rushed for 99 yards and scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown on a disputed three-yard plunge in the second quarter. Michigan quarterback Rick Leach almost brought the Wolverines back from a 14-point halftime deficit by completing eight of 11 second-half passes, including a 44-yard scoring bomb to Roosevelt Smith. White and Leach shared Player of the Game honors.

1980 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Ohio State 16

USC's Heisman Trophy winning tailback Charles White stole the show as he led the Trojans to a come-from-behind win in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. White, named Player of the Game for the second straight year, rushed for a Rose Bowl record 247 yards, including a one-yard touchdown dive with 1:32 remaining in the game that gave USC the win. The Trojans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, but Ohio State came back to take a 16-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Then White took over. With 5:21 remaining in the game, the Trojans got the ball on their own 17-yard line. USC marched 83 yards in eight plays, all on the ground. On the winning drive, White carried six times for 71 yards.

1982 Fiesta Bowl: Penn State 26, USC 10

Penn State's fine defense and key Trojan miscues led to USC's first non-Rose Bowl post-season defeat, 26-10. Marcus Allen, who was held to 85 yards, fumbled away the ball on USC's first possession and the Lions' Curt Warner, who gained 145 yards, went in to score several plays later. USC's only touchdown came on a 20-yard interception by Chip Banks.

1985 Rose Bowl: USC 20, Ohio State 17

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives--one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

1985 Aloha Bowl: Alabama 24, USC 3

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

1987 Florida Citrus Bowl: Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

1988 Rose Bowl: Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Henry (2). PAT, Rodriguez (2). Field Goal, Rodriguez. Michigan State Touchdowns, White (2). PAT, Langeloh (2). Field Goals, Langeloh (2).

1989 Rose Bowl: Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

Michigan	3	0	6	13	-- 22

Scoring: Michigan--Touchdowns, Calloway, Hoard (2). PAT, Gillette. Field Goal, Gillette.
USC--Touchdowns, Peete (2). PAT, Rodriguez (2).

1990 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

1990 John Hancock Bowl: Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl: Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 BOWL INFORMATION

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in the loss and tie columns (a tie being counted as one-half loss) in all Conference games. If, however, the lowest loss-tie totals of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

a. Two-Team Tie. If the tied teams played one another, the winner of their game shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, if either team is ranked first or second inthe nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If they tied or did not play and are not so ranked, then the following formula shall be used:

(1) Count 4 points for a Conference win.

(2) Count 3 points for a non-Conference win against a Division I-A team.

(3) Count 2 points for a non-Conference win against a non-Division I-A team.

(4) Count 2 points for a Conference tie.

(5) Count 1 1/2 points for a non-Conference tie against a Division 1-A team.

(6) Count 1 point for a non-Conference tie against a non-Division 1-A team.

b. Multiple Ties. When three or more teams are tied in the loss-tie column in Conference play, if one has defeated all others, that team shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, and one of the teams is ranked first or second in the nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a team defeated by all other tied teams shall be eliminated. If one team has not defeated the others, the point formula above shall be computed. Only the top two teams on the point system shall thereafter be considered. If a tie for the second position occurs upon application of the point formula, the second team shall be the winner of the game between the tied teams, or, if the teams did not play each other or played a tie game, the team which has not played in the Rose Bowl for the longest period of time shall be the second team. If the remaining two teams played one another, the winner shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative as in paragraph "a" above. If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

NOTES: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formula. Games in Alaska or Hawaii shall not be counted in the point system if they are "12th games" permitted under NCAA legislation. Participation in the NACDA Kickoff Classic or the Disneyland Pigskin Classic shall not be counted in the point system.

COLLEGE BOWL ALLIANCE

Bowls in Coalition I include the Cotton, Orange, Sugar and Fiesta. Coalition II has the Gator and John Hancock bowls. The Southwest Conference champion gets an automatic bid to the Cotton, the Big Eight champ to the Orange, and the Southeastern to the Sugar.

The Cotton, Orange and Sugar will pick, in order of the rank of their host teams, from a pool of 5 teams: Notre Dame, the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions, and 2 at-large teams from the Southwest, Big Eight, Atlantic Coast, Big East and Pacific-10.

If the top 2 ranked teams come from among Notre Dame and the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions, they will play in the Fiesta Bowl. Otherwise, the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions are guaranteed bids in the Cotton, Sugar or Orange bowls. The Fiesta will choose from the remaining at-large pool teams.

The 3 teams not selected from the Coalition I at-large pool will belong to the Coalition II bowls.

A team may decline a bowl's invitation if it would result in a rematch of a regular-season game, if it can make significantly more money in another bowl, or if it would be playing in that bowl a third consecutive year.

In most years, bowl selection date will be after the Southeastern Conference playoff game the first Saturday in December.

PAC-10/FREEDOM, ALAMO BOWL TIE-INS

The Pacific-10's third place team will go to the Freedom Bowl to play an at-large team. If there is a tie for third place in the Pac-10, the Freedom Bowl can choose its Pac-10 representative from among the tied teams. The Pac-10's No. 4 team will play in the Alamo Bowl versus the Southwest Conference's No. 3 team.

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are several teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--UPI, AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association and the Walter Camp Foundation.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been an amazing 25 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

TROJAN HONOREES

HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT--1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tail backs.

He was the Trojans' first--and only the West Coast's second--Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when thousand-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O. J. SIMPSON--1968

O. J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing --1,709--in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All- American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11- year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher behind Jim Brown.

CHARLES WHITE--1979

Charles White, USC's third Heisman Trophy winner, finished his four-year career as the NCAA's second leading rusher ever with 5,598 regular season yards. Including bowl games, he finished with a Pac-10 record 6,245.

A two-year unanimous All-American, White set or equaled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He gained over 100 yards 31 times in his career, including 10 times in 1979.

In that senior season, Charlie averaged 186.4 yards a game, 6.2 yards a carry, led the nation in rushing, and, for the second straight season, led it in all- purpose running.

HEISMAN SALUTE

MARCUS ALLEN--1981

Marcus Allen, USC's fourth Heisman Trophy winner, was college football's first 2,000-yard rusher.

When he captured the award in 1981, Marcus set 14 new NCAA records and tied two others, including most yards rushing in a single season (2,342), highest per-game average (212.9), most 200-yard games in a career (11), most 200-yard games in a season (8) and most 200-yard games in a row (5).

Allen also led the Trojans in receiving with 30 and 34 catches in each of his last two seasons.

PLAYBOY PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICANS

USC has landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been 49 Trojan players selected (including Tony Boselli and Willie McGinest in 1993), as well as 1 Coach of the Year. Not including the 1993 picks, Notre Dame is next with 37 selections, followed by Oklahoma with 31 (the Sooners have also had 2 Coach of the Year honorees). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 4 different occasions (1970-76-79-80), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team.

— ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS —

Various standards have been used to determine USC letter winners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen.

There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long- standing policy.

USC ON TELEVISION

USC's football team--perhaps the true "America's Team" -- has appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 187 times over the years, including 122 times on commercial network television. USC's overall record while playing on live television is 119-61-7 (the mark is 75-43-4 for commercial network telecasts only). USC set a national record in 1987 by appearing on 6 live national regular-season network telecasts. All 13 of USC's 1990 games were on some form of live television, as were all 12 of USC's 1992 contests.

Trojan games have always been among the top--if not the top--attractions among live televised college football games. In fact, over the 10-year period from 1972 to 1981, USC posted the highest average television rating of any school, according to figures released by the NCAA which were compiled by the A.C. Nielsen Co. rating service. During that span, USC averaged a 15.6 rating on its 24 live regular-season ABC national and regional telecasts. A rating indicates the percentage of all U.S. TV sets that are tuned to a game. A 10.0 rating is considered above average.

In a December 1988 ranking by Sports Inc., the USC-Notre Dame game recorded 5 of the 12 all-time highest college football TV ratings. The 1968 USC-ND encounter was the highest rated college football telecast ever (22.9 rating). The other USC-ND clashes in the top 12 include 1970-74-72-64.

Of the 12 highest rated games ever, according to Sports Inc., USC was involved in more than any other school: 7 (besides those 5 Notre Dame games, the others were the UCLA encounters of 1973 and 1967). Incidentally, USC is 6-0-1 in those games.

As further proof of USC's television appeal, Sports Inc. listed Troy as the top drawing team from 1974 to 1983 (the 10 years prior to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which deregulated the TV marketplace) with an average rating of 14.49 on 24 telecasts (more than a full rating point higher than No. 2 Notre Dame). After deregulation (from 1984 to 1989) and with the proliferation of telecasts, USC was still in the Top 10, ranking ninth with a 6.07 average rating on 25 appearances (less than 2 points behind the leader).

Below is a list of the USC football team's appearances on live television. Listed along with the year and the opponent are the score; the network, syndicator or station that televised the contest; whether the telecast was national, regional or local; and, if available, the Nielsen rating. An asterisk (*) indicates a home game. USC was not eligible to appear on live television in the 1983 and 1985 regular seasons because of an NCAA ban.

Doubleheaders played by USC in 1933 and 1934 are considered as one game for purposes of this list

*-USC Record

#-Excludes first 3 games +-Excludes Whittier and Pomona games

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games. The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldiers Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record. In all, USC has played before at least 41,829,006 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

In 1988, USC not only set a school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

USC: NO. 1 IN THE PROS

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC annually has more players in the pros than any other university.

At the start of training camp this past summer, there were 49 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 8 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 21 of the NFL's 28 teams. Most of the Trojans were either offensive linemen (13) or linebackers (9). There also were 5 Trojan quarterbacks.

In 1992, there were 36 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, once again the most from any university (since records were available, USC has been No. 1 in 16 of the last 17 years). Notre Dame was next with 35.

USC has had three of the most highly drafted classes in college football history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had the most picks of any school in the 1990 NFL draft, with 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft is an NFL record.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing college players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for preparing running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-1993 (which followed the 1935-1992 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available prior to 1967, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (except for the 1960 AFL draft, in which no round-by-round records were available). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

8	Ray George	T	Lions
12	Bob Hoffman	B	Redskins
16	Boyd Morgan	B	Redskins

(Note: Hoffman's selection was later declared void because he still had eligibility remaining. However, he was picked again by the Redskins in 1940.)

TROJAN TIDBITS

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES--USC is 34-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 11 contests it has played after a tie, dating to 1968.

BIG TEN COMPETITION--USC has won 20 of its last 25 games (and 27 of its last 33) against Big Ten opponents.

DIAMONDS--The 1993 season opener in Anaheim Stadium will be the second year in a row that USC opens its seaon in a stadium with a baseball field (Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego). Before then, the last time USC played on a baseball field was in 1961, when the Coliseum was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

EARLY BIRDS--USC's Aug. 29 opener in 1993 will mark the earliest that Troy's season has opened in the modern era. Before then, the earliest was Aug. 31, 1990. (The earliest USC's season ended was Nov. 13, 1909.) USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901 and its latest home opener was Dec. 14, 1918 (USC didn't play any home games in 1900 or 1901).

GOLDEN GRIDDERS--Two football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (ne didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES--USC is 67-37-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 28-8-1 following byes (4 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA).

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS--Among the Trojan footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (he played tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 who played Tarzan), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end who has been a supporting actor in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner has starred in many TV and motion picture films), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in various movies), and Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne--All-American").

HOMECOMING--USC has a 44-21-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924.

IMPROVEMENT--USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

IN FLORIDA--USC has never won a football game in Florida, going 0-3 there.

IRISH REBOUNDS--USC is 5-10 versus Notre Dame when Troy was coming off a loss to UCLA. The wins were in 1950-55-70-80-82 and the losses were in 1946-51-53-54-57-59-66-84-86-92.

NICKNAMES--Some of the more famous nicknames in Trojan gridiron lore: A.D. (Anthony Davis), Aircraft (Mark Carrier), Antelope Al (Al Krueger), B-Boys (Pete Beathard, Hal Bedsole, Willie Brown, Ben Wilson), Bambi (Mike Hull), Batman (Richard Wood, Gidion Murrell) Bear (Byron Darby), Blackjack (Harry Smith), The Bookend All-Americans (Duane Bickett and Jack Del Rio, both outside linebackers), Bug (Kevin Williams, who was 5-9 and 165 pounds), Bullet (Roy Baker), Butch (Walt Underwood, Kendell Nungesser), Butter (Ted Gorrell), Cadillac (Cleveland Colter), Cardiac Kids (1968 and 1969 teams), Comet (Curtis Conway), Cotton (Irvine Warburton), Cotton Clubs (tackles for a loss by Marcus Cotton), Decleaters (knockdown blocks by Dave Cadigan), The Duck (Mike Garrett), End Around (Ray Sparling), Field Marshall (Marshall Duffield), Gloomy Gus (Coach Elmer Henderson), Gramps (Randy Tanner), Hobo (Howard Kincaid), Inky (Haskell Wotkyns), Iron Mike (Mike Garrett), Jackhammers (tackles for a loss by Jack Del Rio), Jaguar Jon (Jon Arnett), J.J. NIGHT TIME--USC's first night game was on Oct. 14, 1944 against St. Mary's Pre-Flight in Fresno. The first USC night game in the Coliseum was Oct. 23, 1944 versus Washington.

NO. 1--The last time USC was ranked No. 1 in the polls (AP and UPI) was Oct. 7, 1981.

OFFENSIVE LINE--There have been 25 first team All-American offensive linemen from USC since 1964 and 17 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

ONE GAME TURNAROUND--USC once had an 87-point turnaround from one game to the next. In 1985, the Trojans lost to Arizona State, 24-0, then came back the following game to defeat Oregon State, 63-0.

OPENERS--USC's record in all season openers is 72-20-8 (.760), with 35 shutout victories. In season openers at home, the Trojans are 52-15-7 (.750), while their record in season openers on the road is 20-5-1 (.788).

In conference openers, USC is 55-11-5 (.810) and Troy has won 17 of its last 22 (and 30 of its last 36). In conference openers at home, the Trojans are 32-6-3 (.817). Their mark in conference openers on the road is 23-5-2 (.800) and they've won 18 of their last 21.

The earliest USC has opened conference play since joining a league in 1922 was Sept. 10, 1988 against Stanford.

USC's record for home openers is 71-19-9 (.763).

Incidentally, in games immediately following USC's 28 non-winning openers, Troy is 19-5-4, including wins the past 11 times (dating to 1960).

PAC-10 WINS--In 1988, USC became the first Pac-10 team to win 8 conference games in a season.

POLYNESIANS--Among the Polynesians who have played at USC: George Achica, Pat Ah-Hing, Al Aliipule, Michael Alo, Charley Ane, Paul Green, Harold Han, Arthur Hemingway, Chris Limahelu, John Kamana, Gaylord Kuamoo, Junior Moi, Johnny Naumu, Sol Naumu, Kennedy Pola, Junior Seau, Mosi Tatupu, Titus Tuiasosopo, Brian Tuliau, and Junior Utu.

RAIN OUT--The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by game officials when a heavy rainstorm with thunder and lightning hit.

SAME STADIUM--USC's 1993 opener in Anaheim Stadium (it also closed 1992 there) marks the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawaii in the same Honolulu location.

SEASON ENDERS--USC is 53-37-10 in all season finales.

SELLOUT--USC's last home sellout was the 1992 Notre Dame game.

SNOW--The last time USC played in snow was on Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). The temperature was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, too, 28-7).

STREAK BUSTERS--USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 25 game winning streak was stopped by Oregon State in 1933.

SWC COMPETITION--USC has won 6 of its last 7 games (and 14 of its last 16) against Southwest Conference foes.

3 FOR THE ROAD--1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games in a row (in 1918 Troy began with 2 on the road and 1 at a neutral site, while in 1900 USC opened with 2 at a neutral site and 1 road game).

1,000-YARD RUNNERS--USC is second behind North Carolina for most 1,000-yard runners in a season, 21-19. Troy's last rusher to break the 1,000-yard barrier was tailback Mazio Royster in 1990, with 1,168 yards.

TOUGH STARTS--USC's last 5 head coaches--Don Clark, John McKay, John Robinson, Ted Tollner and Larry Smith--all failed to win their debut.

TRAVELOGUE--USC has played football in 31 of this country's 50 states, as well as in Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawaii, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

TRICK OR TREAT--USC's record is 5-5 in games played on Halloween.

TURNAROUNDS--In 100 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 28 times. But following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

VERSUS NO. 1--USC is 7-11 all-time versus teams ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

— L.A. MEMORIAL COLISEUM

USC has played football in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923).

Construction on the Coliseum took less than two years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000. The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams and Raiders football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball (the Raiders currently play there). The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The Coliseum's floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts will be a maximum of 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). During this renovation, the lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Additional renovations (the addition of luxury suites atop the Coliseum's rim and a new press box) could begin in 1994.

The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 92,516 seats. However, for some USC games, a retractable fabric will cover many seats, bringing the Coliseum's capacity to about 68,000. There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line, including both the north and south sides.

The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Coliseum's general offices are located at the south side of the peristyle end and are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on game day. The USC Game Management Office on game day only is at the north side of the peristyle end. The will call booth is located outside the fence at Gate 4. Identification is required to claim tickets left under a specific name. The booth opens three hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

The first aid station is located on the concourse opposite Stairway 6. A Goodhew ambulance is available at the Coliseum to transport cases requiring further treatment. Paramedics are stationed at Tunnels 6, 14, 29 and Stairway 23. Doctors expecting an emergency call must register their seat location at the Coliseum office. A messenger will be sent to notify doctors of emergency calls; doctors will not be paged over the public address system.

The police substation is located at Tunnel 14 and is manned by LAPD officers from the Southwest Division. There are also roaming officers and T-shirted security personnel working in and around the Coliseum.

Items that are found should be taken to the Administrative Office at the peristyle end or to the police substation at Tunnel 14. People who have lost something should check back at the Administrative Office a couple of days after the event to see if it has been found.

—TRAVELER, USC'S MASCOT

Traveler, the beautiful white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride, is one of the most famous college mascots.

Tom Nolan, a USC alumnus, is the current rider of Traveler. He and Rick Oas shared riding duties in 1991and Nolan took over full-time in 1992 (Oas, also a USC graduate, began riding Traveler in 1989). In the 1987 and 1988 seasons, Cass Dabbs, a USC student, shared the riding duties with the late Richard Saukko, Traveler's longtime rider. Saukko, who passed away in March of 1992, rode Traveler from 1961 through 1988 (he missed the 1979 season while recuperating from a back injury).

Saukko was spotted riding in the 1961 Rose Parade by Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events. Jani persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Saukko started off with Traveler I, half-Arabian, half-Tennessee Walker, and rode him until the end of the 1966 season. Traveler I, who appeared in movies with the late actor Leo Carillo and whose brother was the Lone Ranger's Silver, died in 1975 at 33 years of age. Traveler II, a Tennessee Walker now 30 years old, took over until retiring in the mid-1970s with a leg injury. Twenty-four-year-old Traveler III, a 1,000-pound, 151/2 hand-high Arabian who was a professional show horse, was the next horse used. The current Trojan mascot is Traveler IV, Traveler III's 13-year-old Arabian brother who was used frequently in 1988 before taking over fulltime in 1989 (the mother of Traveler IV and the daughter of Traveler III are also used on occasion).

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games, but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 32 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including the last 7 years in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), and in commercials.

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, at halftime of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, a costumed Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group, rode a rented white horse. Bob Caswell and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in the late 1950s.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years and then George III for 5 years.

TROJAN TRADITIONS

TOMMY TROJAN

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert. "Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

ORIGIN OF USC'S NICKNAME--TROJANS

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

COLORS: CARDINAL AND GOLD

RINGTHEBELL on Archive.org

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

SUPER FAN!

Giles Pellerin, an 86-year-old retired phone company executive from Pasadena, Calif., is perhaps USC's most loyal football fan. He might even be the most rabid college football fan ever.

Going into the 1993 season, Pellerin has viewed in person 726 consecutive Trojan games, home and away. In all, he has traveled by plane, train and auto more than 600,000 miles (and spent upwards of $75,000 doing so).

His streak began at the start of the 1926 season, his sophomore year at USC. Coach Howard Jones' Trojans won that opener, 74-0 over Whittier, and since then, USC has compiled a 470-194-37 record. Pellerin has seen every USC-Notre Dame and USC-UCLA game ever played.

Giles has come close to missing a game or two, including once in 1949 when he was hospitalized five days before a home contest for an emergency operation to remove his appendix. On game day, he told the nurses he was going out for a walk on the hospital grounds. Instead, he went to the Coliseum and returned to his bed several hours later after USC dumped Oregon, 40-13.

In the summer of 1988, Giles was named a finalist in the Fisher Nut "America's Nuttiest Sports Nuts" Contest. He was flown to New York City for the festivities.

Giles isn't alone in his pursuit. Brother Oliver, 84, of Hawthorne, Calif., hasn't missed a USC game since 1945. That's 529 in a row. Another brother, Max, 82, of Palm Springs, had a 300-plus string interrupted several seasons ago when he was sent overseas to work.

RIVALRY TROPHIES

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools--USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer--signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 29 times while in USC's possession and blue 21 times while in UCLA's hold (there have been 4 ties).

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

SHILLELAGH

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The shillelagh awarded for year-long possession and display to the victor of the Trojan-Irish game was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was originally devised as the trophy by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it.

The foot-long shillelagh has emerald-studded shamrocks with the year and game score representing Notre Dame victories, while ruby-adorned Trojan heads stand for USC wins. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle."

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

—TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band--known as "The Spirit of Troy" --is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in 5 movies (including "Hello Dolly") plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac's popular 1979 album, "Tusk," and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, and John Wayne.

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sporting events throughout Southern California. Approximately 11 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner is also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Girls and Yell Leaders.

TOMMY WALKER

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

SCHOOL SONGS

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On, " was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director (1928-1942). He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show..

"CONQUEST"

USC's other famous song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage--and with good reason. Consider:

--Trojan teams have won more national championships, 75 men's and 13 women's, than any other university in the nation;

--the Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);

--USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times since its inception in 1971;

--Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (265) than those from any other school in the nation;

--Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904, 270 Trojan athletes (more than any other university) have competed in the Games, taking home 87 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics since 1912), 53 silver and 46 bronze.

--3 Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 42 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, second among all schools. In addition, USC has had 21 first team Academic All-Americans.

Here's a closer look at the history of each of the 21 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL--Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 622-249-52 (a .702 winning percentage).

USC's record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 313-120-28 (.709). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on 3 other occasions.

USC has the nation's sixth best bowl winning percentage among the 47 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (.629) and its 27 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 22-13, including 19-8 in the Pasadena New Year's Day Classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, and safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989. USC players have been named first team All-American 117 times, with 37 of those consensus selections and 20 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 8 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 3 of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978), returned to Troy this year.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful careers in the NFL, including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Pete Beathard, Rod Sherman, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott.

BASEBALL--No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 11 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,782-850-14 (.676) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 34 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to each of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 32 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being 2-time selections.

USC boasts many successful past and present major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp and Mark McGwire. In all, more than 70 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year record of 1,332-571-11 (.699) versus college opponents, making him the winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1988 and 1990 squads came within 1 victory of making it to the College World Series (his 1989, 1991 and 1993 teams were NCAA regional participants, too).

MEN'S BASKETBALL-- Only about 4 dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of those schools. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,194-823 (.592), winning 14 conference championships along the way.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams and Harold Miner are a few of USC's All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 21 times. Three Trojans, Sharman, Jack Gardner and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and has led Troy into the post-season playoffs the past 3 years, including to the NIT quarterfinals last year. He was the 1992 national Coach of the Year while guiding the Top 10 Trojans to a 24-6 mark.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL-- After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women's basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours over the last 13 years.

USC's team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Pam and Paula McGee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball.

Marianne Stanley, the architect of many championship seasons at Old Dominion, took over as head coach in the 1989-90 season. Her team--led by Lisa Leslie--made the NCAA tourney the past 3 years, including advancing to the regionals the last 2 seasons.

CREW--The crew program has been going strong since its inception in 1947, and program originator Bob Hillen is still involved as the director of rowing. David Nesbit is the team's first full-time coach.

Conn Findlay, one of America's great oarsmen, rowed at USC. Findlay participated in 3 Olympics, winning 2 gold medals and 1 bronze.

Both the men's and women's crews have varsity and novice eight teams that train all year long for regattas such as San Pedro's Head of the Harbor race and the Pacific Coast Rowing Championships.

MEN'S GOLF--USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 3 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commans in 1981) and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 15 of the 34 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

Former team captain Jim Empey took over the coaching duties in 1993.

WOMEN'S GOLF--The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by their third, fourth, fifth and ninth place finishes at the NCAA Championships in 4 of the past 8 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989.

Top individuals have included current professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti and Denise Strebig.

SAILING--Mike Segerblom, John Shadden and Russ Silvestri are recent additions in the long line of All-Americans produced by the USC sailing team, perhaps the most successful program on the West Coast. In fact, Troy has produced more All-Americans than any other West Coast school and has sent participants to the America's Cup, as well as the Olympics and other prestigious world events. USC's program, first recognized as a varsity sport in 1965, is co-ed. Segerblom serves as the coach.

WOMEN'S SOCCER--USC's newest sport, the women's soccer team, will begin competing in the fall of 1993 under head coach Karen Stanley.

MEN'S SWIMMING--The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy's performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country except the United States.

Over the years, USC swimmers have made Olympic teams 69 times, winning 18 gold, 10 silver and 11 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 97 NCAA meet individual and relay titles and have earned All-American honors an amazing 439 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland. He also serves as the head coach of the Women of Troy.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING--USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 12 of the last 17 years, and have produced 112 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's more famous women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker and Debbie Rudd.

MEN'S TENNIS--USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 14 team champions, 12 singles champions, and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school).

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojan netters for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and has posted a 398-73 (.845) mark in 14 years. His 1991 and 1993 teams won the NCAA tourney and 8 of his other teams have finished fourth or better.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 113 times, with a number of those players also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS-- The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team. The Women of Troy have won 7 national championships.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with 1 doubles champ and 57 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman and Trisha Laux.

Cheryl Woods, a former Trojan player, took over for Borelli in 1989.

MEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY--The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 72-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 30 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 38 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 362-100-4 (.781).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1916-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team.

Fifty-eight USC tracksters have won 84 places on the U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 24 individual Olympic titles and have shared in 8 relay victories. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and quartermiler Quincy Watts.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 100 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy (including 1993 NCAA champion Balazs Kiss in the hammer throw).

The Trojans have also had a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson. And after a 13-year layoff, USC again fielded a cross country team in 1985. Pat Connelly serves as the coach.

WOMEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY-- The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 4 times, including third in 1987. The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her in 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmondson took over as coach in 1992.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. And Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL--Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men's volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there in the 17 years since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles in that time (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 6 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Nineteen Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and 23 times USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson and former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who led Troy to an NCAA title in 1988) also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL--USC has won 4 national crowns in women's volleyball, all under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and has guided USC into the NCAAs in 3 of her 4 seasons.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 27 Trojans have been named All-American and 11 have been members of the U.S. National team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Megan McCallister).

WATER POLO--Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 707-424-7 (.624) record, winning 10 conference championships along the way.

Current coach John Williams has led the Trojans to national prominence since taking over the program in 1973. Thirteen of his last 16 teams have finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1987 squad which placed second in the NCAA tourney (losing in overtime).

Sixteen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics and there have been 68 All-Americans. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Greg Fults, Zach Stimson and Craig Furniss.

USC'S NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 67--far more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions 8 times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 13 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77). Here's a list with the coaches of the winning teams.

TROJANS NO. 1 IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only lead the nation in the number of national team championships (75 by the men and 13 by the women), but rank second (behind Air Force) in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (42, including 18 football players).

Also, USC has had 21 first team Academic All-Americans (including 19 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and tied for fifth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar award (the second most from any school), 8 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 4 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Rhodes Scholar (quarterback Pat Haden), a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell) and a USC co-valedictorian (water poloist Craig Furniss). In 1987, Haden was inducted into the charter six-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1989). John Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE GARRETT

Michael L. Garrett, so much a part of USC's unparalleled athletic tradition, was named the school's sixth-ever athletic director in January of 1993.

Garrett, Troy's 1965 Heisman Trophy-winning tailback who has a background in business, law, government, athletic administration, and community affairs, will oversee the 21 men's and women's teams and the accompanying $19 million budget that make up the nation's most successful athletic program.

Garrett, 49, succeeded Mike McGee, who became the athletic director at South Carolina after 9 years at USC.

Garrett is only the seventh African-American athletic director at a major Division I-A institution.

Garrett had served as USC's associate athletic director since December of 1990. In that role, he was responsible for the athletic department's budget, personnel, contract compliance and corporate sponsorships. He also handled day-to-day supervision of 5 men's sports--volleyball, golf, tennis, swimming and water polo.

Prior to joining the USC staff, he was director of business development for the Great Western Forum (1988-90), including its highly-successful boxing program.

Earlier in his career, he worked for the San Diego district attorney's office and as a youth counselor, held management position in the retail, construction and real estate industries, did color commentary on USC football telecasts, and ran for Congress (1982) and San Diego City Council (1983).

Garrett has been involved in community affairs since his days at USC. While in college, he helped found the Cool-Head Program, an organization that met with youth groups to try to offset racial tensions in Los Angeles, and volunteered at the MacLaren Children's Center, a home for abused children. Later, he founded San Diego's Harambee House, a community-based institution for juvenile delinquents.

He helped establish the East Los Angeles Youth Activities Foundation in 1989, a community-based group that runs boxing/educational clubs as a gang-intervention program. The program, funded in part by a grant from the Amateur Athletic Foundation, continues to grow and now serves the entire Boyle Heights and Lincoln Heights areas of East Los Angeles.

Born April 12, 1944 in East Los Angeles, Garrett was a prep All-American at that neighborhood's Roosevelt High.

As a student at USC, Garrett set the standard for the modern-era "I" formation Trojan tailbacks. He was a 2-time All-American (1964-65) who set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his 3-year career, including a then-NCAA career rushing mark of 3,221 yards and a then-USC season mark of 1,440 yards in 1965. He was the first Trojan since 1927 to run for 1,000 yards in a season.

A versatile athlete, he also started at cornerback for the Trojans and was an All-League outfielder for USC's baseball team (he hit .309 in 1965 and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Los Angeles Dodgers).

Garrett played 8 seasons (1966-73) in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers, becoming the first player to rush for 1,000 yards for 2 teams. An All-Pro, he played in Super Bowls I and IV.

Garrett was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and won the NCAA's prestigious Silver Anniversary Award in 1990.

Garrett graduated from USC in 1967 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and earned a law degree from Western State University College of Law in Fullerton, Calif., in 1986.

Garrett and his wife, Suzanne, have 2 children, Sara, 11, and Daniel, 6.

Beth Woodin serves as Garrett's administrative coordinator.

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).

THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The University of Southern California is a private research institution of international distinction. Founded in 1880, it celebrated the inauguration of its 10th president, Steven B. Sample, in the fall of 1991.

The University enrolls more than 27,000 students annually on 2 campuses, the 150-acre University Park Campus in Exposition Park and the 30-acre Health Sciences Campus, 4 miles to the northeast of downtown Los Angeles.

Some facts of significance about the University include the following:

--USC is a member of the Association of American Universities, a select group of 58 public and private universities in the U.S. and Canada that, together, do 66 percent of all federally sponsored research.

--Enrollment stands at 27,353, including 14,192 undergraduates and 12,004 graduate and professional students.

--USC has 38 faculty members who are members of the National Academy: 9 in the National Academy of Sciences, 13 in the National Academy of Engineering, 5 in the Institute of Medicine, and 11 in the National Academy of Public Administration. Membership in these prestigious academies, created by Congress, is by election only and is based on a faculty member's distinguished and continuing achievements.

--The University is the home of 18 professional schools, in addition to the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School. These schools train specialists in fields ranging from medicine and law to architecture, theater, education and business. Graduates of USC professional schools are serving society's needs in both the United States and many foreign countries.

--USC's schools of Cinema-Television, Social Work, Public Administration and International Relations are among the oldest such schools in the country.

--In basic research, USC is also nationally and internationally prominent. Today, USC stands 18th among all colleges and universities nationally in total federal funding of research and ninth among private institutions.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT STEVEN B. SAMPLE

Steven B. Sample, who became the 10th president of the University of Southern California on march 31, 1991, is a professor of electrical engineering at USC and regularly teaches cross-disciplinary undergraduate seminars, the most recent being "Science and Technology in Human Culture."

He began his academic career as an assistant professor in the School of Electrical Engineering at Purdue University in 1966, following his graduation from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1965 and a year as senior scientist at Melpar Inc., a research and development firm in Viginia.

At Purdue, Dr. Sample's research was concentrated in the area of electrohydrodynamics. With support from the National Science Foundation, he put together a research group to study the generation of collimated beams of charged liquid particles by harmonic electrical spraying. He also consulted extensively for several industrial firms in the field of digital electronic controls for appliances--work that resulted in a number of basic patents.

He was promoted to associate professor with tenure in 1970. During the 1970-71 academic year, he served as an American Council on Education administrative fellow in the Office of the President at Purdue. In 1971, he took a leave of absence from Purdue to accept an appointment as deputy director for academic affairs with the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is responsible for master planning, program approval and budget recommendations for the Illinois system of higher education.

In 1974, Sample was named executive vice president for academic affairs and dean of the Graduate College at the University of Nebraska, where he was also appointed professor of electrical engineering.

As the University of Nebraska's chief academic officer, Sample was responsible for policies affecting faculty, students and academic programs; review and recommendation of proposals for new programs and new administrative units; review of academic budget requests; planning and institutional research; and overall administration of graduate studies.

In addition to his administrative duties, Sample continued his teaching and research, teaching an upper-division course in electromagnetic theory each fall semester. His paper on electronic motor starting systems received the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers' Outstanding Paper Award at the 1976 Appliance Technical Conference held at Purdue University. In 1980, he was given the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the department of electrical engineering at the University of Illinois.

From 1974 to 1982, Sample was a member of the Nebraska Educational Television Commission, an independent state agency that governs one of the largest and most comprehensive educational television networks in the United States.

In 1977, Sample was elected to the board of directors of Design and Manufacturing Corp., a major manufacturer of home appliances, in recognition of his inventions on behalf of the firm and his contributions as a technical and management consultant over the preceding 10 years. The patents resulting from this work have been licensed to practically every major manufacturer of appliance controls and microwave ovens in the world; as a result, nearly 100 million home appliances have been built using his inventions.

Sample was elected to permanent membership in the Council of Foreign Relations, New York, in 1978. Through its meetings and publications and the activities of its individual members, the council has played a major role in shaping U.S. foreign policy over the past half century.

In 1982, he was named president of the State University of New York at Buffalo, a post he held until accepting the USC presidency. He was also professor of electrical and computer engineering at Buffalo and, as he has done consistently throughout his career, continued to maintain both his teaching and research. He regularly taught an upper-division course in either electromagnetic theory or linear-system theory each fall semester, and for two years he co-taught an undergraduate honors course in the department of English on science, literature and society. The results of a research study on reverse-field reciprocity in inhomogeneous semiconductors in magnetic fields, in which he collaborated with three physicists at Tufts University, were published in the Journal of Applied Physics in 1987.

During his tenure at Buffalo, the university was invited to join the Association of American Universities, a highly selective organization of leading research universities whose 58 members constitute fewer than 2% of all the colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. This 1989 invitation marked the first time that a public university in New York or New England had been asked to join the AAU.

Sample served as chairman of the Governor's Conference on Science and Engineering in New York in 1990.

He currently serves on the boards of directors of First Interstate Bancorp, Los Angeles, the Presley Companies Inc., Newport Beach, Calif., Litton Industries Inc., Beverly Hills, Calif., Moog Inc., East Aurora, N.Y., and Galaxy International, Los Angeles. Sample is also a member of the boards of directors of Rebuild L.A. (RLA) and the USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center. He is a trustee of the Los Angeles Educational Alliance for Restructuring Now (LEARN), the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, and the Regenstrief Medical Foundation, Indianapolis. He is a member of Project California and the Coalition of 100 of Los Angeles.

Sample earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in electrical engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1962 and 1963, respectively, prior to receiving his Ph.D. at the same university in 1965. He received an honorary D.Hu.L degree from Canisius College in Buffalo in 1989 and an honorary LL.D. degree from the University of Sheffield in England in 1991.

The National Council of Christians and Jews of Buffalo, N.Y., recognized him in 1991 for his civic leadership and humanitarianism.

He is the author or co-author of numerous journal articles and published papers, both in science and engineering and in the field of higher education.

PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

With another 9 NCAA team championships claimed in 1992-93, more than any other conference, plus 36 NCAA individual titles, the Pacific-10 Conference once again demonstrated it is the "Conference of Champions," thus continuing to live up to its billing as having the strongest overall intercollegiate athletic league in the country.

Pac-10 members have now won 206 NCAA men's team championships, far and away more than any other conference, and 40 women's crowns, more than any league. Pac-10 men's teams have won at least 4 NCAA team titles 18 of the last 23 years, a feat unprecedented in intercollegiate athletics.

The NCAA men's team championships have come at a phenomenal rate--13 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 16 of the last 27 baseball titles; 18 of the last 34, and an incredible 44 titles overall, in track and field; 17 of the last 30 in swimming; 31 of the last 34 in tennis; 20 of the last 34 in water polo; and 18 of the last 24 in volleyball.

On the women's side, the story is the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 12 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed 4 titles in a single season on 8 occasions. Included in this are 10 of 12 tennis crowns, and 9 of 12 softball championships. Plus the 209 NCAA individual titles leads all leagues by a comfortable margin.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back 78 years. On Dec. 2, 1915, the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Oregon. Original membership consisted of 4 schools--University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the PCC, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to 8 teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the conference in 1924 and in 1928 the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950 with the exception of 1943-1945 when World War II somewhat curtailed athletic competition at the university level. In 1950, Montana resigned from the conference to join the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a 9-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new conference was formed called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962 with Oregon and Oregon State joining in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the Pacific-10 Conference took on a new look, expanding to included 10 women's sports.

Edward N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He has been succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971) and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

MEDIA INFORMATION

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE--The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, associate Nancy Mazmanian, and assistants Steven Vanderpool and Linda Dodge) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS--Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance.

TROJAN HOTLINE--Dial (213) 743-2989 for a 90-second taped interview with USC coach John Robinson. The tape changes each Sunday afternoon during the football season. The Pac-10 Office also has a daily audio hotline featuring interviews with league coaches and players (call 510-932-1043).

JOHN ROBINSON MEDIA LUNCH--Coach Robinson hosts a weekly media-only lunch in the lounge of Heritage Hall at 11:30 a.m. each Tuesday during the season. Transcribed notes from each session are available from the Sports Information Office.

USC PRACTICES--Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field are open to the media, however please call in advance to confirm the schedule.

GAME CREDENTIALS--Because of space limitations, only those members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) can be credentialled to Trojan home games. Freelancers cannot be accommodated. Credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis. Requests for game credentials should be sent on company letterhead as early as possible to: Tim Tessalone, USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601. Credentials can be mailed up to seven days before the game; after that time, credentials can either be picked up during the week of the game at the Sports Information Office or beginning two hours before kickoff on game day at press will call outside Tunnel 4 on the south side of the Coliseum. Three types of credentials are issued: working press tickets (press box seat during game, field access during last five minutes of game), TV ribbons and photo ribbons (field and press box roof access, limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game locker room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the area of the team benches.

PRESS BOX--Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevator near Tunnel 6. The lower level has seats for the written press, while the upper level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in seats 244 to 251 in the back row of the lower level during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through the door on the lower level and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES--A complimentary hot meal is served in the kitchen (lower level, east end). Game programs, speed cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Robinson and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box and a detailed play-by-play is announced over the press box public address system. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section on the lower level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact Ms. Elsa Miller at General Telephone at (805) 379-5864 (tell her that the phone installer can obtain your seat location from Tim Tessalone). To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial either (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for press box extension). USC provides complimentary fax service in the press box. Fax, telecopier and computer terminal service for a fee also is available by contacting either Bassler Communications (Dick Bassler), 6706 Noble Ave., Van Nuys, CA 91405, (310) 451-5805, or Amfax (Rick Laubert), 1445 Park Ave., Long Beach, Calif. 90804, (310) 494-8757.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS--The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, the USC locker room will open to the media. Coach Robinson will conduct a post-game press session and afterwards several key Trojan players will be brought to the session.

VIDEO SERVICES--The USC Sports Information Office makes video highlights of key Trojans available to the media. The Pac-10 Office has a weekly video satellite feed featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 510-932-4411 for information). To contract specific video services, contact Rich Zielinski of Zielinski Productions at (714) 842-5050 or Dennis Kirkpatrick of Bayview Productions at (310) 543-1835 or Pat McClenahan of McClenahan-Kelly Productions at (818) 567-4220. Kirkpatrick and McClenahan (or McClenahan's assistant, Donna Moskal) also can be reached at Prime Ticket at (310) 286-3800.

Nearly 400 Trojans have been drafted into the NFL, with many more making rosters as free agents. Since the first USC player was drafted in 1940, 54 Trojans have been 1st round selections--an average of one a year!

PRO BOWL

Trojan alums are among the brightest stars in the NFL. The annual showcase of the league's top talent, the NFC-AFC Pro Bowl, has had 156 Trojan participants.

SUPER BOWL

Sixty-seven Trojans have played in the Super Bowl. USC has been represented by a player in all but one of the 27 games. In Super Bowl XI alone, 9 Trojans played in the game. Two Trojans -- Lynn Swann in Super Bowl X and Marcus Allen in XVIII -- were named the game's MVP.

COACHES

USC provides the NFL with some of its best coaches. Among the former Trojans who have coached in the NFL are Joe Gibbs, formerly of Washington, Detroit's Wayne Fontes, Green Bay's Mike Holmgren and new Chicago coach Dave Wannstedt. Twenty-five Trojans were on NFL coaching staffs last year.

HALL OF FAME

Seven Trojans have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Among the recent inductees are O. J. Simpson, Willie Wood and Al Davis.
